FROM THE DEAN

Prayer Brings Peace

Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. —Philippians 4:6-7

What strikes me in a new way as I read Paul’s words is the connection he makes with prayer and peace. When Paul wrote to the church in Philippi he mentioned issues both he and they could not ignore, and he shared his joy and happiness in knowing Christ. This joy, he told them, has its source in peace. In everything by prayer ... let your requests be made known to God.

As one year gives way to another a window opens for review. Here is a calendar-driven opportunity to take inventory on what to keep and what to unload. The new days of January also give space to approach life with new resolve and forward vision.

Whether we are intentional or not in our approach to a new year, I find Paul offers something of utmost value we all can practice. His advice is simply to pray about everything, and to do that with thanksgiving — and “the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.”

My read here is that not everything that one asks will be granted, but that in asking there will be peace. Often when we tell another person what it is we hope for — what we plan to do — what we worry about or fear, it gives strength to meet the coming days. Once said, it’s time to keep living and face a new day.

With the invitation to let requests be made known to God, one’s hopes and fears are named. What is more, regardless of outcomes and what new days may hold, the conversation of prayer is accompanied by peace — peace that passes understanding. We can’t describe what it is, but we can know that it is real. Peace.

A song children like to sing includes arm motions that embody its message. Imagine saying the words that follow with your own body motion:

*Peace before us,
peace behind us,
peace under our feet.*

*Peace within us,
peace over us,
let all around us be peace.*

Here is useful wisdom that we carry into the New Year. At all times and in all places the continual motion of soul and body in prayer brings peace. Blessed New Year,

Gratefully,

Peter

Treasurer's Report

Income in November was below that of November 2014 due to a change in the month the Cathedral receives disbursements from an externally managed trust. Expenditures in November of this year exceeded those last year due to a higher Social Outreach contribution. However, the Cathedral still managed an operating surplus for the month of November.

Income on a YTD basis through November exceeded the YTD totals in November last year due to higher pledge and plate receipts. Operating expenditures on a YTD basis ran below the totals at this time last year, even though the Cathedral made higher contributions to Social Outreach and the larger Church this year. These higher contributions to ministry were more than offset by lower expenditures on property and administration. The result is that through November, the Cathedral achieved a modest surplus in 2015 compared to a deficit in 2014.

While income and expenditures are better balanced this year, it is still important that Cathedral members remember to complete their pledges in 2015. Moreover, it is also important that members prayerfully consider making a Pledge for 2016, if they have not already made one.

—Chuck Ritter, Treasurer

Pastoral Ministries

The care of souls has long been a mission of the Christian community. Such care makes God's love and concern both present and tangible. Through pastoral ministries, the faith community shares in the joys and sorrows of parishioners to offer support and prayer. Times of illness and hospitalization can be anxious times. Please notify the cathedral clergy or cathedral office in times of personal crisis, illness, hospitalizations, or life-changing events affecting you or a loved one. We want to offer needed support.

Gifts of Flowers or Candles

Memorials are not covered by your annual pledging but are special gifts, given by individuals who want to acknowledge special events or people in their lives. Memorial gifts can be flowers, door wreaths, or candles and are usually given in honor of, thanksgiving for, or in memory of, a loved one or a special occasion.

Our website allows you to sign up and even pay by credit card. You may sign our annual Flower Chart found in Founders' Hall, and you will be contacted by mail regarding your gift. Our flower line (816-474-8260 ext.103) is available to take messages 24 hours a day.

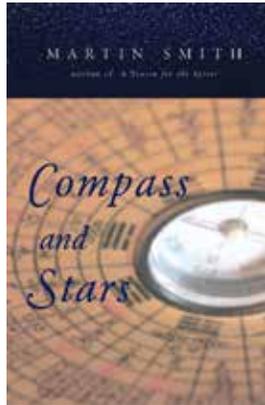

These gifts are accepted throughout the year and are acknowledged each week in the service bulletin and monthly in The Angelus but may be kept anonymous if so desired. When writing a check or giving cash, please annotate the envelope or check "flowers" or "candles" for flowers or candles and you will be contacted regarding your gift.

If you would like to set up an annual memorial gift on or closest to the same dates each year, simply contact Janet Sweeting, 816-474-8260 ext. 144 or jsweeting@kccathedral.org, to set up a notice of annual memorial. ## Women's Bible Study Begins New Focus in January

Beginning in January 2016, the Women's Bible Study group will use a new text as inspiration for its weekly hour of discussion. The book, Compass and Stars, by The Rev. Martin L. Smith, is available in the Cathedral Bookstore or can be purchased online at churchpublishing.org. It is a collection of 34 essays, ranging in length from two to four pages.

From the cover: "These informal musings and reflections, at once theologically substantial and genuinely popular, are designed to help us get our bearings in the life of the Spirit today. With humor and pastoral sensitivity Martin Smith reveals the staleness and oppressive nature of many of our spiritual practices at a time when more than ever, we need to stand back and let the fresh winds of the Spirit blow through our lives." Essay titles include: "Dirty Work," "Oh-My-God," "A Spirituality of Shopping," and "Namaste."

Each week, the group reads an essay aloud at the beginning of the hour, and then sees where the spirit takes them. Usually the group completes its discussion of one essay each week. Women's Bible Study meets weekly on Tuesdays at 1:30 p.m. in the Haden Hall Youth Room. All are welcome. If you have the inclination, but not the book — come anyway, and someone will share!

Scouts Assist Pantry

Jim Phillips' Boy Scout Pack 16 collected 633 pounds of food during the "Trick or Treat So Others Can Eat" campaign. (This is almost equal to the amount of food collected by the entire congregation.) They delivered the food to St. Mary's Pantry in time for the Thanksgiving Distribution. A very special thank you to Jim and Pack 16 who will be making the holidays a little more festive for many families.

A Report on Maison de Naissance

Maison de Naissance is the birthing center supported by Grace & Holy Trinity Cathedral. The latest DEKABES, the newsletter of Maison de Naissance, includes good news. Go to globalbirthinghomefoundation.org to read the full article.

From Jim Grant, Exec. Director:

- 2015 has seen much progress in increased patient volume and in the ongoing economic development program. A garden test plot in 2014 grew in 2015 to include the entire back lot. MN is experimenting with the Moringa plant — hailed as a new super food. Leaves and seed pods are very nutritious and can be added to many foods, e.g. peanut butter, the better to fight malnutrition. It can even be used for livestock feed.
- The Foundation is working to expand international partnerships with Episcopal Relief and Development and many other organizations, in pursuit of newly defined Sustainable Development Goals, successors to the UN Millennium Development Goals.
- In October, the 11th anniversary event was celebrated at the clubhouse at Lionsgate. A silent auction brought in $20,000 for MN.
- Also in October, a group from here went to Haiti. One volunteer taught ultrasound skills and helped the midwife staff create an ultrasound report and protocol. Another volunteer taught IUD counseling, insertion and care.
- A video was produced so that staff can review what they learned. Another video will be made that will be used to teach Moms about this form of contraception.
- One volunteer, named "Mr. Fix-It" made needed repairs at the maternity center.
- This was by far the most complex trip ever planned at MN, but both the volunteers and the MN Staff were gratified to have accomplished so much.

Global Birthing Home Foundation is a US501(c)3 nonprofit charity that supports Maison de Naissance ("Home of Birth") a maternity center in an Impoverished community in rural SW Haiti.

Prayer Shawl Ministry: Contemplative Knitting

In times of crisis, illness, need, or transition, we sometimes long for a gift of love. This describes our Prayer Shawl Ministry. Members of this ministry knit or crochet shawls for the blessing and comfort of others in need. Often, in our visits to parishioners who are ill or in need, the clergy will give a shawl.

In a note we recently received, thanking our Prayer Shawl “Angels” for this gift of love, the recipient said, “Your gift of a prayer shawl has been a comfort and blessing to me during my recovery. My heartfelt thanks.”

Knitters of all abilities are welcome to join this ministry. Please contact Canon Christy Dorn or a member of this ministry if you would like to know more. They are: Mary DeVeau, Jackye Finnie, Lenette Johnson, Debbie Marrs, and Coyote Schaaf.

Thank you, knitters, for your gifts of love.
