

The Angelus

Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral • Kansas City, Missouri

Vol.77, No.10 • October 2008

FROM THE BISHOP

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

This comes as my personal gratitude for each of you as you seek to use the gifts you have been given in ministry as you serve Our Lord Jesus Christ. It is also my personal invitation to you to join in our Emmaus Celebration which will be held on Sunday, October 26.

This year concludes a five-year Diocesan program—the Emmaus Era—begun in 2003 with measurable goals and objectives. These five years have carried significant challenges that have been very evident throughout our Church. But the majority of our goals and objectives have been met with excellent support and leadership from many of you throughout the Diocese—both clergy and laity.

Furthermore, we have maintained a unity and a common support and encouragement for one another and among our congregations that is a true blessing. We therefore have a great deal to celebrate together in gratitude and thanksgiving to Our Lord!

Our Emmaus Celebration will be at 11 a.m. at the Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence. Joining with us will be our Presiding Bishop, the Most Reverend Katharine Jefferts Schori. She will be both Celebrant and Preacher at the Eucharist. She and her husband will also be present with those who are the delegates to our Diocesan Convention, which meets Friday and Saturday, October 24-25.

Comfortable coach buses have been chartered to come from the southern and eastern regions of the Diocese.

And certainly carpooling is encouraged. Parking at the Auditorium is very ample. Child care will be available by prior reservation for children birth through 5th grade.

Many details are available here and in the West Missouri Spirit. A talented group of people are making all the preparations for this celebration.

I sincerely hope that all persons in the Diocese will desire to be a part of this special time in the life of our Diocese, and will make every effort to be present in person. We are indeed very blessed as a Diocesan family! We shall rejoice and give thanks to the Lord for His presence with us and for one another as members of His Body the Church.

Faithfully,
+Barry Howe

FROM THE DEAN

Beloved in Christ,

I join our Bishop in extending a personal invitation to all members of the Cathedral parish to join in the special diocesan-wide Emmaus Celebration at 11 a.m. Sunday, October 26, at the Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence. At the Bishop's request, on this special occasion, our usual Sunday services and activities will not be held so that everyone might attend the diocesan celebration.

The celebrant and preacher at the Eucharist will be our Presiding Bishop, the Most Rev. Katharine Jefferts Schori. Our diocese was last host to a Presiding Bishop at Bishop Howe's consecration in 1998. Gathering with our Chief Pastor and Primate, our own Bishop and our sisters and brothers in Christ throughout the entire diocese, promises to be a memorable event. The youth of the diocese will join the celebration fresh from our Diocesan Youth Event bringing their gifts of enthusiasm and hope, and a mass choir of musicians from many congregations will lead us in offering praise and thanks to God.

Driving directions to the Community of Christ Auditorium can be found online at www.ghhc-kc.org/emmaus and will be available in print form beginning a couple of Sundays prior to the event. You may also request directions to be mailed to you from the office.

Additionally, school bus transportation has been arranged for our parishioners. Buses will leave from the Cathedral parking lot at 9:15 a.m. sharp and will return as soon as possible following the service. In the days leading up to the Emmaus Celebration, those considering riding a Cathedral bus will be asked to sign up to help us plan for enough buses. A donation of $2 per rider will be suggested.

Those desiring child care may sign up using the form on page 4. However, baptized servants of Christ of all ages are welcome to attend the entire liturgy.

As Bishop Howe states, this service of Holy Eucharist will celebrate many gifts of ministry, and will include the renewal of our Baptismal Covenant. I sincerely hope that you will join in giving thanks to our Lord Jesus for His love and grace among us and take part in what promises to be a powerful and joyous Emmaus Celebration on October 26.

Faithfully,
Terry White+

Documents of Witness

led by Dean Terry White

Anglicans in the newly independent United States of America took seriously the challenge to form a new church to carry forth the faith and order of the Church of England. Cases presented by the Rev. William White of Pennsylvania and the Rev. Samuel Seabury of Connecticut laid the foundation for what would become the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. Join the Documents of Witness class September 28 and October 5 in a study of letters from these future bishops, one who aligned the new American Church with the Scottish Episcopal Church, and the other who helped reconcile the Americans to Canterbury and the Church of England.

Examining the office of Presiding Bishop

led by Canon Sue Sommer

Cathedral parishioners will have a unique opportunity October 26 to worship with the Most Reverend Katharine Jefferts-Schiori, Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church. Bishop Katharine, as she prefers to be called, will preside at the Emmaus Celebration at the Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence at 11 a.m. that Sunday.

Join us on the two Sundays preceding this historic event, October 12 and 19, for a closer look at the office of Presiding Bishop. What is the role of the Presiding Bishop? What makes a presiding bishop different from an archbishop? How has this role evolved over the course of our history as the Episcopal Church? What are some of the challenges Bishop Katharine faces both within the Episcopal Church and in the Anglican Communion?

OUR PRIMARY MISSION as the Episcopal Cathedral church in the heart of the City is to be a servant church. We seek and serve Christ in all people, loving our neighbors as ourselves and working for justice, peace and respect for every human being.

Maison de Naissance update

The Healthy Mothers-Healthy Babies (HM-HB) office continues to receive updates on the current situation at Maison de Naissance (MN) in the midst of the torrential rains and flooding throughout the country. Haiti has faced many disasters, but this quartet of hurricanes is unprecedented.

Most often we hear from Kansas City organizations that the motivation to keep working for Haiti is the spirit of the Haitians themselves: diligent, joyful, intractably hopeful.

Rosemond Meneles, the Haitian administrator of MN, reported in September that his staff and their families were suffering. People were injured as sheet metal roofs blew off homes, bridges have been destroyed so food and essential supplies could not be delivered, water was several feet deep in many villages for days, possessions were washed out to the sea, and it continued to rain. Yet Mr. Meneles also reported that the staff continued to report to work so that pregnant women could have prenatal exams and babies could receive vaccinations while they were still available.

The facility was damaged and gas prices reached $13 per gallon. Roads were rivers and mud was everywhere, yet the staff continued to reach out to ensure that a new mother could still have a clean and safe place to deliver her baby.

Now in October, we are encouraged to remember Haiti's waist-high mud, non-working water pumps and barren soil in the previously destitute, and now destroyed, landscape in southwest Haiti. Continue to pray for these families and the lives MN touches even in these times of despair.

A vision for downtown

In a September 13 meeting of the Visioning Group for the Cathedral, plans were launched for two different exploratory discussion groups. One of these initiatives will explore how the role of Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral should evolve within the downtown community that is home to our Cathedral campus.

Downtown has become an area of dynamic change, and our future as a community of faith will almost certainly be impacted by many of the developments taking place. We are in the center of residential growth and business development.

In recent years, we have seen the addition of new public facilities ranging from a modernized public library to the Sprint Center and the Power and Light District. And before we know it, we will have a magnificent Performing Arts Center as a new neighbor. The question is, how does — and how should — all of this affect us?

In the next 30 days or so, you will see the first announcements of discussion groups beginning to take place at the Cathedral. These are not just for members who live and work downtown.

Indeed, we welcome participation by anyone who is interested in the role that this church should take in the downtown area — a role that might go well beyond providing a welcoming spiritual home for the community, also becoming a home for hospitality, education and the arts, public forums, human services and more.

It is important to realize that this is not a committee, and is not intended to function as a committee. Although committees may spring up out of this process as different action plans are defined, we desire for this project to be extremely open-ended from the outset.

What will come out of these discussions? We don't know yet. While we certainly have some ideas of our own already, the very nature of a listening heart is to be open to new ideas from other sources.

We will ask questions of each other and ourselves, but we will also seek the opinions of the many constituencies that comprise an increasingly vibrant downtown — individuals in the residential, the business, the service and the faith communities in the downtown and immediately surrounding area.

The primary facilitator and coordinator of this project will be John Hornbeck. If you are interested in participating, talk to him at our coffee hours, call him on his cell phone at 913-669-1174, or e-mail us at Vision4Downtown@ghtc-kc.org. Please watch for future announcements and information.

Homicide memorial candles

As this article is written in mid-September, Kansas City is experiencing an extremely violent year. The number of people killed in acts of community violence has been higher in virtually each of the months of 2008 and sharply increased during the month of August.

The Cathedral's homicide memorial altar, located in the tower entrance, stands as a prayerful witness to these lives cut short. This witness began in 2006 and has continued ever since. Each candle represents a person slain in Kansas City, Mo., during the current calendar year. A list of names stands nearby.

The candles are lit each Sunday morning and burn throughout the morning services. When a candle is consumed, it is replaced. It is our hope that as people enter and leave the nave, they will encounter this memorial and add their prayers for an end to violence within our city.

Recently, the candles that adorn the altar have been changed out from plastic-enclosed candles manufactured for use in a sanctuary lamp* to votive candles in glass holders.

The decision had both "green" and economic factors. The plastic enclosures of the candles used for the last two years are a #3 plastic and are not recyclable in the Kansas City area. According to the candle manufacturer, CathedralCandle,

#3 plastic is used primarily because it is not flammable, unlike plastics #1 and #2, which are recyclable in Kansas City.

Recognizing that our prayerful witness was inadvertently adding to a landfill problem, Deacon Bruce Hall researched other options that would be more environmentally responsible as well as economical.

Reusable glass votive holders were purchased. The votive candles burn for slightly fewer hours than the plastic-enclosed sanctuary lamps, but are also less expensive to purchase. The initial cost of the glass holders is expected to be amortized within a few months. The remaining inventory of non-recyclable candles will be used. As each is consumed, it will be replaced with a glass votive.

A sanctuary lamp is the candle which burns perpetually near a tabernacle in a church's sanctuary. A tabernacle contains the reserve Sacrament — the consecrated Body and Blood of Christ. The lit candle symbolizes the presence of Christ. The Cathedral's tabernacle is located near the chapel altar. The sanctuary lamp is extinguished when the Sacrament is removed from the sanctuary — for example, on Good Friday and Holy Saturday. It is re-lit at the celebration of Holy Eucharist at the Easter Vigil.*
