FROM THE PRIEST-IN-CHARGE

There's something, if not enjoyable then at least seasonally appropriate, about raking leaves in autumn. There's a chill in the air and, depending on where you live, perhaps the faint aroma of wood or leaf smoke as well. The earth is settling in for its winter downtime, shedding spent greenness, lightening the load ahead of winter's ice and snow. Yep, raking leaves in autumn feels right.

Raking leaves in the early spring? Not so much.

Or so I thought, any way, as I squelched my way through the back yard en route to the ravine-lette between our neighbor's property and ours. A fence is there, erected by our neighbors well before we purchased our house. Near as I can tell, this fence mostly functions as a winter backstop to every stray leaf in the neighborhood that didn't get raked up in the fall. On a warm afternoon in mid-March, Rick and I gathered up six bags worth of last year's leaves from the neighborhood, including some baby-blanket-size sycamore specimens that blew in from three blocks away.

And we're not done yet. The bottom layer of oak leaves, soaked by a season's worth of rain and snow, were sealed hermetically to the Missouri clay that we gamely refer to as soil. If you know oak leaves, you know that they stubbornly resist decay, unlike most other deciduous leaves. They are dead and they aren't going anywhere.

I'm reminded of an icon I saw many years ago of the Harrowing of Hell — the doctrine that Jesus descended to the dead following his crucifixion and death. (Those of us who pray the daily office, thereby reciting the Apostles Creed regularly, are familiar with this doctrine. And if we've been doing this for a while, we may recall that the 1928 BCP had us saying, "He descended into hell.") The theology expressed in this image is that our Lord visited the place of death in order to set the dead free. The icon showed Jesus grasping

Adam and Eve, and drawing them forth from a tomb. But the most arresting feature of the icon was that Jesus wasn't holding them by their hands as though leading them. He gripped their wrists, as though yanking them from death to life against their will.

You'd think that we would hunger and thirst for resurrection. You'd think that when we are in the throes of death — and by this I mean trapped in the death-dealing brokenness of sin, both individual and corporate — that we would willingly, joyfully follow our Lord out of hell and into resurrection. That we would be the human equivalent of winter wheat, just waiting to spring green, as the lovely Easter hymn lyrically puts it. And instead, we so often are more like the human equivalent of last year's oak leaves — dead and stuck. Sometimes it's because, like Milton's Lucifer, we prefer to rule in Hell than to serve in Heaven. More often, it's because the familiarity of the death of sin, however horrible, is nonetheless preferable to the risky newness that Resurrected life offers. Whatever the case, most of us are acquainted with that place of stuckness where we're the metaphorical equivalent of oak leaves — dead, and not going anywhere.

And yet, ours is a God who will not leave us there. Sent his Son to live a human life and die a human death so that nothing would ever be beyond the reach of God's saving help. A God who yanks us from eternal death — both literal and metaphorical.

As you read this, we are still walking the Lenten journey. Easter is yet a long way off this year. And yet it is coming, a yearly blessed reminder that the stuckness of death cannot withstand the love of God.

Why I support the AIDS Walk

My involvement with HIV/AIDS began in the early 1990s when I received a phone call from Brian, a close friend, with news that our friend, Steve Tritten, had the HIV/AIDS virus. They lived in New York City and Steve's lover had already died of the disease. Brian and Steve had lived in Kansas City and graduated from the Conservatory. Steve was a talented tenor with hopes of a career in opera or musical theater. We had performed in shows together and worked at Carnegie's as singing waiters. I didn't know how to help Steve with so many miles between us but I wrote lots of letters and made a visit to New York City to see him. It was frustrating not being able to help so I decided to become involved in HIV/AIDS projects here in Kansas City.

One of the Lenten Academy offerings at the Cathedral was a series of classes about HIV/AIDS non profits in Kansas City. I learned about SAVE Inc., Free Health Clinic and the Good Samaritan Project. A walk team was organized in 1995 from the Cathedral for AIDS Walk-Kansas City. We have continued to walk every year since then-sometimes in rain, sometimes in sun and even once in snowflakes. Steve died in early 1994 but the good news is that people are now LIVING with HIV/AIDS thanks to the drug therapies that are available today.

AIDS Walk-KC is a benefit for HIV/AIDS agencies( Good Samaritan Project, SAVE Inc., Hope Care Center and Kansas City Free Health Clinic) in Kansas City. The walk is an easy 2+ mile walk near the Plaza. It will be Saturday, April 30 in

Saturday, April 30

Theis Park, which is east of the Plaza and south of the Nelson. Registration is at 8 a.m., Walk-Ceremonies at 9 a.m. and We WALK at 10 a.m. Walkers will be done by 12 p.m. Please join the Cathedral in walking and/or pledging for a walker. There are two teams from the Cathedral—Trinity Teens and the adult walk team. Any questions, contact Lenette Johnson (455-0148, lenette-johnson@kc.rr.com) or donate online: <http://www.firstgiving.com/fundraiser/lenetteandjuliana-johnson/aids-walk-kansas-city-2011>.

Altar Guild News

In gratitude we pray for all who have served faithfully on the Cathedral Altar Guild, especially remembering Bebo Sloan.

All current and former Altar Guild members (and their spouses/partners) are invited to an appreciation breakfast Sunday, April 10 at 9 a.m.

Our next work day is Saturday, April 23 from 9 a.m. to noon. Please contact Janet Sweeting if you would like to help.

The Altar Guild is a very special ministry, in caring for the Altar, linens and vessels we become an active part of the liturgy and everyone is welcome to participate. If you are interested in joining this ministry please contact Janet Sweeting at 816-361-3563.

Grant us a renewed spirit of reverence for this ministry and all the work it undertakes.

Episcopal Prison Ministry

Episcopal Prison Ministries is an opportunity for you, as a Christian, to show your love to the "least of these who are members of my family" (Matthew 25:40). God's children in prison have been spurned and condemned by society, even abandoned by their own families. The call is urgent but the commitment is light: volunteers only need to go to the prison once a month. If you are interested in this new Cathedral ministry, please contact Russ Helder at shadwmster@gmail.com.

Give to the departed eternal rest.

Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Treasurer's Report

Feb. MTD	Budgeted MTD	Actual MTD
Income	$ 147,404	$ 157,478
Expenses	$ 124,589	$ 128,339
Net Total	$ 22,815	$ 29,139
Feb. YTD	Budgeted YTD	Actual YTD
Income	$ 250,754	$ 258,780
Expenses	$ 243,250	$ 246,742
Net Total	$ 7,504	$ 12,038

The month of February 2011 was slightly above the month of February 2010 for income while expenses were considerably lower. As a result, the month of February 2011 reported a positive net operating income of approximately $12,000 as compared to a negative net operating income of approximately $55,200 in February 2010.

The first two months of 2011 also resulted in larger income and lower expenses than in 2010. The more notable income items have been associated with pledge income, special gifts, and user fees, while lower expenses have been incurred for property and clergy. The first two months have been positive as these months normally tend to be lower in income than other months during the year. Continuing this positive trend will certainly be of benefit to fulfilling the church ministries. We continue to receive pledge cards and encourage continued completion of pledge cards to assist in the budgeting process for the year.

The work of MN continues

Sadly, Haiti's cholera epidemic is still spreading, but we continue to address needs for training on cholera among our community health promoters. They are sharing preventive messages during their home visits. In January, we also held a special training for them to reinforce their messages among community members.

Our clinical head, nurse midwife Odine, has been working on setting up a system with the local hospital in Les Cayes and the MN nurses to better the follow-up on our obstetrical cases referred there, whether before or after delivery. This will help improve the overall care received by mothers and babies at MN.

Thank you for the important role you play in MN's success. Thank you for helping MN touch so many lives and deliver health and hope to so many mothers and babies. We simply cannot do what we do without you. We are grateful for your friendship and your continued support. On behalf of our staff and the mothers and babies we serve, thank you

See The Marriage of Figaro for free

On April 17, you are invited to join members of the Cathedral's Social Action Commission and friends to serve as volunteer ushers for the matinee performance of the classic opera, The Marriage of Figaro by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. Mozart's masterful comedy is a fitting end to the Lyric Opera 2010-2011 season — the final opera in the Lyric Theatre.

In the opera, Figaro and Susanna are planning their wedding, but a whirlwind of misunderstandings and misdirected affections threatens to derail the festivities. Mozart's masterful comedy features some of the best emerging singers working today. It will be sung in Italian with English supertitles.

As a volunteer usher, you will provide a valuable service to the Lyric, enjoy the opera at no charge, and earn money for the Cathedral's social outreach ministries all at the same time. It's a true win-win-win situation.

No experience is required; we'll teach you what to do. Here's how it works:

- To volunteer, contact Gary Hicks at 816.699.2224 or 816.941.7295 or gary@garyhicks.net.
- On Sunday, April 17, wear black/navy on the bottom and white on the top and meet us in the inner lobby of the Lyric Theatre at 12:30 p.m.
- The Lyric is at the corner of 11th and Central. Free parking should be available on the streets around the theater or you can just park at the Cathedral and walk to the Lyric. It's about four blocks.
- At 12:30 we will have a briefing of your duties and a preview of the opera. Then at 1 p.m. you will help serve as a volunteer usher.
- The opera begins at 2 p.m.; enjoy the opera along with the patrons.
- You may leave after the last intermission or stay for the entire production.

Again, to volunteer for this terrific opportunity to help both the Lyric Opera and the outreach ministries of the Cathedral, please contact Gary Hicks.

EASTER DAY EGG HUNT

It's that time of year again, when we prepare for the Resurrection and new life. The Easter Angels are gearing up for the Egg Hunt, and they need your donations.

We need candy that is

- Individually wrapped
- Small packs, so they fit into the eggs

There will be a giant basket outside the nave for you to drop off whatever you would like the children to receive.

Help us help the Easter Angel by attending the stuffing party. During coffee hour after the 10:15 a.m. service Palm Sunday, April 17, we will collect up all our candy donations and stuff the eggs. The more help we have, the faster it goes.

THANK YOU SO MUCH

Join us for Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral's Sixth Annual

Easter baskets for teens in foster care

Members of the Social Outreach Commission's Foster Children's ministry are planning for this year's Easter basket distribution to Kaw Valley Center and Crittenton Children's Center. This year the Easter Bunny has asked the committee members to look for healthier options.

The committee is requesting donations from the congregation and friends of healthy snacks such as:

- granola bars
- 100 calorie snack packs
- cheese crackers
- etc.

Non-perishable items could include:

- travel-size toiletries
- Chapsticks (lip balms)
- decks of cards
- small travel games
- silly band bracelets

All items need to be brought to the Cathedral by Sunday, April 17 (Palm Sunday)

Baskets will be assembled during the coffee hour following the 10:15 a.m. service.
