THE SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Collect of the Day

O Lord, mercifully receive the prayers of your people who call upon you, and grant that they may know and understand what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to accomplish them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

2 Samuel 6:1-5, 12b-19

David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. David and all the people with him set out and went from Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the LORD of hosts who is enthroned on the cherubim. They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart with the ark of God; and Ahio went in front of the ark. David and all the house of Israel were dancing before the LORD with all their might, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals.

So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with rejoicing; and when those who bore the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. David danced before the LORD with all his might; David was girded with a linen ephod. So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

As the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal daughter of Saul looked out of the window, and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

They brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in its place, inside the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt offerings and offerings of well-being before the LORD. When David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the offerings of well-being, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts, and distributed food among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to each a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people went back to their homes.

Psalm 85:8-13

1 I will listen to what the LORD God is saying, *
for he is speaking peace to his faithful people and to those who turn their hearts to him.

2 Truly, his salvation is very near to those who fear him, ***
that his glory may dwell in our land.

1 Mercy and truth have met together; *
righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

2 Truth shall spring up from the earth, ***
and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

1 The LORD will indeed grant prosperity, *
and our land will yield its increase.

All Righteousness shall go before him, *
and peace shall be a pathway for his feet.

Ephesians 1:3-14

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

Mark 6:14-29

King Herod heard of the demons cast out and the many who were anointed and cured, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, "John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him." But others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." But when Herod heard of it, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised."

For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. For John had been telling Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it." And he solemnly swore to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom." She went out and said to her mother, "What should I ask for?" She replied, "The head of John the baptizer." Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

“Let the whole creation cry”

Roland Martin

Let the whole creation cry, “Glory to the Lord on high!”
 Heaven and earth, awake and sing, “Praise him, our almighty King.”
 Praise him, angel hosts above, Ever bright and fair in love;
 Sun and moon, lift up your voice; Night and star, in God rejoice.
 Warriors fighting for the Lord, Prophets burning with his word,
 Those to whom the arts belong add their voices to the song.
 Kings of knowledge and of law, to the glorious circle draw;
 All who work and all who wait sing “The Lord is good and great!”
 Men and women, young and old, raise the anthem loud and bold,
 And let children’s happy hearts in this worship take their parts;
 From the north to southern pole let the mighty chorus roll:
 “Holy, Holy, Holy One; Glory be to God alone!”

Reaching Out in Mission and Service

How Can I Help This Summer?

Our mission efforts can't take a summer vacation. Please consider participating in one or more of these ongoing service opportunities.

- DONATE SAMPLE SIZES of soap, shampoo, conditioner, body lotion, or other hygiene products (hotel samples are the perfect size) to be used to make hygiene kits for the homeless people who visit St. Mary's Pantry this summer.
- BRING FOOD for St. Mary's Pantry, including Gatorade-type drinks for the hot summer months.
- DONATE DIAPERS for the June Happy Bottom's Diaper Drive. The need is great, currently Happy Bottoms provides nearly 100,000 diapers a month to over 2000 babies.

- VOLUNTEER AT THE KANSAS CITY COMMUNITY KITCHEN at 8th and Paseo. The KCKK serves lunch every day Monday–Friday. Help is always needed preparing food or serving at lunchtime.
- JOIN THE WORK DAY at the Sheffield House, a shelter for homeless women and children. (10 volunteers needed)
- ASSIST EARTHQUAKE VICTIMS: Social Outreach plans to donate $2,000 in the name of the congregation to Episcopal Relief and Development for relief to the earthquake victims in Nepal. Make a special gift to ERD to support this effort.

For more information about these and other projects, please contact Terri Curran, tcurra2@yahoo.com.

The Social Action Committee is collecting school supplies for the children of Saint Luke's Crittenton Children's Center. All types of supplies are needed, including loose-leaf paper, spiral notebooks, pencils, pens, crayons and colored pencils. Donated items may be brought to the Cathedral between now and August 2. Thank you for your generosity.

THE Episcopal CHURCH

JULY 12, 2015 - SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST (B) EPISCOPAL ASSET MAP

The Episcopal Asset Map, a joint project between the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society and Episcopal Relief & Development, invites dioceses across The Episcopal Church to establish and expand their digital presence through the new online platform. Available at no fee, the Map shows the location, contact information, and ministry offerings provided by Episcopal congregations, schools, and institutions across the Church.

“The Asset Map will help tell the stories of some of the truly inspiring Gospel ministry being done in local contexts across the country,” explained the Rev’d Canon E. Mark Stevenson, Domestic Poverty Missioner for the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society. “Episcopalians on the front line of mission will be the driving force behind this resource as it continues to develop for many years to come.”

A simple web-based survey, which can be filled out by anyone with knowledge of the programs, collects information about each location plotted on the map. Images and videos can also be uploaded to provide a detailed description of activities. When a diocesan bishop chooses to participate in the mapping process, he or she appoints up to three map administrators, who in turn review all information submitted to the map and publish it.

The Episcopal Asset Map can be particularly useful in disaster preparedness and response. The map is able to show churches and other locations that may be at risk of flooding or near where a tornado has touched down, and what nearby ministries or facilities could be mobilized to help. According to Katie Mears, Director of Episcopal Relief & Development’s US Disaster Program, “Coordinating a response is much easier when you can instantly see on a map where the nearest food pantry or shelter ministry is. Adding this information to the map can be an important part of disaster preparedness for any congregation or diocese.”

You can see the full Episcopal Asset Map and link to diocesan and network maps at www.episcopalassetmap.org. Find your church on the map and click “Take the Survey!” to update your congregation’s information.

A short video explaining the map can be found at <http://www.episcopalassetmap.org/about-map>.

For more information about The Episcopal Asset Map, contact the Rev’d Canon E. Mark Stevenson at mstevenson@episcopalchurch.org or Katie Mears at kmears@episcopalrelief.org.

Newcomer Gathering

Sunday • July 19 • 11:45 a.m.

If you are you new to Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral and would you like to learn more about the Cathedral and the many ways you can connect with others, join us at our next Newcomer Gathering. We gather for refreshments and conversation in the meeting room in Founders' Hall. You will have an opportunity to meet other newcomers, ministry leaders, and clergy. Contact the Rev. Christy Dorn, cdorn@kccathedral.org or 816-474-8260 ext. 152, for more information.

Glimpses of Hope

Where do you see small acts of love and compassion? Where do you see God's Kingdom infiltrating the world's kingdom — places where God is creating hope, places where we sense God at work? Take pictures and bring them back to the Cathedral. Continuing through the summer, we will cover the windows of Founders' Hall with those image. Questions? Contact the Rev. Christy Dorn, cdorn@kccathedral.org.

Contemplative Living Through Centering Prayer

Mondays • 7:15-8:30 p.m. • Common Room

Thursdays • 1:30-3 p.m. • Common Room

This week we will continue looking at the "Mystical Union & Move Back Into the World Again — Where Do We Go from Here?" Contact Jerry Grabher, jgrabher@kccathedral.org or call 816-590-6205, for more information.

St. Mary's Pantry Needs

Hard to believe the summer is half over and school will be starting before we know it! Help stock St. Mary's Pantry with peanut butter, tuna, dry cereal, and canned fruit and vegetables. Of course, all food is accepted, so please buy extra non-perishables on sale at your grocers, and bring your items to the large basket in the Tower by Sunday, August 9.

Summer Hospitality Hosts

Summer Hospitality Hosts bring food to share after Sunday morning services while our Holy Hands teams are on summer break. What you provide needs to be something simple to go with a cup of coffee, like donuts/donut holes, fruit, brownies or cookies (homemade or from the store) or veggies. Sign-up sheets are available at the back of the Nave and in Founders' Hall for you, your family, ministry group or small group to sign up for one or more weeks this summer. You may also sign up online at kccathedral.org; see the post under "Latest GHTC News." Contact Julie Toma, 816-214-9936 or jtoma@kccathedral.org.

Weekly Formation

- Men's Bible Study We meet Tuesday afternoons at 2:30 p.m. for about an hour and usually read aloud a passage from the Bible and then have a spirited discussion of what we have read.
- Women's Bible Study On Tuesday, July 14, the group will discuss "Jesus — Left Behind," beginning on page 134 of the book of essays titled Against the Tide: Love in a Time of Petty Dreams and Persisting Enmities by Miroslav Volf. For further information, contact Candy McDowell, 816-741-0992 or candylemc@att.net.

Youth Group Fellowship Night

July 17 • 8 p.m.

Youth are invited to a summer movie on the lawn! Bring your friends for movies, snacks and lots of fun! Contact Alexandra at youthformation@kccathedral.org for more information.

Stephen Ministry

Stephen Ministry is a lay visitation and caring program involving in-depth training in communication and caring skills. In the next few months, our Stephen Leader Team will begin recruiting and training members of our congregation to serve as Stephen Ministers. They will be trained to provide confidential, Christ-centered care and support to those experiencing grief, divorce, job loss, illness, loneliness, and other life challenges. To learn more about Stephen Ministry, contact the Reverend Christy Dorn, cdorn@kccathedral.org, or Karen Kissinger, karenkiss1@aol.com.

Diaper Drive Update

A special thank you to all members of the congregation who donated diapers for the second diaper drive to Happy Bottoms. During the collection, 3,958 diapers were collected along with 576 baby wipes. That brings the total number of diapers donated by the cathedral for the first two drive periods of the year to 7,540 diapers! The final diaper drive for this year will be in September.
