COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.
 People And also with you.
 Presider Let us pray.
 Eternal Father, you gave to your incarnate Son the holy name of Jesus to be the sign of our salvation: Plant in every heart, we pray, the love of him who is the Savior of the world, our Lord Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, in glory everlasting.
 People Amen.

LESSONS All are seated. Meditative silence follows the readings.

First Reading: Numbers 6:22-27

The Lord spoke to Moses, saying: Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, Thus you shall bless the Israelites: You shall say to them,

The Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you;
the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace.

So they shall put my name on the Israelites, and I will bless them.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalms 80:1-7, 16-18, said as indicated.

All O Lord our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!

Women Out of the mouths of infants and children *
your majesty is praised above the heavens.

Men You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, ***
to quell the enemy and the avenger.

Women When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, *
the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,

Men What is man that you should be mindful of him? ***
the son of man that you should seek him out?

Women You have made him but little lower than the angels; *
you adorn him with glory and honor;

Men You give him mastery over the works of your hands; ***
you put all things under his feet:

Women All sheep and oxen, *
even the wild beasts of the field,

Men The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, ***
and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.

All O Lord our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!

THE EPISTLE

Second Reading: Philippians 2:5-11

Lector Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus,
who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God
as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.

And being found in human form,
he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death—
even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him
and gave him the name
that is above every name,

so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

and every tongue should confess
that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 2:15-21

Presider The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Reader When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them. After eight days had passed, it was time to circumcise the child; and he was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

The Cloud of Unknowing: A Loving Search for God

First & Third Thursdays of the Month

7:15–8:30 p.m. • Common Room

This fourteenth-century book called The Cloud of Unknowing by an unknown English author inspires us into the kind of loving union with God that The Cloud teaches. The author then leads us on a loving search for God. Sessions end with Abiding Prayer. Contact Jerry Grabher, j.grabher3@gmail.com, 816-590-6205 to register.

The Divine Dance Exploring the Mystery of the Trinity

Mondays, Jan. 9-Feb. 27
