COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works;
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People Amen.

10:15 a.m. SENDING OF THE CHILDREN The children and leaders gather at the chancel steps to be sent to Haden Hall for chapel.

LESSONS All are seated. Meditative silence follows the readings.

First Reading: Isaiah 9:1-4

Lector There will be no gloom for those who were in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he will make glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

The people who walked in darkness
 have seen a great light;
 those who lived in a land of deep darkness—
 on them light has shined.
 You have multiplied the nation,
 you have increased its joy;
 they rejoice before you
 as with joy at the harvest,
 as people exult when dividing plunder.
 For the yoke of their burden,
 and the bar across their shoulders,
 the rod of their oppressor,
 you have broken as on the day of Midian.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

8:00 a.m. Psalm 27:1, 5-13, said as indicated. 10:15 a.m., sung by the choir.

All The Lord is my light and my salvation;
 whom then shall I fear? ***
the Lord is the strength of my life;
 of whom then shall I be afraid?

Women One thing have I asked of the Lord;
 one thing I seek; *
 that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life;

Men To behold the fair beauty of the Lord *
 and to seek him in his temple.

Women For in the day of trouble he shall keep me safe in his shelter; *
 he shall hide me in the secrecy of his dwelling and set me high upon a rock.

Men Even now he lifts up my head *
 above my enemies round about me.

Women Therefore I will offer in his dwelling an oblation with sounds of great gladness; *
 I will sing and make music to the Lord.

Men Hearken to my voice, O Lord, when I call; *
 have mercy on me and answer me.

Women You speak in my heart and say, "Seek my face." *
 Your face, Lord, will I seek.

Men In the roll of the book it is written concerning me: *
 'I love to do your will, O my God;
 your law is deep in my heart.'

Women Hide not your face from me, *
 nor turn away your servant in displeasure.

All You have been my helper;
 cast me not away; *
 do not forsake me, O God of my salvation.

THE EPISTLE

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:10-18

Lector Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same purpose. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among you, my brothers and sisters. What I mean is that each of you says, “I belong to Paul,” or “I belong to Apollos,” or “I belong to Cephas,” or “I belong to Christ.” Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name. (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.) For Christ did not send me to baptize but to proclaim the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power.

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

10:15 a.m. GOSPEL HYMN “The people who in darkness walked” All rise, as able.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Matthew 4:12-23

Presider The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Reader When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

“Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles—
the people who sat in darkness
have seen a great light,
and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death
light has dawned.”

From that time Jesus began to proclaim, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.”

As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fish for people.” Immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

He continues to improve with out-patient therapy and is learning the true meaning of patience as he grows stronger day by day. He is grateful that the stroke has not affected his speech or cognitive ability. He is using this unplanned sabbatical for reading and reflection and is looking forward to returning to the Cathedral soon. The Dean wants to thank you for all your prayers and good wishes. Please know that he holds you in his daily prayers and is thankful for the ministry of Canon Christy Dorn, Senior Warden Mark Galus, and the Cathedral staff during his absence. May you know the peace and presence of Christ at Christmas and in the days to come.

2017 Vestry Candidates

Terri L. Curran

As Junior Warden and Chair of Outreach Ministries, my goal has been to bring outreach and the needs of the community to the forefront. The focus of these efforts has been on hunger relief, homelessness and children. As Outreach Chair, I also encouraged committee members to set goals for their assigned ministries, establish budgets and report results for each project initiated. I took the lead in bringing the ERD Photo Exhibit to the Cathedral during Lent last year. As a way to grow community within the Cathedral, I have been instrumental in organizing Women of Grace Luncheons.

I have been a member of the Cathedral since 2007 and I have been an Eucharistic Minister since 2011. I am a board member of Episcopal Community Services, on the executive board of Mattie Rhodes Center and volunteer at St. Luke's Hospital.

I would love to see the Cathedral become a hub of activities for the Downtown community and be known for its ability to help people in need. We must grow our congregation with younger families and younger adults. This will require some out-of-the-box thinking, which may include providing additional types of services and a wider range of music programs. Through growth, we will be able to expand our outreach efforts. "God blesses us, so we can bless others."

Jeff Debacker DeSota

Six years ago, I came to the Cathedral seeking a friendly and inviting church; six years later, it's hard to imagine a better place to worship. As with any worthy gathering, it's all about the people. This Cathedral provides many opportunities for common mission, connection and worship, and its opportunities are realized because of the investment all of you make into our Cathedral's future.

I am seeking reelection because I want to be a part of the Cathedral's future. Over the past year, the Vestry has engaged in a very thoughtful, challenging and meaningful strategic planning process. As part of this process, I worked with the Vestry to seek congregational input through the "Community Conversation" input sessions, engage in qualitative data analysis of current and past feedback, dive deep into the feedback to develop data-based goals and identify initiatives that will help us attain our goals. I am extremely proud that the Vestry has chosen to put passion into practice, by, for the first time in ten years, approving a five-year strategic plan to be introduced at the Annual Meeting.

Let's work together to embrace our traditions and use them to chart a future of service, community engagement, and the same radical love for others that Jesus shows for us.

Dick Fanolio

I have been a member since 1948. In that time, I have been part of many ministries: former choir member for 27 years, usher, vestry, acolyte, lector, Eucharistic minister and Junior Warden. I have served as chair of the Buildings and Grounds Committee, served on the Finance Committee and the committees to rebuild the Nave after the wall fell and the building of Founders' Hall.

Outside of the Cathedral, I served on the Advisory Board and the University of Kansas School of Fine Arts for 33 years, vice-president of Friends of the Zoo and on the Kansas Union Corporation Board. I am retired from Hallmark Cards where I served as Master Artist and Art Director.

My vision for the Cathedral is that we develop a plant to incorporate the residential population that now lives downtown into our parish life.

Donna L. Knoell

I have been a Cathedral member for 27 years and serve on the Vestry, the Altar Guild, the Social Outreach Committee, as a lay reader and a greeter. I serve as Chairman of the College Outreach Ministry, sending care packages and cards to our college students throughout the year. I have helped with the Cathedral's outreach programs and I have been part of Cathedral Caregivers. I also served as Chairman of the Children's Christian Education Committee and as a buyer for the Bookstore. Together with my husband, we organized a small group ministry which met monthly for dinner, and although the group has currently ceased to meet, we hope to revitalize and expand participation in such a group. I believe very strongly that we are all called to serve our church, and I very much enjoy the ministries in which I serve.

My vision for the Cathedral is that the congregation will grow, both in numbers and in active ministries. I am especially pleased that our outreach ministries have grown and I earnestly hope that they will continue to grow. I envision the continuation of our wonderful music program, and hope that we will see even more music programs develop and thrive here at the Cathedral. I also earnestly hope that our Christian formation programs can continue to grow and attract new members. I believe that we can also become a more caring Christian community as we plan and host more inter-generational programs. I also envision a ministry that reaches out to those who cannot worship on a regular basis, with congregants visiting the homebound, offering transportation to those who no longer drive, and reaching out to stay connected at the Cathedral. I also hope our college outreach ministry can continue to grow, as we seek to reach more and more students. Each of these visions reflects my commitment and dream that we can grow and nurture one another as caring Christians, living out our faith.

Diaper Drive

Because of your support, HappyBottoms, the KC metro area's diaper bank, is able to provide an average of 2,478 children each month with clean diapers. Nineteen percent of families in the metro using HappyBottoms reported that in 2015 they used payday loans to help pay for diaper purchases which are not covered by any public assistance. The Cathedral is collecting new and already-opened diaper packs in January to help fill this gap. Drop your diapers in the blue bin in the cross hall. Thank you!

Birthday Gift Cards for Foster Children

Help a child in the foster care system by donating $25 for a birthday gift card. These gift cards are given to children who do not receive any other gifts to celebrate their birthdays. In the past we have donated 40 gift cards each year, but with the growing number of children in the system 40 gift cards are not enough anymore. Please consider this very special ministry of making children feel special on their birthdays. Contact Terri Curran to donate at tcurra2@yahoo.com.

WANTED: Magazines/Catalogs for Making Collages

Episcopal Community Services has a culinary training program with an intensive life skills curriculum. Participants will be using these magazines to make life vision collages as part of their program. They can use anything with good pictures of people and/or life styles/activities, and would appreciate diverse races pictured. Magazines can be left in the basket outside the Nave.

Food Donations Needed!

Please bring some cold weather comfort to the pantry at St. Mary's for your January donation. Some items to include: canned soup, chili, stew, pasta boxed dinners, canned vegetables and hot cereals. Of course all non-perishable food items are welcomed.

A new offering in the Cathedral Bookstore ~ Haitian Organic Chocolate Bars

Two Flavors: Pure Dark Delicious and Peanut Moringa.

Farm to Table chocolate empowers rural families with social and environmental responsibility; paying them better than fair trade prices and adding value to their crops.

PROCEEDS FROM THE SALE OF THIS CHOCOLATE WILL BENEFIT MAISON DE NAISSANCE, THE BIRTHING HOME IN HAITI, ONE OF THE CATHEDRAL'S OUTREACH MINISTRIES.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

We Need Your Help!

The Cathedral is in need of volunteers to fill the following roles: Ushers, Eucharistic Ministers and Healing Ministers. Ushers assist with seating, pass out bulletins, collect the Sunday offerings and guide our congregation to Eucharist. Ushers also serve at funerals and special services. Eucharistic Ministers assist in administering Holy Eucharist to the congregation. Healing Ministers are lay persons who provide prayer for healing of body, mind and spirit. Volunteers must be at least 16 years of age.

If you are able to fill any of these roles, please contact Janet Sweeting, jsweeting@kccathedral.org.
