COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

O Lord, you have taught us that without love whatever we do is worth nothing:
Send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts your greatest gift, which is love, the true bond of peace and of all virtue,
without which whoever lives is accounted dead before you.
Grant this for the sake of your only Son Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

10:15 a.m. SENDING OF THE CHILDREN The children and leaders gather at the chancel steps to be sent to Haden Hall for chapel.

LESSONS All are seated. Meditative silence follows the readings.

First Reading: Leviticus 19:1-2, 9-18

Lector The Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel and say to them: You shall be holy,
for I the Lord your God am holy.

When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap to the very edges of your field, or gather the gleanings of your harvest. You shall not strip your vineyard bare, or gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and the alien:

I am the Lord your God.

You shall not steal; you shall not deal falsely; and you shall not lie to one another. And you shall not swear falsely by my name, profaning the name of your God: I am the Lord.

You shall not defraud your neighbor; you shall not steal; and you shall not keep for yourself the wages of a laborer until morning. You shall not revile the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind; you shall fear your God: I am the Lord.

You shall not render an unjust judgment; you shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great: with justice you shall judge your neighbor. You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not profit by the blood of your neighbor: I am the Lord.

You shall not hate in your heart anyone of your kin; you shall reprove your neighbor, or you will incur guilt yourself. You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against any of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the Lord.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 119:33-40, 8:00 a.m. said as indicated. 10:15 a.m., sung by the choir.

All Teach me, O Lord, the way of your statutes, * and I shall keep it to the end.

Pulpit Side Give me understanding, and I shall keep your law; *
I shall keep it with all my heart.

Font Side Make me go in the path of your commandments, *
for that is my desire.

Pulpit Incline my heart to your decrees *
and not to unjust gain.

Font Turn my eyes from watching what is worthless; *
give me life in your ways.

Pulpit Fulfill your promise to your servant, *
which you make to those who fear you.

Font Turn away the reproach which I dread, *
because your judgments are good.

All Behold, I long for your commandments; *
in your righteousness preserve my life.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 3:10-11,16-23

Lector According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building on it. Each builder must choose with care how to build on it. For no one can lay any foundation other than the one that has been laid; that foundation is Jesus Christ.

Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you?
If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

Do not deceive yourselves. If you think that you are wise in this age, you should become fools so that you may become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written,

“He catches the wise in their craftiness,”

and again,

“The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise,
that they are futile.”

So let no one boast about human leaders. For all things are yours, whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future—all belong to you, and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Matthew 5:38-48

Presider The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Reader Jesus said, “You have heard that it was said, ‘An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.’ But I say to you, Do not resist an evildoer. But if anyone strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other also; and if anyone wants to sue you and take your coat, give your cloak as well; and if anyone forces you to go one mile, go also the second mile. Give to everyone who begs from you, and do not refuse anyone who wants to borrow from you.

“You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be children of your Father in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers and sisters, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.”

Presider The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

COMMUNION

*All those desiring a relationship with Christ are invited to come forward for Holy Communion or for a blessing.
To take communion, receive the bread in your hands (for gluten-free bread, cross your hands palms down).
Drink the wine from the cup, or holding the bread in your hands, wait for the minister to dip the bread in the wine and place it onto your tongue.
You may choose not to take the wine by crossing your hands over your chest.
For a blessing, cross your hands over your chest.
Prayer for healing is offered at the prayer desk during the administration of Communion until the close of worship.*

10:15 a.m. ANTHEM “Geistliches Lied,” op. 30

Johannes Brahms

Only let nothing cause you to waste time in sadness: be tranquil. As God ordains, be content, my will.

Why do you take care today for the morrow? The One is there for all, he'll give to you what is your due.

Just be in every dealing unchangeable: stay firm.
What God decides is, and has the name of, the best.
Amen.

(Translated from the German text.)

Birthday Gift Cards for Foster Children

Help a child in the foster care system by donating $25 for a birthday gift card. These gift cards are given to children who do not receive any other gifts to celebrate their birthdays. In the past we have donated 40 gift cards each year, but with the growing number of children in the system 40 gift cards are not enough anymore. Please consider this very special ministry of making children feel special on their birthdays. Contact Terri Curran to donate at tcurra2@yahoo.com.

March 1

7 a.m.—Perfect for persons on their way to or from work.
This is the briefest of the three services.

12:05 p.m.—This service is shaped to include both the downtown business community and persons who are free during the day.

7 p.m.—This traditional service features open space. Following the invitation to a Holy Lent, those present visit various “stations” around the Nave. There participants will be marked with ashes in acknowledgment of mortality, be signed with water as a reminder of baptism, light candles and offer prayer, pick up information on ways to engage in outreach, receive laying-on-of-hands and anointing for healing, and fill out a card with personal Lenten intentions to be presented at the Offertory. Following the open space, the liturgy continues with the Litany of Penitence and Holy Communion.

Change of Address

We are phasing out the use of our post office box. Please use the physical address, 415 West 13th Street, Kansas City, MO 64105, in the future.

REMINDER: Palm Crosses/Fronds

Please bring your Palm Crosses & Fronds from last year to the Cathedral by next Sunday, February 26. They will be used to create the ashes for Ash Wednesday. The palms may be placed in the basket in the back of the Nave.
