COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

O God, who before the passion of your only begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People Amen.

10:15 a.m. SENDING OF THE CHILDREN The children and leaders gather at the chancel steps to be sent to Haden Hall for chapel.

LESSONS All are seated. Meditative silence follows the readings.

First Reading: Exodus 24:12-18

Lector The Lord said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction." So Moses set out with his assistant, Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. To the elders he had said, "Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them."

Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 99, 8:00 a.m. said as indicated. 10:15 a.m., sung by the choir.

All The Lord is King;
let the people tremble; *
he is enthroned upon the cherubim;
let the earth shake.

Pulpit Side The Lord is great in Zion; *
 he is high above all peoples.

Font Side Let them confess his Name, which is great and awesome; ***
he is the Holy One.

Pulpit “O mighty King, lover of justice,
 you have established equity; *
 you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.”

Font Proclaim the greatness of the Lord our God and fall down before his footstool; *
he is the Holy One.

Pulpit Moses and Aaron among his priests,
 and Samuel among those who call upon his Name, *
 they called upon the Lord, and he answered them.

Font He spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud; ***
they kept his testimonies and the decree that he gave them.

Pulpit O Lord our God, you answered them indeed; *
 you were a God who forgave them,
 yet punished them for their evil deeds.

All Proclaim the greatness of the Lord our God
and worship him upon his holy hill; *
for the Lord our God is the Holy One.

Second Reading: 2 Peter 1:16-21

Lector We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, “This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.” We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one’s own interpretation, because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Matthew 17:1-9

Presider The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Reader Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!” When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Get up and do not be afraid.” And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, “Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

Presider The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Lector O God, who is with us,
People hear our prayer.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION Please kneel, as able

red Book of Common Prayer, page 360

THE PEACE All rise, as able.

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

Those celebrating anniversaries of birth, marriage, and other joyous occasions are invited to come forward for prayer.

CELEBRATION PRAYER

All O God, our times are in your hand:
Look with favor, we pray, on your servant(s) as they begin another year.
Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their lives;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Holy Communion

All are seated. The congregation's offering is received. The Holy Table is prepared for Eucharist.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM “This glimpse of glory”

David Ashley White

We have come at Christ's own bidding to this high and holy place, where we wait with hope and longing for some token of God's grace.
Here we pray for new assurance that our faith is not in vain, searching like those first disciples for a sign both clear and plain.

Light breaks in upon our darkness,
splendor bathes the flesh-joined Word;
Moses and Elijah marvel
as the heavenly voice is heard.
Eyes and hearts behold with wonder how the law and prophets meet:
Christ, with garments drenched in brightness, stands transfigured and complete.

Strengthened by this glimpse of glory,
fearful lest our faith decline,
we like Peter find it tempting to remain and build a shrine.
But true worship gives us courage to proclaim what we profess, that our daily lives may prove us people of the God we bless.

PRESENTATION HYMN

All Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Memorial Acclamation

Presider Therefore, according to his command, O Father,
All We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory.

The Lord's Prayer

red Book of Common Prayer, page 364

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

COMMUNION

*All those desiring a relationship with Christ are invited to come forward for Holy Communion or for a blessing.
To take communion, receive the bread in your hands (for gluten-free bread, cross your hands palms down).
Drink the wine from the cup, or holding the bread in your hands, wait for the minister to dip the bread in the wine and place it onto your tongue.
You may choose not to take the wine by crossing your hands over your chest.
For a blessing, cross your hands over your chest.
Prayer for healing is offered at the prayer desk during the administration of Communion until the close of worship.*

10:15 a.m. ANTHEM “Let all mortal flesh keep silence”

Edward Bairstow

Let all mortal flesh keep silence and stand with fear and trembling, and lift itself above all earthly thought.

For the King of kings and Lord of lords, Christ our God, cometh forth to be our oblation, and to be given for Food to the faithful.

Before Him come the choirs of angels with every principality and power; the Cherubim with many eyes, and winged Seraphim, who veil their faces as they shout exultingly the hymn: Alleluia!

10:15 a.m. HYMN “I want to walk as a child of the light” blue The Hymnal 1982, hymn 490

SENDING OF EUCHARISTIC VISITORS

The Eucharistic Visitor is sent out with these words:

Presider We who are many are one body,
People For we all share one bread, one cup.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER Please rise, as able.

Enriching Our Worship

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.

Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

BURYING OF THE ALLELUIA

DISMISSAL

Deacon Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

VOLUNTARY: "Pièce d'Orgue," BWV 572

Johann Sebastian Bach

A note on "Burying the Alleluia": "Alleluia" or "Hallelujah" is a transliteration of the Hebrew word expression, "Praise the Lord." It is customary to omit the joyous expression of "Alleluia" from the Liturgy from Ash Wednesday through the Easter Vigil when all the church proclaims, "Alleluia, Christ is Risen!" Today, children of all ages at the Cathedral symbolically "bury" the "Alleluia" until our Easter celebrations.

Lent Madness

In a takeoff of basketball's March Madness, Lent Madness is a fun, engaging way for people to learn about the Church's Calendar of Saints. Visit lentmadness.org to fill out your bracket for a chance to win the "Golden Halo"!

Ash Wednesday Services

March 1

7 a.m.—Perfect for persons on their way to or from work. This is the briefest of the three services.

12:05 p.m.—This service is shaped to include both the downtown business community and persons who are free during the day.

7 p.m.—This traditional service features open space. Following the invitation to a Holy Lent, those present visit various "stations" around the Nave. There participants will be marked with ashes in acknowledgment of mortality, be signed with water as a reminder of baptism, light candles and offer prayer, pick up information on ways to engage in outreach, receive laying-on-of-hands and anointing for healing, and fill out a card with personal Lenten intentions to be presented at the Offertory. Following the open space, the liturgy continues with the Litany of Penitence and Holy Communion.

Formation

Weekly Formation

Tuesday, February 28

Women's Bible Study: On Tuesday, February 28 we will discuss Day 23 beginning on Page 74 of Forward Movement's publication The 50 Day Bible Challenge: A Journey with Mark.

Wednesdays

7 p.m. • Haden Hall Youth Room

Trinity Teens Youth Group: Youth in grades 6-12 are invited to the youth room every Wednesday evening for a shared meal, fellowship, Scripture-based discussion and worship.

The Cloud of Unknowing: A Loving Search for God

May 4 and 18

7:15–8:30 p.m. • Common Room

This fourteenth-century book called The Cloud of Unknowing by an unknown English author inspires us into the kind of loving union with God that The Cloud teaches. The author then leads us on a loving search for God. Sessions end with Abiding Prayer. Contact Jerry Grabher, j.grabher3@gmail.com or 816-590-6205 to register.

The Divine Dance

Exploring the Mystery of the Trinity

Mondays, January 9-February 27

7:15–8:30 p.m. • Common Room

God is not what you think. Forget visions of an angry, distant, moral scorekeeper or supernatural Santa Claus. The Divine Dance makes accessible the Christian tradition's most surprising gift, God as community, as friendship, as dance. Contact Jerry Grabher, j.grabher3@gmail.com or 816-590-6205 to register.

The Way

Wednesdays, 6-8 p.m.

We invite you to join us for an adult faith formation experience for those seeking to deepen their faith, or know more about the Episcopal Church. The Way is for persons new to the church, those desiring to be baptized, confirmed or received into the Episcopal Church. Each evening includes a meal, a brief presentation, group Bible sharing, and concludes with prayer. Please contact Larry Ehren, Way Coordinator, lgehren@yahoo.com.
