THE LITURGY OF GOOD FRIDAY

From the Book of Common Prayer, beginning on page 276.

The clergy enter in silence. All kneel for silent prayer. The Presider then stands alone and says:

Presider Blessed be our God,
People For ever and ever. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

red Book of Common Prayer, page 276

Presider The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.
Almighty God, we pray you graciously to behold this your family, for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed, and given into the hands of sinners, and to suffer death upon the cross; who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

LESSONS (meditative silence follows the readings)

Old Testament: Isaiah 52:13-53:12

Lector See, my servant shall prosper; he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high. Just as there were many who were astonished at him—so marred was his appearance, beyond human semblance, and his form beyond that of mortals—so he shall startle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths because of him; for that which had not been told them they shall see, and that which they had not heard they shall contemplate.

Who has believed what we have heard? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed? For he grew up before him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; he had no form or majesty that we should look at him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by others; a man of suffering and acquainted with infirmity; and as one from whom others hide their faces he was despised, and we held him of no account.

Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people. They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth.

Yet it was the will of the Lord to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the Lord shall prosper. Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 22

All

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? *
and are so far from my cry and from the words of my distress?

Font Side O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; *
 by night as well, but I find no rest.

Pulpit Side Yet you are the Holy One, *

enthroned upon the praises of Israel.

Font Side Our forefathers put their trust in you; *
 they trusted, and you delivered them.

Pulpit Side They cried out to you and were delivered; *
they trusted in you and were not put to shame.

Font Side But as for me, I am a worm and no man, *
scorned by all and despised by the people.

Pulpit Side All who see me laugh me to scorn; *
they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying,

Font Side "He trusted in the Lord; let him deliver him; *
let him rescue him, if he delights in him."

Pulpit Side Yet you are he who took me out of the womb, *
and kept me safe upon my mother's breast.

Font Side I have been entrusted to you ever since I was born; *
you were my God when I was still in my mother's womb.

Pulpit Side Be not far from me, for trouble is near, *
and there is none to help.

Font Side Many young bulls encircle me; *
strong bulls of Bashan surround me.

Pulpit Side They open wide their jaws at me, *
like a ravening and a roaring lion.

Font Side I am poured out like water; all my bones are out of joint; *
my heart within my breast is melting wax.

Pulpit Side My mouth is dried out like a pot-sherd; my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; *
and you have laid me in the dust of the grave.

Font Side Packs of dogs close me in, and gangs of evildoers circle around me; *
they pierce my hands and my feet; I can count all my bones.

Pulpit Side They stare and gloat over me; *
they divide my garments among them; they cast lots for my clothing.

Font Side Be not far away, O Lord; *
you are my strength; hasten to help me.

Pulpit Side Save me from the sword, *
my life from the power of the dog.

Font Side Save me from the lion's mouth, *
my wretched body from the horns of wild bulls.

Pulpit Side I will declare your Name to my brethren; *
in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.

Font Side Praise the Lord, you that fear him; *
stand in awe of him, O offspring of Israel;
all you of Jacob's line, give glory.

Pulpit Side For he does not despise nor abhor the poor in their poverty;
neither does he hide his face from them; *
but when they cry to him he hears them.

Font Side My praise is of him in the great assembly; *
I will perform my vows in the presence of those who worship him.

Pulpit Side The poor shall eat and be satisfied, and those who seek the Lord shall praise him: *
"May your heart live for ever!"

Font Side All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord, * and all the families of the nations shall bow before him.

Pulpit Side For kingship belongs to the Lord; *
he rules over the nations.

Font Side To him alone all who sleep in the earth bow down in worship; *
all who go down to the dust fall before him.

Pulpit Side My soul shall live for him;
my descendants shall serve him; *
they shall be known as the Lord's for ever.

All They shall come and make known to a people yet unborn * the saving deeds that he has done.

Epistle: Hebrews 10:16-25

The reading from Hebrews is not read aloud today but is printed for your personal reflection.

The Holy Spirit testifies saying, "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds," he also adds, "I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more." Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin. Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

THE PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST ACCORDING TO JOHN

The Passion Gospel is sung in parts by the choir with the congregation speaking all parts marked "Crowd."

The congregation sits until the mention of "Golgotha."

Narrator: Jesus went out with his disciples across the Kidron valley to a place where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered. Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, because Jesus often met there with his disciples. So Judas brought a detachment of soldiers together with police from the chief priests and the Pharisees, and they came there with lanterns and torches and weapons. Then Jesus, knowing all that was to happen to him, came forward and asked them,

Jesus: "For whom are you looking?"

Narrator: They answered,

Pharisees: "Jesus of Nazareth."

Narrator: Jesus replied,

Jesus: "I am he."

Narrator: Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them. When Jesus said to them, "I am he," they stepped back and fell to the ground. Again he asked them,

Jesus: "For whom are you looking?"

Narrator: And they said,

Pharisees: "Jesus of Nazareth."

Narrator: Jesus answered,

Jesus: "I told you that I am he. So if you are looking for me, let these men go."

Narrator: This was to fulfill the word that he had spoken, "I did not lose a single one of those whom you gave me." Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it, struck the high priest's slave, and cut off his right ear. The slave's name was Malchus. Jesus said to Peter,

Jesus: "Put your sword back into its sheath. Am I not to drink the cup that the Father has given me?"

Narrator: So the soldiers, their officer, and the Jewish police arrested Jesus and bound him. First they took him to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year. Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it was better to have one person die for the people. Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. Since that disciple was known to the high priest, he went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest, but Peter was standing outside at the gate. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out, spoke to the woman who guarded the gate, and brought Peter in. The woman said to Peter,

Woman at the gate: "You are not also one of this man's disciples, are you?"

Narrator: He said,

Simon Peter: "I am not."

Narrator: Now the slaves and the police had made a charcoal fire because it was cold, and they were standing around it and warming themselves. Peter also was standing with them and warming himself. Then the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching. Jesus answered,

Jesus: "I have spoken openly to the world; I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all the Jews come together. I have said nothing in secret. why do you ask me? Ask those who heard what I said to them; they know what I said."

Narrator: When he had said this, one of the police standing nearby struck Jesus on the face, saying,

Police: "Is that how you answer the high priest?"

Narrator: Jesus answered,

Jesus: "If I have spoken wrongly, testify to the wrong. But if I have spoken rightly, why do you strike me?"

Narrator: Then Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest. Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They asked him,

Slave: "You are not also one of his disciples, are you?"

Narrator: He denied it and said,

Simon Peter: "I am not."

Narrator: One of the slaves of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked,

Slave: "Did I not see you in the garden with him?"

Narrator: Again Peter denied it, and at that moment the cock crowed. Then they took Jesus from Caiaphas to Pilate's headquarters. It was early in the morning. They themselves did not enter the headquarters, so as to avoid ritual defilement and to be able to eat the Passover. So Pilate went out to them and said,

Pilate: "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

Narrator: They answered,

Pharisee: "If this man were not a criminal, we would not have handed him over to you."

Narrator: Pilate said to them,

Pilate: "Take him yourselves and judge him according to your law."

Narrator: The Jews replied,

Pharisees: "We are not permitted to put anyone to death."

Narrator: (This was to fulfill what Jesus had said when he indicated the kind of death he was to die.) Then Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him,

Pilate: "Are you the King of the Jews?"

Narrator: Jesus answered,

Jesus: "Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?"

Narrator: Pilate replied,

Pilate: "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?"

Narrator: Jesus answered,

Jesus: "My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here."

Narrator: Pilate asked him,

Pilate: "So you are a king?"

Narrator: Jesus answered,

Jesus: "You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

Narrator: Pilate asked him,

Pilate: "What is truth?"

Narrator: After he had said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them,

Pilate: "I find no case against him. But you have a custom that I release someone for you at the Passover. Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?"

Narrator: They shouted in reply,

Crowd: "Not this man, but Barabbas!"

Narrator: [Now Barabbas was a bandit.] Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged. And the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they dressed him in a purple robe. They kept coming up to him, saying,

Soldiers: "Hail, King of the Jews!"

Narrator: and striking him on the face. Pilate went out again and said to them,

Pilate: "Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know that I find no case against him."

Narrator: So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them,

Pilate: "Here is the man!"

Narrator: When the chief priests and the police saw him, they shouted,

Crowd: "Crucify him! Crucify him!"

Narrator: Pilate said to them,

Pilate: "Take him yourselves and crucify him; I find no case against him."

Narrator: The Jews answered him,

Crowd: "We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has claimed to be the Son of God."

Narrator: Now when Pilate heard this, he was more afraid than ever. He entered his headquarters again and asked Jesus,

Pilate: "From where have you come?"

Narrator: But Jesus gave him no answer. Pilate therefore said to him, Pilate: "Do you refuse to speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to release you, and power to crucify you?"

Narrator: Jesus answered him,

Jesus: "You would have no power over me unless it had been given you from above; therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin."

Narrator: From then on Pilate tried to release him, but the Jews cried out,

Crowd: "If you release this man, you are no friend of the emperor. Everyone who claims to be a king sets himself against the emperor."

Narrator: When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus outside and sat on the judge's bench at a place called The Stone

Pavement, or in Hebrew Gabbatha. Now it was the day of Preparation for the Passover; and it was about noon. He said to the Jews,

Pilate: "Here is your King!"

Narrator: They cried out,

Crowd: "Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!"

Narrator: Pilate asked them,

Pilate: "Shall I crucify your King?"

Narrator: The chief priests answered,

Priests: "We have no king but the emperor."

Narrator: Then he handed him over to them to be crucified.

All rise, as able.

So they took Jesus; and carrying the cross by himself, he went out to what is called The Place of the Skull, which in Hebrew is called Golgotha. (The Congregation stands.) There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, with Jesus between them. Pilate also had an inscription written and put on the cross. It read, "Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews." Many of the Jews read this inscription, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate,

Priest: "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but 'This man said, I am the King of the Jews.'"

Narrator: Pilate answered,

Pilate: "What I have written I have written."

Narrator: When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four parts, one for each soldier. They also took his tunic; now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. So they said to one another,

Soldier: "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see who will get it."

Narrator: This was to fulfill what the scripture says, "They divided my clothes among themselves, and for my clothing they cast lots." And that is what the soldiers did. Meanwhile, standing near the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her, he said to his mother,

Jesus: "Woman, here is your son."

Narrator: Then he said to the disciple,

Jesus: "Here is your mother."

Narrator: And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home. After this, when Jesus knew that all was now finished, he said (in order to fulfill the scripture),

Jesus: "I am thirsty."

Narrator: A jar full of sour wine was standing there. So they put a sponge full of the wine on a branch of hyssop and held it to his mouth. When Jesus had receive the wine, he said,

Jesus: "It is finished."

Narrator: Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit. Since it was the day of Preparation, the Jews did not want the bodies left on the cross during the sabbath, especially because that sabbath was a day of great solemnity. So they asked Pilate to have the legs of the crucified men broken and the bodies removed. Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who had been crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. Instead, one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once blood and water came out. (He who saw this has testified so that you also may believe. His testimony is true, and he knows that he tells the truth.) These things occurred so that the scripture might be fulfilled, "None of his bones shall be broken." And again another passage of scripture says, "They will look on the one whom they have pierced."

The congregation is seated.

MEDITATION

SOLEMN COLLECT All rise, as able.

red Book of Common Prayer, page 277

Deacon Dear People of God: Our heavenly Father sent his Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved; that all who believe in him might be delivered from the power of sin and death, and become heirs with him of everlasting life.

We pray, therefore, for people everywhere according to their needs.

BIDDINGS AND COLLECTS Please kneel, as able

Deacon Let us pray for the holy catholic church of Christ throughout the world;
For its unity in witness and service
For all bishops and other ministers and the people whom they serve
For Martin our bishop and all the people of this diocese
For Michael our presiding bishop
For all Christians in this community
For those about to be baptized, particularly Bradley Amer and Brian Cowley.
That God will confirm Christ's Church in faith, increase it in love, and preserve it in peace.

Silence

Presider Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of your faithful people is governed and sanctified: Receive our supplications and prayers which we offer before you for all member of your holy Church, that in their vocation and ministry they may truly and devoutly serve you; through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

Deacon Let us pray for all nations and peoples of the earth, and for those in authority among them;
For the nations of the world, especially those in crisis and war
For the Members and Representatives of the United Nations
For the President of the United States
For the Congress and the Supreme Court
For our representatives in state and local government
For our governors and mayors, and local officials
For all who serve the common good
That by God's help they may seek justice and truth, and live in peace and concord.

Silence

Presider Almighty God, kindle, we pray, in every heart the true love of peace, and guide with your wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth; that in tranquility your dominion may increase, until the earth is filled with the knowledge of your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Deacon Let us pray for all who suffer and are afflicted in body or in mind;
For the hungry and the homeless, the destitute and the oppressed
For the sick, the wounded, and physically challenged
For those affected by drought and natural disaster
For those who live in loneliness, fear, and anguish
For those who face temptation, doubt, and despair
For prisoners, refugees, and those in mortal danger
For the sorrowful and bereaved.

That God, in infinite mercy, will comfort and relieve them, and that they be given the knowledge of God's love. Stir up in us the will and patience to minister to their needs.

Silence

Presider Gracious God, the comfort of all who sorrow, the strength of all who suffer: Let the cry of those in misery and need come to you, that they may find your mercy present with them in all their afflictions; and give us, we pray, the strength to serve them for the sake of him who suffered for us, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Deacon Let us pray for all who have not received the Gospel of Christ;
For those who have never heard the word of salvation
For those who have lost their faith
For those hardened by sin or indifference
For the contemptuous and the scornful
For those who are enemies of the cross of Christ and persecutors of his disciples
For those who in the name of Christ have persecuted others
That God will open their hearts to the truth, and lead them to faith and obedience.

Silence

Presider Merciful God, Creator of all the peoples of the earth and lover of souls: Have compassion on all who do not know you as you are revealed in your Son Jesus Christ; let your Gospel be preached with grace and power to those who have not heard it; turn the hearts of those who resist it; and bring home to your fold those who have gone astray; that there may be one flock under one shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Deacon Let us commit ourselves to God, and pray for the grace of a holy life, that, with all who have departed this world and have died in the peace of Christ, and those whose faith is known to God alone, we may be accounted worthy to enter into the fullness of the joy of our Lord, and receive the crown of life in the day of resurrection.

Silence

Presider O God of unchangeable power and eternal light: Look favorably on your whole Church, that wonderful and sacred mystery; by the effectual working of your providence, carry out in tranquility the plan of salvation; let the whole world see and know that things which were cast down are being raised up, and things which had grown old are being made new, and that all things are being brought to their perfection by him through whom all things were made, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A wooden cross is brought into the nave and placed at the chancel steps. Three times one of the cross bearers says, Cross bearer Behold the wood of the Cross, on which was hung the world's salvation.

People Come let us adore Him.

VENERATION OF THE CROSS All are seated.

Those who wish may come forward to touch, kiss the cross or light a candle in prayer and to spend some time. The following anthems are sung by the choir. At the 12:05 service, prayer for healing is offered at the prayer desk .

ANTHEM: "Crux fidelis" (At 7 p.m. only)

John IV of Portugal

Faithful Cross; above all other, one and only noble tree! None in foliage, none in blossom, none in fruit thy peer may be;
Sweetest wood and sweetest iron; Sweetest weight is hung on thee!

ANTHEM 1

Russell Schulz-Widmar

We glory in your cross, O Lord, and praise and glorify your holy resurrection; for by virtue of your cross joy has come to the whole world. May God be merciful to us and bless us, show us the light of his countenance, and come to us. Let your ways be known upon earth, your saving health among all nations. Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you. We glory in your cross, O Lord, and praise and glorify your holy resurrection; for by virtue of your cross joy has come to the whole world.

ANTHEM 2

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you, because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world. If we have died with him, we shall also live with him; if we endure, we shall also reign with him. We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you, because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

ANTHEM 3

O Savior of the world, who by thy cross and precious blood hast redeemed us: Save us and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Presider	And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
People	Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
	Give us this day our daily bread.
	And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
	And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
	For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

CONCLUDING COLLECT

Presider Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, we pray you to set your passion, cross, and death between your judgment and our souls, now and in the hour of our death. Give mercy and grace to the living; pardon and rest to the dead; to your holy Church peace and concord; and to us sinners everlasting life and glory; for with the Father and Holy Spirit you live and reign, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The congregation may remain for silent prayer. Thank you for respecting those who wish to pray by keeping silence in the Nave.

*Please leave your offering in the basket at the back of the Nave as you leave.
The Good Friday offering is designated for the Church in Jerusalem and the Middle East.*

Following the 12:05 p.m. service, for a time, the clergy will remain in the Nave for spiritual direction, counsel and the sacramental rite of reconciliation.

The Way of the Cross (self-guided) is available throughout the day.

“My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” (Matthew 27:46). Pain, fear, and helplessness overwhelm Jesus as he declares, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” In this portrayal of that moment, I was drawn to depict these critically human emotions. This year, I am particularly struggling with how quickly I have moved from Lent to Eastertide in previous years without taking the brokenness of Lent and Jesus’ death forward with me after the resurrection. For me, visually, Easter has been full of beauty, joy, and wonder—eclipsing the devastation of Good Friday. Here, I surrounded Jesus’ head with a halo of lilies, causing beauty and pain to collide. Painting in oil on canvas, the experience of producing this work was powerful.

Holy Saturday: April 15

12:05 p.m. Liturgy

A brief and simple liturgy recalls the mournful desolation of the lifeless Christ in the tomb.

The Great Vigil of Easter: April 15

7:30 p.m.

This service of Light, Lessons, Baptism and Eucharist is the principal service of the Church Year. The Bishop presides at this first celebration of Easter.

The congregation gathers in the Memorial Courtyard for the lighting of the new fire. All then move to the darkened Cathedral Nave as the service continues with the first Eucharist of Easter.

Easter Day: April 16

8 a.m. and 10:15 a.m.

Festival Holy Eucharist

Hymns, choral music, brass and a Cathedral resplendent with flowers accompany our Easter morning celebrations. Children uncover the "Alleluia" buried away at the end of Epiphany as a prelude to the entire assembly proclaiming, "Alleluia. Christ is risen." Nursery open for children four and younger during the 8 & 10:15 a.m. services.

An Easter Egg Hunt for children (through fifth grade) follows the 10:15 a.m. service.

Children's Easter Sunday Activities

Sunday, April 16

Flowering of the Cross: A Symbol of New Beginnings

On Easter morning before our 10:15 a.m. service, all are invited to place flowers on the bare cross. When completed, the brightly flowered cross dramatically symbolizes Christ's coming to life from death. The cross will be placed near the baptismal font.

Raising of the Alleluia

To start our celebration of Easter at the beginning of both the 8 a.m. and 10:15 a.m. services, children of all ages are invited to help uncover the Alleluia letters that were "buried" under the altar rug at the start of Lent.

Children's Worship Packets

Look for special children's worship packets at the back of the Nave designed to help children follow along with the liturgy. No Children's Formation sessions will be held so that families can worship together on this day. The Nursery will be open for children four and under.

Easter Egg Hunt

All children (through fifth grade) are invited to our annual egg hunt following the 10:15 a.m. service on the lawn outside of Founders' Hall. Bring your neighbors and your Easter basket!

Easter Vigil Noise Makers

At the Great Vigil, it is traditional to ring bells and make a holy noise, for death has been defeated. You are encouraged to bring along a bell to add to the joyous proclamation.
