SABBATH

A SERVANT CHURCH IN THE HEART OF THE CITY

Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Isaiah 45:1-7

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have grasped to subdue nations before him

and strip kings of their robes,

to open doors before him—
and the gates shall not be closed:

I will go before you and level the mountains,

I will break in pieces the doors of bronze
and cut through the bars of iron,

I will give you the treasures of darkness
and riches hidden in secret places,

so that you may know that it is I, the Lord,
the God of Israel, who call you by your name.

For the sake of my servant Jacob,
and Israel my chosen,

I call you by your name, I surname you, though you do not know me.

I am the Lord, and there is no other;
besides me there is no god.
I arm you, though you do not know me,

so that they may know, from the rising of the sun
and from the west, that there is no one besides me;
I am the Lord, and there is no other.

I form light and create darkness,
I make weal and create woe;
I the Lord do all these things.

Psalm 96:1-13, 8 a.m., said as indicated; 10:15 a.m., sung by the choir.

All Sing to the Lord a new song; *
sing to the Lord, all the whole earth.

Font Side Sing to the Lord and bless his Name; *
proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.

Pulpit Side Declare his glory among the nations *
and his wonders among all peoples.

Font For great is the Lord and greatly to be praised; *
he is more to be feared than all gods.

Pulpit As for all the gods of the nations, they are but idols; *
but it is the Lord who made the heavens.

Font Oh, the majesty and magnificence of his presence! *
Oh, the power and the splendor of his sanctuary!

Pulpit Ascribe to the Lord, you families of the peoples; *
ascribe to the Lord honor and power.

Pulpit Ascribe to the Lord the honor due his Name; *
bring offerings and come into his courts.

Font Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness; *
let the whole earth tremble before him.

Pulpit Tell it out among the nations: “The Lord is King! *
he has made the world so firm that it cannot be moved;
he will judge the peoples with equity.”

Font Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
let the sea thunder and all that is in it; *
let the field be joyful and all that is therein.

Pulpit Then shall all the trees of the wood shout for joy
before the Lord when he comes, *
when he comes to judge the earth.

All He will judge the world with righteousness *
and the peoples with his truth.

1 Thessalonians 1:1-10

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace.

We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you, because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of persons we proved to be among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit, so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it. For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming.

Matthew 22:15-22

The Pharisees went and plotted to entrap Jesus in what he said. So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality. Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?” But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, “Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin used for the tax.” And they brought him a denarius. Then he said to them, “Whose head is this, and whose title?” They answered, “The emperor’s.” Then he said to them, “Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” When they heard this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away.

he suffered death and was buried.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING from a Church of England Children's Prayer

Presider The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Presider Lord of all life,
 you created the universe,
 where all living things reflect your glory.
 You give us this great and beautiful earth,
 to discover and to cherish.
 You give us sun and moon and star-lit sky,
 everything that gives us light,
 light for our eyes, our hearts, our minds.
 You made us all,
 each wonderfully different,
 to join with the angels
 and sing your praise:

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
 heaven and earth are full of your glory.
 Hosanna in the highest.
 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
 Hosanna in the highest.

Presider We thank you, loving Father,
 because, when we turned away,
 you sent Jesus, your Son.
 He gave his life for us on the cross and shows us the way to live.
 Send your Holy Spirit
 that these gifts of bread and wine
 may be for us Christ's body and his blood.
 On the night before he died,
 when darkness had fallen,
 Jesus took bread.
 He gave thanks, broke it,
 and shared it with his disciples, saying:
 'This is my body, given for you.
 Do this to remember me.'
 After they had eaten, he took the cup of wine,
 gave thanks, and shared it with his disciples, saying:
 'This is my blood, poured out for you and for many,
 for the forgiveness of sins.'
 So Father, with this bread and this cup
 we celebrate his love, his death, his risen life.
 As you feed us with these gifts,
 send your Holy Spirit,
 and change us more and more
 to be like Jesus our Saviour.
 Help us, Father, to love one another,
 as we look forward to that day
 when suffering is ended,
 and all creation is gathered in your loving arms.
 And now with all your saints
 we give you glory,
 through Jesus Christ,
 in the strength of the Spirit,
 today and for ever.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Sung in unison.

Children's Defense Fund

A strong, effective, independent voice for all the children of America

The 2017 National Observance of Children's Sabbaths® celebration, “Moving Forward with Hope: Love and Justice for Every Child,” is focused on ending child poverty. Today in our rich nation, one out of every five children lives in poverty. Most are in working families. Most are white and most are poor children living outside central cities. The younger you are, the more likely you are to live in poverty. We can work together to end child poverty and give every child a future of hope, love and justice.

To end child poverty we must ensure all parents and caregivers have the resources to support and nurture their children:

- jobs with livable wages;
- affordable high-quality child care so that caregivers can work;
- supports for working families like the Earned Income Tax Credit and the Child Tax Credit; and
- safety net supports like TANF, nutrition and housing assistance to make sure children's basic needs are met.

We must also ensure every child in our rich nation has access to high-quality early childhood development and learning, comprehensive health coverage and care, and quality K-12 education so all children can reach their full potential. Finally, we must replace the Cradle to Prison Pipeline® with a pathway to college and career. The nation could cut child poverty by 60 percent just by investing more in programs and policies that work.

What are the first steps to move forward with hope to seek love and justice for every child?

1. Pray, meditate or spend time in other faithful reflection to seek discernment, strength and courage to value all children and act to put that value into practice.
2. Learn more about the challenges children and families face and how we can overcome them, at childrensdefense.org.
3. Connect with timely information, at childrensdefense.org and through the Washington offices or social justice arms of your faith community, to raise a faithful voice calling for justice and actions that will help end child poverty in our rich nation.
4. Reach out in your own place of worship or community to do what you can to help end child poverty.
5. Communicate regularly with your elected officials and urge them to champion the needs of children in poverty.
