

GRACE AND HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL

The Third Sunday after the Epiphany
January 21, 2018 • 8 & 10:15 a.m.

A SERVANT CHURCH IN THE HEART OF THE CITY

WELCOME! We're glad you are worshipping with us today. Please stay for hospitality following services this morning, in Founders' Hall, across the courtyard. If you are a guest today, we invite you to complete the welcome card found in the pew racks. Please place the card in the offering plate. You may also learn more by visiting kccathedral.org. Nursery care is provided from 7:50–11:45 a.m. for infants and toddlers in the nursery in Haden Hall (from the Tower entry, go up the stairs and straight ahead to the adjoining building. Follow signs.) Overflow Parking: If the Cathedral lot is full, park in the underground lot at 13th and Washington. Enter from either 13th or Washington Streets. Important! You need a parking pass. See an usher to receive a pass. You will need both our pass and the parking garage ticket to exit without paying.

May you find here, by the grace of God, that which feeds your soul.

Collect of the Day

Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Jonah 3:1–5, 10

The word of the Lord came to Jonah a second time, saying, "Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you." So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, "Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!" And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth.

When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

Psalm 62:6–14, 8 a.m., said in unison; 10:15 a.m., sung by the choir.

All For God alone my soul in silence waits; *
truly, my hope is in him.
He alone is my rock and my salvation, *
my stronghold, so that I shall not be shaken.
In God is my safety and my honor; *
God is my strong rock and my refuge.
Put your trust in him always, O people, *
pour out your hearts before him, for God is our refuge.
Those of high degree are but a fleeting breath, *
even those of low estate cannot be trusted.

On the scales they are lighter than a breath, *
all of them together.
Put no trust in extortion;
in robbery take no empty pride; *
though wealth increase, set not your heart upon it.
God has spoken once, twice have I heard it, *
that power belongs to God.
Steadfast love is yours, O Lord, *
for you repay everyone according to his deeds.

1 Corinthians 7:29–31

I mean, brothers and sisters, the appointed time has grown short; from now on, let even those who have wives be as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no possessions, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.

Mark 1:14–20

After John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news."

As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, "Follow me and I will make you fish for people." And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM "Jesu, the very thought of thee"

Edward C. Bairstow

Jesu, the very thought of Thee
With sweetness fills the breast;
But sweeter far Thy face to see,
And in Thy presence rest.

-Text: Bernard of Clairvaux; translation by Edward Caswall

PRESENTATION HYMN

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748), para. of Psalm 117. St. 3, Thomas Ken (1637-1711). Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?). All Rights Reserved. Reprinted under OneLicense.net #A-710278.

THE COMMUNION

- All are welcome to receive communion or a blessing.
- For gluten-free bread, cross your hands palms down.
- For a blessing, cross your hands over your chest.
- Prayer for healing is offered at the prayer desk until the close of worship.

COMMUNION ANTHEM “Lord, for thy tender mercy’s sake”

Richard Farrant

Lord, for thy tender mercy’s sake
lay not our sins to our charge,
but forgive that is past,
and give us grace to amend our sinful lives:
to decline from sin and incline to virtue,
that we may walk with a perfect heart,
before thee now and evermore.

Gracie the Cathedral Cat

Over the better part of the past two decades, the Cathedral has had the honor of being the chosen home of Gracie the cat. She had begun to lose weight recently, so a staff member decided to take her to the vet. Unfortunately, they discovered she had a tumor in her stomach/intestines and the only humane option was to put her down.

Gracie was beloved by many and will certainly be missed. She was also a talented performer, as she could make you believe she was starving to death when in fact she had just been fed minutes before. And while she might have been feral, she enjoyed a good scratch between the ears as much as any cat.

Gracie has been cremated and her ashes will be buried in the little area where she chose to make her home. A short memorial service will take place in that area today, January 21, at 12 noon. Rest in peace and rise in glory, Gracie.

Presiding Bishop Encourages Episcopal Church to Meet Jesus in the Gospel of John

Presiding Bishop Michael Curry released a video on January 10, 2018 encouraging members of the Episcopal Church to participate in the collaborative Lenten offering by The Society of Saint John the Evangelist [SSJE] and Virginia Theological Seminary [VTS], Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John. The free offering, available at meetingjesusinjohn.org, is a six-week study leading each participant into a deeper intimacy with God by praying with the words of John the Evangelist and journaling in the included prayer journal.

“As many of you know, we in the Episcopal Church are seeking to grow more fully as the Jesus Movement. And not simply as the full embodiment of the Jesus Movement, but as the Episcopal branch of the Jesus Movement. So Virginia Seminary and Society of Saint John the Evangelist have come together and created a study opportunity for us to know this Jesus more closely, more fully, more intimately, more deeply,” Curry says in the video.

In the sermon during his installation in Washington National Cathedral, Curry gave his first call to the Episcopal Church, “We have got an incredible opportunity, a remarkable faith, and my hope and dream and prayer is that we in the Episcopal Church will find ourselves deeply in what I like to call the Jesus Movement which has been going on a long time; and we are the 21st Century iteration of that. That’s what we’re about and that’s where we are going.” The recently released video cites Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John as a means of engaging in the Jesus Movement.

The Lenten offering is designed to lead individuals, small groups or entire congregations into a deeper relationship with God through Jesus as chronicled in the Gospel of John the Baptist. On the website, meetingjesusinjohn.org, participants can sign up to receive a daily email throughout Lent with a video message from the Brothers at SSJE and also download a free prayer journal or order a printed journal from Amazon. The site also includes facilitation guidance for groups, resources for communicators and a help section to ensure participants and group leaders can have a meaningful and dynamic Lenten experience.

About SSJE

The Society of Saint John the Evangelist is a monastic community for men in the Episcopal Church and the Anglican Church of Canada. The Brothers seek to know and share an authentic experience of God’s love and mercy. They live a common life shaped by worship, prayer and their Rule of Life. SSJE has two monasteries in Massachusetts, one in Harvard Square, Cambridge, and another, Emery House, in West Newbury. SSJE Brothers strive to be “men of the moment,” responding with the Gospel of Jesus Christ to contemporary issues and needs.

About VTS

Virginia Theological Seminary is a seminary of the Episcopal Church that has since 1823 served to further the universal mission of Christ’s church by providing graduate theological education and serving as a theological resource for the Episcopal Church, the Anglican Communion and the wider church. In preparing its students as servants of Jesus Christ, as lay and ordained leaders of the Church, VTS has placed theological education in the context of residential community marked by common life and worship. Virginia Theological Seminary currently educates approximately 25 percent of those being ordained who received residential theological education.
