

GRACE AND HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL

A Servant Church in the Heart of the City

WELCOME! We're glad you are worshiping with us today. Please stay for hospitality following services this morning, in Founders' Hall, across the courtyard.

If you are a guest today, we invite you to complete the welcome card found in the pew racks. Please place the card in the offering plate. You may also learn more by visiting kccathedral.org. Nursery care is provided from 7:50–11:45 a.m. for infants and toddlers in the nursery in Haden Hall (from the Tower entry, go up the stairs and straight ahead to the adjoining building. Follow signs.)

Overflow Parking: If the Cathedral lot is full, park in the underground lot at 13th and Washington. Enter from either 13th or Washington Streets. Important! You need a parking pass. See an usher to receive a pass. You will need both our pass and the parking garage ticket to exit without paying.

May you find here, by the grace of God, that which feeds your soul.

The Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany
February 4, 2018 • 8 & 10:15 a.m.

Collect of the Day

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Isaiah 40:21-31

Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth? It is he who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them like a tent to live in; who brings princes to naught, and makes the rulers of the earth as nothing. Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown, scarcely has their stem taken root in the earth, when he blows upon them, and they wither, and the tempest carries them off like stubble. To whom then will you compare me, or who is my equal? says the Holy One. Lift up your eyes on high and see: Who created these? He who brings out their host and numbers them, calling them all by name; because he is great in strength, mighty in power, not one is missing. Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, "My way is hidden from the Lord, and my right is disregarded by my God"? Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless. Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted; but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

Psalm 147:1-12, 21c

8 a.m., said in unison; 10:15 a.m., sung by the choir.

All Hallelujah! How good it is to sing praises to our God! *
how pleasant it is to honor him with praise!
The Lord rebuilds Jerusalem; *
he gathers the exiles of Israel.
He heals the brokenhearted *
and binds up their wounds.
He counts the number of the stars *
and calls them all by their names.
Great is our Lord and mighty in power; *
there is no limit to his wisdom.
The Lord lifts up the lowly, *
but casts the wicked to the ground.
Sing to the Lord with thanksgiving; *
make music to our God upon the harp.
He covers the heavens with clouds *
and prepares rain for the earth;

He makes grass to grow upon the mountains *
and green plants to serve mankind.
He provides food for flocks and herds *
and for the young ravens when they cry.
He is not impressed by the might of a horse; *
he has no pleasure in the strength of a man;
But the Lord has pleasure in those who fear him, *
in those who await his gracious favor. Hallelujah!

1 Corinthians 9:16-23

If I proclaim the gospel, this gives me no ground for boasting, for an obligation is laid on me, and woe to me if I do not proclaim the gospel! For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward; but if not of my own will, I am entrusted with a commission. What then is my reward? Just this: that in my proclamation I may make the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my rights in the gospel. For though I am free with respect to all, I have made myself a slave to all, so that I might win more of them. To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law I became as one under the law (though I myself am not under the law) so that I might win those under the law. To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law) so that I might win those outside the law. To the weak I became weak, so that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, that I might by all means save some. I do it all for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings.

Mark 1:29-39

After Jesus and his disciples left the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told him about her at once. He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. Then the fever left her, and she began to serve them. That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. And the whole city was gathered around the door. And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him. In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed. And Simon and his companions hunted for him. When they found him, they said to him, "Everyone is searching for you." He answered, "Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do." And he went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and casting out demons.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

COMMISSIONING OF THE VESTRY AND INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

Subdean I present to you these persons to be admitted to the ministry of Member of the Vestry in this congregation.

Dean The Lord gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding;
he stores up sound wisdom for the upright;
he is a shield to those who walk in integrity.

New Vestry I am your servant; grant me understanding:
That I may know your decrees.

Dean Let us pray.
O Eternal God, the foundation of all wisdom and the source of all courage:
Enlighten with your grace the Wardens and Vestry of this congregation,
and so rule their minds, and guide their counsels,
that in all things they may seek your glory
and promote the mission of your Church;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In the Name of God and of this congregation.

I commission you [N.] as Member of the Vestry in this Cathedral Parish and give you this pin as a token of your ministry.

New Vestry I present to you these persons to be installed as officers of the Vestry in this congregation.

Dean God will not overlook your work and the love which you show for his sake.

Officers Teach me to do what pleases you, for you are my God:
Let your good Spirit lead me on level ground.

Dean Let us pray.
Regard, O Lord, our supplications, and confirm with your heavenly benediction your servants whom we admit today to the ministry of officers of the Vestry; that with sincere devotion of mind and body they may offer you a service acceptable to your divine Majesty; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

In the Name of God and of this congregation, I admit you [N.] to the office of Senior Warden/Junior Warden/Clerk/Treasurer of the Vestry of this Cathedral parish and charge you to lead us with wisdom and courage.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM "Sing my soul, His wondrous love"

Ned Rorem

Sing, my soul, his wondrous love,
who, from yon bright throne above,
ever watchful o'er our race,
still to us extends his grace.

Heaven and earth by him were made;
all is by his scepter swayed;
what are we that he should show
so much love to us below?

God, the merciful and good,
bought us with the Savior's blood,
and, to make our safety sure,
guides us by his Spirit pure.

Sing, my soul, adore his Name!
Let his glory be thy theme:
praise him till he calls thee home;
trust his love for all to come.

PRESENTATION HYMN

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Ash Wednesday Services

February 14

7 a.m.—Perfect for persons on their way to or from work. This is the briefest of the three services.

12:05 p.m.—This service is shaped to include both the downtown business community and persons who are free during the day.

7 p.m.—This traditional service features open space. Following the invitation to a Holy Lent, those present visit various “stations” around the Nave. There participants will be marked with ashes in acknowledgment of mortality, be signed with water as a reminder of baptism, light candles and offer prayer, pick up information on ways to engage in outreach, receive laying-on-of-hands and anointing for healing, and fill out a card with personal Lenten intentions to be presented at the Offertory. Following the open space, the liturgy continues with the Litany of Penitence and Holy Communion.

Lent Resources

Lent resources for adults and children will be available in the Tower entry to assist you with your observance of a holy Lent. Additional resources are available for purchase in the Bookstore.

Lent Worship

Weekdays: Holy Eucharist at 12:05 p.m.

Wednesdays: Contemplative Eucharist at 5:30 p.m.

Lent Workshop

February 18 • 9 & 11:30 a.m. • Founders' Hall

Prepare for Lent by picking up Lent in a Bag materials and painting crosses to be used during Holy Week. Supplies will be provided and coffee hour refreshments will be available.

The Way: Take part in a journey for those seeking to deepen their faith or learn more about the Episcopal Church.

The Creed for Today (Nicene or Apostles’): Each Sunday in worship we recite the Nicene Creed as an affirmation of our faith. Though formulated centuries ago, the Creed summarizes the fundamental beliefs we still consider essential today. This study will delineate those beliefs and explore how they are relevant for contemporary life. The class will be led by Dr. Bill Stancil, Professor of Theology and Religious Studies at Rockhurst University.

Noisy Offering

March 18 • 8 & 10:15 a.m.

We make a joyful noise to the Lord with our Noisy Offerings each year! Last year, we collected a total of $668 in our two Noisy Offerings for the New Americans program, which serves refugee children in Kansas City Public Schools. The funds were used to pay for buses so that New Americans students could visit Kaleidoscope, a children’s art space sponsored by Hallmark. Many of the children had never been outside of their Northeast Kansas City neighborhood, so a trip to Crown Center was an exciting experience!

Put a container on your kitchen counter or table, and save your coins to bring to church on March 18 for our Lenten Noisy Offering. The Cathedral’s children will assist the ushers in collecting the coins in metal buckets, so we can hear the funds add up. Don’t keep coins around? No problem. Quiet checks and cash are welcome, too.

Palm Cross Workshop

March 18 • 9 & 11:30 a.m. • Founders' Hall

We make crosses out of palm leaves for distribution on Palm Sunday. Please bring your scissors. Someone will help if you’ve never done it before! Extra palms are available to make additional crosses at home and return by Palm Sunday. Crosses are also given to St. Luke’s Hospital and Hospice, and Bishop Spencer Place. Contact Janet Sweeting (816.474.8260 ext. 144 or jsweeting@kccathedral.org) with questions.

Words Becoming Actions

Watch for details about the social outreach committee’s Words Becoming Actions Lenten service projects. There will be multiple opportunities to volunteer and help live out what it means to be A Servant Church in the Heart of the City. A mailing will go out a few weeks before the beginning of Lent with all the details.

Lent Madness

In a takeoff of basketball’s March Madness, Lent Madness is a fun, engaging way for people to learn about the Church’s Calendar of Saints. Visit lentmadness.org to fill out your bracket for a chance to win the “Golden Halo”!

Shrove Sunday Pancake Breakfast

February 11 • 9 & 11:30 a.m.
Founders' Hall

Join us for a relaxing pancake breakfast provided by Chris Cakes.

Music Time with 4 and 5 Year Olds

Children four and five years old are invited to attend a short-term music experience following worship on Sundays beginning today.

These 20-minute sessions will be designed to help children discover their best singing voices and to serve the church in a most meaningful way.

Bring your child to the choir room (blue door) in Haden Hall for a very quick snack and music-making while you enjoy fellowship time after church in Founders' Hall.

Please contact Linda Martin for more information, lmartin@kccathedral.org.
