

GRACE AND HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL

A Servant Church in the Heart of the City

WELCOME! We're glad you are worshiping with us today. Please stay for hospitality following services this morning, in Founders' Hall, across the courtyard.

If you are a guest today, we invite you to complete the welcome card found in the pew racks. Please place the card in the offering plate. You may also learn more by visiting kccathedral.org. Nursery care is provided from 7:50–11:45 a.m. for infants and toddlers in the nursery in Haden Hall (from the Tower entry, go up the stairs and straight ahead to the adjoining building. Follow signs.)

Overflow Parking: If the Cathedral lot is full, park in the underground lot at 13th and Washington. Enter from either 13th or Washington Streets. Important! You need a parking pass. See an usher to receive a pass. You will need both our pass and the parking garage ticket to exit without paying.

May you find here, by the grace of God, that which feeds your soul.

The Last Sunday after the Epiphany
February 11, 2018 • 8 & 10:15 a.m.

Collect of the Day

O God, who before the passion of your only-begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

2 Kings 2:1-12

When the Lord was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here; for the Lord has sent me as far as Bethel." But Elisha said, "As the Lord lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel. The company of prophets who were in Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that today the Lord will take your master away from you?" And he said, "Yes, I know; keep silent." Elijah said to him, "Elisha, stay here; for the Lord has sent me to Jericho." But he said, "As the Lord lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they came to Jericho. The company of prophets who were at Jericho drew near to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that today the Lord will take your master away from you?" And he answered, "Yes, I know; be silent." Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here; for the Lord has sent me to the Jordan." But he said, "As the Lord lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So the two of them went on. Fifty men of the company of prophets also went, and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan. Then Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up, and struck the water; the water was parted to the one side and to the other, until the two of them crossed on dry ground. When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me what I may do for you, before I am taken from you." Elisha said, "Please let me inherit a double share of your spirit." He responded, "You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it will be granted you; if not, it will not." As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah ascended in a whirlwind into heaven. Elisha kept watching and crying out, "Father, father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!" But when he could no longer see him, he grasped his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

Psalm 50:1-6

8 a.m., said in unison; 10:15 a.m., sung by the choir.

The Lord, the God of gods, has spoken; *

he has called the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.

Out of Zion, perfect in its beauty, *

God reveals himself in glory.

Our God will come and will not keep silence; *

before him there is a consuming flame, and round about him a raging storm.

He calls the heavens and the earth from above * to witness the judgment of his people.

"Gather before me my loyal followers, * those who have made a covenant with me and sealed it with sacrifice."

Let the heavens declare the rightness of his cause; *
for God himself is judge."

2 Corinthians 4:3-6

Even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. For we do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. For it is the God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Mark 9:2-9

Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, "This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!" Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus. As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM "Now there lightens upon us"

Leo Sowerby

Now there lightens upon us a holy daybreak. Alleluia.
Come all good people, and praise the Lord with gladness.
For the star which we have looked for shines forth a sign to all men. Alleluia.

PRESENTATION HYMN

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748), para. of Psalm 117. St. 3, Thomas Ken (1637-1711). Music: Old 100th, melody from Psaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?). All Rights Reserved. Reprinted under OneLicense.net #A-710278.

THE COMMUNION

- All are welcome to receive communion or a blessing.
- For gluten-free bread, cross your hands palms down.
- For a blessing, cross your hands over your chest.
- Prayer for healing is offered at the prayer desk until the close of worship.

COMMUNION ANTHEM “Be still, for the presence of the Lord” David J. Evans, arr. Indra Hughes

Be still, for the presence of the Lord, the Holy One, is here,
Come bow before him now with reverence and fear.
In him no sin is found, we stand on holy ground.
Be still, for the presence of the Lord, the Holy One, is here.

Be still, for the glory of the Lord is shining all around,
He burns with holy fire: with splendor he is crowned.
How awesome is the sight, our radiant King of light!
Be still, for the glory of the Lord is shining all around.

Be still, for the power of the Lord is moving in this place,
He comes to cleanse and heal, to minister his grace,
No work too hard for him: in faith receive from him,
Be still, for the power of the Lord is moving in this place. Amen.

DISMISSAL

VOLUNTARY “Suite in D major”

A note on “Burying the Alleluia”

“Alleluia” or “Hallelujah” is a transliteration of the Hebrew word expression, “Praise the Lord.” It is customary to omit the joyous expression of “Alleluia” from the Liturgy from Ash Wednesday through the Easter Vigil when all the church proclaims, “Alleluia, Christ is Risen!” Today, children at the Cathedral symbolically “bury” the “Alleluia” until our Easter celebrations.

Music Time with 4 and 5 Year Olds

Children four and five years old are invited to attend a short-term music experience following worship on Sundays through March 11.

These 20-minute sessions will be designed to help children discover their best singing voices and to serve the church in a most meaningful way.

Bring your child to the choir room (blue door) in Haden Hall for a very quick snack and music-making while you enjoy fellowship time after church in Founders' Hall.

Please contact Linda Martin for more information, lmartin@kccathedral.org.

Lent Resources

Lent resources for adults and children are available today in the Tower entry to assist you with your observance of a holy Lent. Additional resources are available for purchase in the Bookstore.

Lent Workshop

Perennial Pilgrims: Making the Trip through Holy Week

We are invited annually to hear and experience the story of the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus. You are invited to come and get ready for the journey during the Sundays of Lent. The travel log of Egeria, a woman who visited the Holy Land in the late fourth century, as well as the Book of Common Prayer will serve as guides for our preparation.

We will use Egeria's writings, Scripture, and church tradition as springboards from which to understand our own experience of Palm Sunday, Holy Week, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter at the Cathedral. The question, "What does this mean for us?" will be a constant theme preparing and propelling us forward as people of faith.

The goal of our time together is to share together the actual pilgrimage of Holy Week and Easter. This class will be led by Dean Peter DeVea, assisted by others.

Lenten Wednesday Evenings

Learning Opportunities

The Way: We invite you to join us for an adult faith formation experience for those seeking to deepen their faith, or know more about the Episcopal Church. The Way is for persons new to the church, those desiring to be baptized, confirmed or received into the Episcopal Church. Each evening includes a meal, a brief presentation, group Bible sharing and concludes with prayer. Please contact Marco Serrano, mserrano@kccathedral.org.

The Creed for Today (Nicene or Apostles): Each Sunday in worship we recite the Nicene Creed as an affirmation of our faith. Though formulated centuries ago, the Creed summarizes the fundamental beliefs we still consider essential today. This study will delineate those beliefs and explore how they are relevant for contemporary life. The class will be led by Dr. Bill Stancil, Professor of Theology and Religious Studies at Rockhurst University.

Childcare is available for Wednesday evening Lenten programs. To make a reservation, contact childrensformation@kccathedral.org or 816-474-8260 ext. 112.

Lent Madness

In a takeoff of basketball's March Madness, Lent Madness is a fun, engaging way for people to learn about the Church's Calendar of Saints. Visit lentmadness.org to fill out your bracket for a chance to win the "Golden Halo"!

Dean's Book for Lent

The Gentle Art of Swedish Death Cleaning

This year's book for Lent is practical. Downsizing at any age or time of transition can be cathartic and freeing. Not allowing possessions to own nor overwhelm us can challenge us and those who sift through our things after we die. Who will deal with our stuff when we are gone? Such practice has good foundation in biblical witness. "For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain that we can take nothing out." ¹ Timothy 6:7

Noisy Offering

March 18 • 8 & 10:15 a.m.

We make a joyful noise to the Lord with our Noisy Offerings each year! Put a container on your kitchen counter or table, and save your coins to bring to church on March 18 for our Lenten Noisy Offering. The Cathedral's children will assist the ushers in collecting the coins in metal buckets, so we can hear the funds add up. Don't keep coins around? No problem. Quiet checks and cash are welcome, too.

Palm Cross Workshop

March 18

9 & 11:30 a.m. • Founders' Hall

We make crosses out of palm leaves for distribution on Palm Sunday. Please bring your scissors. Someone will help if you've never done it before! Extra palms are available to make additional crosses at home and return by Palm Sunday. Crosses are also given to St. Luke's Hospital and Hospice, and Bishop Spencer Place. Contact Janet Sweeting (816.474.8260 ext. 144 or jsweeting@kccathedral.org) with questions.

Easter Egg Hunt Candy Donations Needed

Bring your donations of candy (individually wrapped, in small packages) to the box in the Tower during Lent. We'll stuff the eggs after the 10:15 a.m. service on Palm Sunday.

Being a Servant Church

During Lent, we are invited to practice our baptismal ministry in the world through giving and volunteering. Below are some opportunities to donate and to give of your time.

Provide for Pantries

Place non-perishable food for St. Mary's Pantry in the big baskets in the Tower and Founders' Hall entrances.

Week of 2/18: Peanut Butter

Week of 2/25: Mac & Cheese

Week of 3/4: Canned Meat (Chicken or Tuna)

Week of 3/11: Boxed Potatoes/Pasta Dinners

Week of 3/18: Canned Veggies/Fruit

Week of 3/25: Cake Mixes/Cookie Mixes/Dessert in a Box

Easter 4/1: Canned Meat

Donate Paper Products

During Lent, we will be collecting paper products (paper towels, toilet paper, Kleenex) for Sheffield Place.

Collect Hotel Samples

If you are traveling during spring break (or any other time during Lent), please collect unused hotel samples of shampoo, soap, body lotion, etc. for hygiene kits for the homeless.

Pack Bags with BackSnacks

Every week we send 320 bags with food to five area schools for children who may not have food to eat over the weekend.

You are invited to help fill bags with food. During Lent, we will fill the bags Wednesday mornings, February 21, March 7 and March 21 from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. in the back hallway of Haden Hall in the Outreach Room.

Help Fix and Serve Lunch at St. Mary's Pantry

Come help fix and serve lunch at St. Mary's Pantry, Saturday, February 24 and Saturday, March 24, 9:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. Contact Jerry Grabher to sign up, j.grabher3@gmail.com.

Volunteer At KCCK

Saturday, March 10, 8:30–10:30 a.m.

Volunteers will prep food for the following week's meals and do cleaning in the kitchen and dining room. Volunteers under 14 should have proper adult supervision (one adult for every 2 kids) and no volunteers will be permitted under 10 years old. All should wear closed-toe shoes and hats (or hair nets will be provided). Contact Terri Curran, tcurra2@yahoo.com.

Ash Wednesday Services

February 14

7 a.m. + 12:05 p.m. + 7 p.m.

7 a.m.—Perfect for persons on their way to or from work. This is the briefest of the three services.

12:05 p.m.—This service is shaped to include both the downtown business community and persons who are free during the day.

7 p.m.—This traditional service features open space. Following the invitation to a Holy Lent, those present visit various "stations" around the Nave. There participants will be marked with ashes in acknowledgment of mortality, be signed with water as a reminder of baptism, light candles and offer prayer, pick up information on ways to engage in outreach, receive laying-on-of-hands and anointing for healing, and fill out a card with personal Lenten intentions to be presented at the Offertory. Following the open space, the liturgy continues with the Litany of Penitence and Holy Communion.

Labyrinth Available

Labyrinth walk for private meditation is available in Founders' Hall all day. A printed guide will be available in Founders' Hall to assist you as you walk the labyrinth. The labyrinth is an ancient pattern found in many cultures around the world. Labyrinths have only one path to the center. You walk (shoes removed!) in by a winding path and exit the same way.
