

GRACE AND HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL

A Servant Church in the Heart of the City

FOR GOD DID NOT SEND HIS SON INTO THE WORLD TO CONDEMN THE WORLD, BUT IN ORDER THAT THE WORLD MIGHT BE SAVED
THROUGH him
JOHN 3:17

WELCOME! We're glad you are worshiping with us today. Please stay for hospitality following services this morning, in Founders' Hall, across the courtyard.

If you are a guest today, we invite you to complete the welcome card found in the pew racks. Please place the card in the offering plate. You may also learn more by visiting kccathedral.org. Nursery care is provided from 7:50–11:45 a.m. for infants and toddlers in the nursery in Haden Hall (from the Tower entry, go up the stairs and straight ahead to the adjoining building. Follow signs.)

May you find here, by the grace of God, that which feeds your soul.

The Fourth Sunday in Lent
March 11, 2018 • 8 & 10:15 a.m.

Numbers 21:4-9

From Mount Hor the Israelites set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way. The people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food." Then the Lord sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. The people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned by speaking against the Lord and against you; pray to the Lord to take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people. And the Lord said to Moses, "Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live." So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

Psalm 107:1-3, 17-22 8 a.m., said in unison; 10:15 a.m., sung by the choir.

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, *
and his mercy endures for ever.

Let all those whom the Lord has redeemed proclaim * that he redeemed them from the hand of the foe.

He gathered them out of the lands; *
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.

Some were fools and took to rebellious ways; *
they were afflicted because of their sins.

They abhorred all manner of food * and drew near to death's door.

Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, *
and he delivered them from their distress.

He sent forth his word and healed them *
and saved them from the grave.

Let them give thanks to the Lord for his mercy *
and the wonders he does for his children.

Let them offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving * and tell of his acts with shouts of joy.

Ephesians 2:1-10

You were dead through the trespasses and sins in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient. All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else. But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God—not the result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

John 3:14-21

Jesus said, "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

* ENTRANCE HYMN “O love, how deep, how broad, how high”

hymn 448

A Penitential Order

* OPENING ACCLAMATION

Presider Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins;

People Whose mercy endures for ever.

* SENTENCE OF SCRIPTURE

Presider If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 John 1:8,9

* CONFESSION OF SIN Please kneel, as able

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves,
and in the world you have created.

We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.

Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Word of God

* COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.
 People And also with you.
 Presider Let us pray.

Gracious Father, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which gives life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that he may live in us, and we in him; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

CELEBRATION PRAYER

Those celebrating anniversaries of birth, marriage, and other joyous occasions are invited to come forward for prayer.

All O God, our times are in your hand: Look with favor, we pray, on your servant(s) as they begin another year. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Holy Communion

All are seated. The congregation's offering is received. The Holy Table is prepared for Eucharist.

As a symbol of the church gathered in the fullness of its baptismal ministry, the deacon and a lay person stand at the Holy Table with the priest for the Eucharistic Prayer.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM "Sicut Moses serpentem in deserto exaltabit"

Heinrich Schütz

Sicut Moses exaltavit serpentem in deserto, ita exaltari oportet filium hominis

Ut omnis qui credit in eum, non pereat sed habeat vitam aeternam.

As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up so that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have eternal life. (John 3:14-15)

* PRESENTATION HYMN

1 Bless now, O God, the jour - ney that all your peo - ple make,
the path through noise and si - lence, the way of give and take.
The trail is found in des - ert and winds the moun - tain round, then leads be - side still wa - ters, the road where faith is found.

COMMUNION

- All are welcome to receive communion or a blessing.
- For gluten-free bread, cross your hands palms down.
- For a blessing, cross your hands over your chest.
- Prayer for healing is offered at the prayer desk until the close of worship.

Communion Anthem “God so loved the world”

John Stainer

God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whoso believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.
For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved. (John 3:16-17)

SENDING OF EUCHARISTIC VISITORS

The Eucharistic Visitor is sent out with these words:

Presider We who are many are one body,
People For we all share one bread, one cup.

* POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Adapted from A Prayer Book for Australia

All God of mercy,
may we who have shared in this holy meal
know your forgiveness in our lives, bring your reconciliation to others and be a sign of your wholeness in this broken world;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

* SOLEMN PRAYER OVER THE PEOPLE

Presider Look down in mercy, Lord, on your people who kneel before you;
and grant that those whom you have nourished by your Word and Sacraments may bring forth fruit worthy of repentance; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

* SENDING HYMN “Amazing grace! how sweet the sound”

Perennial Pilgrims: Making the Trip through Holy Week

You are invited to come and get ready for the journey to Easter during the Sundays of Lent. The question, "What does this mean for us?" will be a constant theme preparing and propelling us forward as people of faith.

Ministry Highlight: Stephen Ministry

Stephen Ministry is a one-on-one, confidential, caring ministry in which individuals who may be struggling through a difficult time in life—such as grief, divorce, job loss, illness, or some other life crisis—are matched with a Stephen Minister. A Stephen Minister is a member of the congregation who is trained to offer quality pastoral care and a listening presence to people going through a hard time. If you are going through a difficult time and would like to learn more about this caring ministry, please contact Canon Christy Dorn (816.474.8260) or Karen Kissinger (816.210.0302) to learn more.

Vestry Report: February 2018

Bob Carlson, Senior Warden

The Vestry met February 16-17, 2018 for its annual retreat. During dinner on Friday evening, there was an opportunity for getting acquainted and to hear from Dean DeVeau and Canon Dorn about their ministries. Phyllis Biddle and Candace McDowell were elected to fill two unexpired terms. On Saturday, Subdean Hornaday presented information time devoted to organization and process of Vestry and the intentional interim period.

Tara Bennett presented information and led the discussion about the eight ministry groups which make up the Strategic Plan areas. Vestry members volunteered to liaise with each group and clergy and staff who are assigned to each ministry group were identified

During the business session it was announced that the Cathedral will not be represented at the Consortium of Endowed Episcopal Parishes annual conference in 2018. Anti-nepotism and conflict-of-interest policies were restated and clarified. David Barker was elected Chairman of the Building and Grounds Committee and Doyle White was elected Assistant Treasurer.

The work of Julie Toma, Janet Sweeting, Melissa Scheffler and our property staff in support of the Vestry was gratefully acknowledged.

Ministry Group Sign Up

Today • 9 & 11:45 a.m. • Founders' Hall

Sign up to be part of a ministry group that will help implement our strategic plan. Not sure what the strategic plan is or how you can support it? Visit with a vestry member in Founders' Hall today or next Sunday.

Palm Cross Workshop

March 18 • 9 & 11:30 a.m. • Founders' Hall

We make crosses out of palm leaves for distribution on Palm Sunday. Please bring your scissors. Someone will help if you've never done it before! Crosses are also given to St. Luke's Hospital and Hospice, and Bishop Spencer Place.

Noisy Offering

March 18 • 8 & 10:15 a.m.

We make a joyful noise to the Lord with our Noisy Offerings each year! Bring the coins you've collected throughout Lent to church next Sunday for our Lenten Noisy Offering. The Cathedral's children will assist the ushers in collecting the coins in metal buckets, so we can hear the funds add up. Don't keep coins around? No problem. Quiet checks and cash are welcome, too.

Choral Evensong

March 18 • 5 p.m.

Evensong is a service of hymns, choral anthems, Bible readings and prayers — it is a time to listen, pray, meditate and sing.

Being a Servant Church

Provide for Pantries

Place non-perishable food for St. Mary's Pantry in the big basket in the Tower entrance. We are also collecting paper products (paper towels, toilet paper, tissues) for Sheffield Place.
