People Whose mercy endures for ever.

* SENTENCE OF SCRIPTURE

* CONFESSION OF SIN Please kneel, as able

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives.

We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.

We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf.

Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

* COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Gracious Father, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which gives life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that he may live in us, and we in him; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

LESSON: Numbers 21:4-9

Lector From Mount Hor the Israelites set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way. The people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food." Then the Lord sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. The people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned by speaking against the Lord and against you; pray to the Lord to take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people. And the Lord said to Moses, "Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live." So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 107:1-3, 17-22

Cantor Give thanks to the Lord, for he | is good, *
and his mercy | endures for ever.

All Let all those whom the Lord has redeemed | proclaim *
that he redeemed them from the | hand of the foe.
He gathered them out of | the lands; *
from the east and from the west,
from the | north and from the south.
Some were fools and took to re|bellious ways; *
they were afflicted be|cause of their sins.
They abhorred all manner | of food *
and drew | near to death's door.
Then they cried to the Lord in their | trouble, *
and he delivered them | from their distress.
He sent forth his word and | healed them *

Let them give thanks to the Lord for his | mercy *
and the wonders he | does for his children.
Let them offer a sacrifice of thanks|giving *
and tell of his | acts with shouts of joy.

* GRADUAL VERSE

I am the living bread which came down from ▲ heaven;* if anyone eats of this bread, he will / live for ever.

* THE HOLY GOSPEL: John 3:14-21

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God."
