Newcomers and visitors, welcome! We are a servant church in the heart of the city. May you find here, by God’s grace, that which feeds your soul, and leave here with a heart prepared to serve.

If you are new to us or a guest, we invite you to fill out a WELCOME card, found in your pew, and place it in the offering plate.

If you need a hearing assistance device, please ask an usher.

Service Notes
Please rise, as able, for portions of the service marked with an asterisk (*). Page numbers for the Book of Common Prayer are listed for your convenience.

Our worship together begins with a musical prelude. Thank you for listening quietly and respecting the needs of those around you for a time of prayer and meditation. Please silence all electronic devices.

* Opening Acclamation

Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins;

His mercy endures for ever.

* Prayer for Light

* Phos Hilaron #25: “O gracious light”

* Collect of the Day

The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.

O God, whose glory it is always to have mercy: Be gracious to all who have gone astray from your ways, and bring them again with penitent hearts and steadfast faith to embrace and hold fast the unchangeable truth of your Word, Jesus Christ your Son; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
Lesson: Genesis 12:1–4a

Lector The Lord said to Abram, “Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.”

So Abram went, as the Lord had told him; and Lot went with him.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 121

I lift up my eyes to the hills; from where is my help to come?

My help comes from the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth.

He will not let your foot be moved and he who watches over you will not fall asleep.

Behold, he who keeps watch over Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep;

The Lord himself watches over you; the Lord is your shade at your right hand,

So that the sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve you from all evil; it is he who shall keep you safe.

The Lord shall watch over your going out and your coming in, from this time forth for evermore.

“God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that all who believe in him might have eternal life.”
* The Holy Gospel: John 3:1–17

Gospeller   The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People   Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller   There was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God.” Jesus answered him, “Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above.” Nicodemus said to him, “How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother’s womb and be born?” Jesus answered, “Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, ‘You must be born from above.’ The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.” Nicodemus said to him, “How can these things be?” Jesus answered him, “Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things?

“Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

“Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People   Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Meditation All are seated.

* Nicene Creed Book of Common Prayer, p. 358

All   We believe in one God,

      the Father, the Almighty,
      maker of heaven and earth,
      of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

      the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
      God from God, Light from Light,
      true God from true God, begotten, not made,
      of one Being with the Father.

      Through him all things were made.
      For us and for our salvation
      he came down from heaven:
      by the power of the Holy Spirit
      he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
      and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

* Prayers of the People

Intercessor  Lord, in your mercy,
People  Hear our prayer.

Confession and Absolution

People  Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Presider  Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

* The Peace

Presider  The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People  And also with you.

Offertory Hymn #603: “When Christ was lifted from the earth”

1 When Christ was lifted from the earth, his arms stretched out above through every culture, every birth, to draw an answering love.

2 Still east and west his love extends and always, near or far, he calls and claims us as his friends and loves us as we are.

3 Where generation, class, or race divides us in Christ be free to welcome and accept his own as Christ accepted me.

4 Thus freely loved, though fully known, may

* The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A; Book of Common Prayer, p. 361

Presider
It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. (Here a Proper Preface is sung or said on all Sundays, and on other occasions as appointed.) Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Presider

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.
Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say, Book of Common Prayer, p. 364

Presider Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

Presider Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us; Book of Common Prayer, p. 364

People Therefore let us keep the feast.

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.
Communion

- All are welcome to receive communion or a blessing.
- For gluten-free bread, cross your hands palms down.
- For a blessing, cross your hands over your chest.

* Postcommunion Prayer

All Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

* Prayer Over The People

Presider Keep this your family, Lord, with your never-failing mercy, that relying solely on the help of your heavenly grace, they may be upheld by your divine protection; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

* Dismissal

Presider Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.
* Sending Hymn #473: “Lift high the cross”

March 8, 2020 – Lent 2 (A)
Life Transformed: The Way of Love in Lent - PRAY

Drawing on the ancient practice of setting aside Lent as a period of study and preparation for living as a Christian disciple, we are pleased to present weekly teachings from Life Transformed: The Way of Love in Lent. Learn more at episcopalchurch.org/life-transformed.

READ Exodus 14:10-15:1

The story of the Exodus is one of the most important baptismal stories in the whole Bible. In the blessing over the water, which we PRAY at every baptism, we remember that the Hebrews were liberated from bondage in Egypt through water. Exodus is also the only reading that is specifically required in the Easter Vigil because of the way God delivered Israel through the Red Sea and the pillar of fire that lit the way for God’s people. That pillar is echoed in the Easter fire, which shines in our darkness at the vigil. The Exodus event holds a seminal place in the recitation of God’s liberating action – the common thread woven throughout the vigil and the Bible itself.

One of the most intriguing aspects of this powerful story is the way prayer has been woven through every step the Israelites took in their path to liberation. When they were afraid and even doubted, their prayer was heard by God who told them that he would not abandon them. When they were about to be overtaken by the Egyptians, their prayer for deliverance was answered. Moses was given the power to part the sea, and they crossed on dry land. Finally, when they were safe, the prophet Miriam led a prayer of rejoicing and thanksgiving with song and dancing. Each of these prayers is important to the story and to the relationship built between God and God’s people.

In the early Church, Lent was a time for catechumens (those who were preparing to be baptized) to learn about the Christian life. The outline of the faith that they would follow was called a catechism, and we still have a similar form in our Book of Common Prayer today (pp. 845-862). In particular, our catechism describes the role of prayer in Christian life, including the seven types of prayer:

- Adoration: We lift up our hearts and minds to God, asking nothing but to enjoy God’s presence.
- Praise: We praise God, not to obtain anything, but because God’s Being draws praise from us.
- Thanksgiving: We offer gratitude to God for all the blessings of this life, for our redemption, and for whatever draws us closer to God.
- Penitence: In penitence, we say we are sorry, confess our sins, and make amends and life change wherever possible.
- Oblation: We offer ourselves, our lives and labors, in union with Christ, for God’s purposes.
- Intercession: We bring before God the needs of others.
- Petition: We present our own needs, that God’s will may be done.

Each of these forms of prayer will help you grow and bring you into a closer relationship with God. In fact, Scripture tells us that even when we don’t know how to pray, “the Holy Spirit will intercede for us” and teach our heart how to pray in “sighs too deep for words” (Romans 8:26).

REFLECT: Prayer is one of the essential components of walking the Way of Love. Yet, some people can find it intimidating, frustrating, or hard to practice. Which of the prayer styles from the catechism speak to you? Is there one that comes naturally?
Urban Necessities Drive
Through April 12
Urban Necessities Project is in its second year as a ministry of the city center parishes (GHTC, St. Mary’s and St. Augustine’s), which provides an assortment of basic necessities primarily of personal hygiene which are not included in SNAP government programs. The basics provided are toothpaste (6-8 oz tubes), bath soap (4 oz individually wrapped bars for men and women), shampoos (12-14 oz sizes for men and women) and stick deodorant (3-4 oz sizes for men and women). Please bring the aforementioned basic necessities to the outreach baskets or make a donation to the project (checks made to GHTC with a notation for Urban Necessities) and we will select the items on your behalf. Thank you for supporting this outreach project.

Choral Evensong and Organ Recital
March 15 • 5 p.m.
Evensong is a service of hymns, choral anthems, Bible readings and prayers—it is a time to listen, pray, meditate and sing. Holy Eucharist from the reserve sacrament will be offered in the Chapel immediately following Evensong. The March recital is by Tyler Boehmer. Tyler is Director of Music at First United Methodist Church in Leavenworth and is a doctoral student at the University of Kansas. He was recently awarded First Prize in the 2019 Miami International Organ Competition and Third Prize in the 2019 Shanghai International Organ Competition.

Stations of the Cross
Fridays during Lent • 5:15 p.m.
March 13, 27: Service held at CIC
March 20, April 3: Service held at GHTC
In partnership with the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, we will offer the Stations of the Cross every Friday evening during Lent.

Lent Food Drive for the Downtown Outreach Food Pantry
March 1–April 12
Place non-perishable food for the Downtown Outreach Food Pantry in the big basket in the Tower. Thank you for your support!

Week of 3/15:  Canned Meat (Chicken or Tuna)

Movie Night at the Cathedral
March 20 • 6 p.m.
Join us for Movie Night at the Cathedral! We'll meet in the Common Room for a potluck dinner (please bring a dish to share) and movie, followed by discussion. The movie for March is The Upside, starring Kevin Hart, Nicole Kidman and Bryan Cranston. A recently paroled ex-con strikes up an unusual and unlikely friendship with a quadriplegic billionaire. This funny and warm-hearted comedy is based on a true story. 2019, PG-13.

Readers Book Club
March 22 • 11:45 a.m.
Our next Readers Book Club Meeting is Sunday, March 22 in the Common Room. We will discuss The Tea Girl of Hummingbird Lane by Lisa See.

For any additional information or questions contact Jackye Finnie, jpfinnie@aol.com, or Joyce Morrow, jemorrow@kc.rr.com.

Palm Cross Workshop
March 29 • 9 & 11:30 a.m.
Help make crosses out of palm leaves for Palm Sunday. Please bring your scissors. Someone will help you, if needed. Extra palms are available to make crosses at home and return by Palm Sunday. Crosses are also given to St. Luke’s Hospital and Hospice, and Bishop Spencer Place. Contact Janet Sweeting, jsweeting@kccathedral.org, with questions.

Dean Keyse will be gone March 18, so in place of the Lenten Bible Study there will be a special presentation by the Dialogue Institute on Women’s Rights Violations in Turkey. Visit kccathedral.org/adultformation for more details.
Volunteer at HappyBottoms
(303 W. 79th St., KCMO)
April 4 • 9–11 a.m.
Stop by the HappyBottoms warehouse in Waldo to pack diapers for distribution to nonprofit agencies. Help keep Kansas City baby bottoms happy!

Assemble Easter Baskets
April 5 • 9 a.m.
Join us between services to assemble Easter baskets for children at Crittenton, KAW Valley Children’s Center and Sheffield Place.

Noisy Offering
April 5 • 10:15 a.m.
We will make a joyful noise to the Lord with our offering on this day! Bring an offering of coins for the New Americans program, which serves refugee children in Kansas City public schools. The Cathedral’s children will collect the coins in metal buckets, so we can hear the funds add up. As always, quiet checks and cash are welcome, too.

Interested in representing the Cathedral as a delegate to the next Diocesan Convention in Springfield this fall? Contact Dean Andy, akeyse@kccathedral.org, by Monday, March 9 for more information and how to apply.

Thank You from Canon Christy

Dear Friends,

Thank you for a wonderful farewell party, for your monetary gift, and for your kind and heartfelt notes of appreciation. Saying goodbye is always hard, and I treasured having the opportunity to speak with so many of you one last time. I shall remember my time at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral with fondness and gratitude. You will always have a special place in my heart. If you would like to contact me, feel free to email christy.dorn@gmail.com. Many blessings on your ministries at the Cathedral.

Peace, joy, love,

Christy
Formation during Lent

Mystical Tradition: Judaism, Christianity and Islam—Sundays through March 22 • 9:15 a.m. • Haden Hall Purple Door Room
Mystical experiences and practices—including dramatic visions, direct communication with the divine, intense spiritual quests, and hermetic lifestyles—are commonly associated with Eastern cultures. They are thought to be far removed from the monotheistic traditions of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. In Mystical Tradition: Judaism, Christianity and Islam, explore this spiritual, literary and intellectual heritage in these great faiths as it unfolds over three millennia. Contact class facilitator Deacon Jerry Grabher with questions, j.grabher3@gmail.com.

Sunday Youth Socials—Sundays • 9:15 a.m. • Haden Hall Youth Room
The youth room is open to all youth on Sunday mornings for coffee, gathering and lectionary-based Bible study prompts.

Youth Confirmation Class—Sundays • 9:15 a.m. • Haden Hall Orange Door Room
Please keep our candidates for Confirmation in your prayers as they engage in prayer and study this spring. Confirmands will participate in the Area Confirmation this spring with candidates from other local parishes.

Children’s Chapel & Godly Play—Sundays • 10:20 a.m. • Haden Hall
During Lent, children in Godly Play (preK–2nd grade) will hear stories leading up to Jesus death and resurrection. In children’s chapel (3rd–5th graders), kids will work on a Lego project to create scenes from Holy Week. Children will be encouraged to save coins during Lent to bring on Palm Sunday (April 5) for the Noisy Offering.

Women’s Bible Study—Tuesdays • 12:30 p.m. • Common Room
During Lent 2020, Women’s Bible Study is using Amy Jill Levine’s Entering the Passion of Jesus: A Beginners Guide to Holy Week. Levine, a graduate of Smith College and Duke University is an Orthodox Jew and Professor of New Testament Studies at Vanderbilt University. For more information about the book, visit rebrand.ly/EnteringthePassion. The book is for sale in the Cathedral Bookstore for $10.05.

Lenten Bible Study: The Book of Revelation (or The Revelation of John)—Wednesdays, March 4–April 1 • Founders’ Hall
6 p.m.: dinner; 6:30–7:45 p.m.: class; 7:45 p.m.: compline
Have you ever wondered about the last book of the New Testament, why it’s there and what it means? Where did we get the word Apocalypse and who are the Four Horsemen? Why not come to the Cathedral on Wednesdays during Lent and find out! Join Dean Andy as he leads a Bible study on the Book of Revelation. You’ll learn about Apocalyptic literature and what all the crazy creatures mean as we go through the book together. Activities for children and nursery care will be available.

Dean Keyse will be gone March 18, so in place of the Lenten Bible Study there will be a special presentation by the Dialogue Institute on Women’s Rights Violations in Turkey. Visit kccathedral.org/adultformation for more details.

GHTC Youth Group—Wednesdays • 6:45 p.m. • Haden Hall Youth Room
Youth in grades 6–12 are invited to weekly Youth Group on Wednesday evenings. Youth group during Lent will focus on personal spiritual practices, meditating on Scripture and growing in our faith together in community. Youth Group meets from 6:45–8:30 p.m. in the Haden Hall Youth Room and always includes dinner and worship. Youth are also encouraged to participate in Network and Diocesan ministry throughout Lent to strengthen relationships with God and each other. For more information, contact Alexandra, youthformation@kccathedral.org.
