Morning Prayer

Voluntary: “Prelude in G major,” BWV 541/1

Johann Sebastian Bach

Opening Sentence

Officiant Alleluia! Christ is risen.
People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Invitatory and Psalter

Officiant Lord open our lips.
People And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.
All Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia.

Antiphon

All Alleluia. The Lord is risen indeed: Come let us adore him. Alleluia.

Christ Our Passover

1 Corinthians 5:7–8; Romans 6:9–11; 1 Corinthians 15:20–22
All Alleluia.

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us; *
therefore let us keep the feast,

Not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, * but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. Alleluia.

Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; *
death no longer has dominion over him.

The death that he died, he died to sin, once for all; *
but the life he lives, he lives to God.

So also consider yourselves dead to sin, *
and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord. Alleluia.

Christ has been raised from the dead, *
the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

For since by a man came death, *
by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die, *
so also in Christ shall all be made alive. Alleluia.

Antiphon

All Alleluia. The Lord is risen indeed: Come let us adore him. Alleluia.
The Psalm Appointed

Psalm 116:1–3, 10–17

All I love the Lord, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, * because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him.

The cords of death entangled me;
the grip of the grave took hold of me; *
      I came to grief and sorrow.

Then I called upon the Name of the Lord: *
      “O Lord, I pray you, save my life.”

How shall I repay the Lord * for all the good things he has done for me?

I will lift up the cup of salvation *
      and call upon the Name of the Lord.

I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
      in the presence of all his people.

Precious in the sight of the Lord * is the death of his servants.

O Lord, I am your servant; *
      I am your servant and the child of your handmaid;
      you have freed me from my bonds.

I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving *
      and call upon the Name of the Lord.

I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
      in the presence of all his people,

In the courts of the Lord’s house, *
      in the midst of you, O Jerusalem.
      Hallelujah!

The Lessons

Acts 2:14a, 36–41

Reader Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, “Let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified.”

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, “Brothers, what should we do?” Peter said to them, “Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.
For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.” And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, “Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.” So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.
Canticle 9

All  Surely, it is God who saves me; *
    I will trust in him and not be afraid.

For the Lord is my stronghold and my sure defense, *
    and he will be my Savior.

Therefore you shall draw water with rejoicing *
    from the springs of salvation.

And on that day you shall say, *
    Give thanks to the Lord and call upon his Name;

Make his deeds known among the peoples; *
    see that they remember that his Name is exalted.

Sing the praises of the Lord, for he has done great things, *
    and this is known in all the world.

Cry aloud, inhabitants of Zion, ring out your joy, * for the great one in the midst of you is the Holy One of Israel.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
    as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Reader  Now on that same day two of Jesus’ disciples were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, “What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?” They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, “Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?” He asked them, “What things?” They replied, “The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him.” Then he said to them, “Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?” Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, “Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.” So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?” That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, “The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!” Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

The Word of the Lord.

People  Thanks be to God.
Canticle 21

All  You are God: we praise you;
     You are the Lord: we acclaim you;
     You are the eternal Father:
     All creation worships you.
     To you all angels, all the powers of heaven,
    Cherubim and Seraphim, sing in endless praise:
        Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
        heaven and earth are full of your glory.
     The glorious company of apostles praise you.
     The noble fellowship of prophets praise you.
     The white-robed army of martyrs praise you.
     Throughout the world the holy Church acclaims you;
        Father, of majesty unbounded,
        your true and only Son, worthy of all worship,
        and the Holy Spirit, advocate and guide.
     You, Christ, are the king of glory,
     the eternal Son of the Father.
     When you became man to set us free
     you did not shun the Virgin’ s womb.
     You overcame the sting of death and opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
     You are seated at God’ s right hand in glory.
     We believe that you will come and be our judge.
        Come then, Lord, and help your people, bought with the price of your own blood,
        and bring us with your saints to glory everlasting.

The Apostles’ Creed

All  I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
    He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
    He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
    He descended to the dead.
    On the third day he rose again.
    He ascended into heaven,
    and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
    He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
    the holy catholic Church,
    the communion of saints,
    the forgiveness of sins,
    the resurrection of the body,
    and the life everlasting. Amen.
The Prayers
Officiant    The Lord be with you.
People      And also with you.
Officiant    Let us pray.
All          Our Father, who art in heaven,
              hallowed be thy Name,
              thy kingdom come,
              thy will be done,
              on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Suffrances
Officiant    Show us your mercy, O Lord;
People      And grant us your salvation.
Officiant    Clothe your ministers with righteousness;
People      Let your people sing with joy.
Officiant    Give peace, O Lord, in all the world;
People      For only in you can we live in safety.
Officiant    Lord, keep this nation under your care;
People      And guide us in the way of justice and truth.
Officiant    Let your way be known upon earth;
People      Your saving health among all nations.
Officiant    Let not the needy, O Lord, be forgotten;
People      Nor the hope of the poor be taken away.
Officiant    Create in us clean hearts, O God;
People      And sustain us with your Holy Spirit.

Collects
Officiant    Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

O God, you make us glad with the weekly remembrance of the glorious resurrection of your Son our Lord: Give us this day such blessing through our worship of you, that the week to come may be spent in your favor; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
O God, you have made of one blood all the peoples of the earth, and sent your blessed Son to preach peace to those who are far off and to those who are near: Grant that people everywhere may seek after you and find you; bring the nations into your fold; pour out your Spirit upon all flesh; and hasten the coming of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
