

Announcements for the Week of February 10, 2019

From me to you ...

God has something to say. To you. To me. To us. To the world. Who's listening? Are you? God speaks to us all the time, in our prayers certainly (as long as we're not telling God what to do!). In our presence with one another—and God speaks most loudly when we don't want to listen. On icy days when we can't take our dogs outside without falling. On sunny days when there's too much to do and not enough time. On any day when we are put in the company of someone with whom we have an issue—or someone who has an issue with us. On days and nights when all is right with the world. In other words, God's got us by the hairs on our heads and speaks mightily all the time. Why can't we stop talking ourselves, in our minds as well as out loud, and listen?

I think I've just discovered my spiritual practice for Lent—holy listening. With a quiet heart and mind. But why should I wait for Lent? Why not right now?

See you in church!

Mrs. Evelyn

New Sacristan Announced

Kristy Moore has accepted the position of Sacristan. She has attended Grace and Holy Trinity for 25 years, along with her husband Steve and their three children, Abby, Jon and Camille. She has been involved in a variety of committees and ministries, including the Nursery Committee, Guild of the Christ Child, Children's Formation/Children's Chapel Leader, Newcomer's Committee, Holy Hands, Vestry Search Committee and Altar Guild. She had the following comment about her new position, "Thank you to Dean Hornaday for the opportunity to lead the ministry of the Altar Guild and serve all who worship at our beautiful church."

Up Next

Treasure Tour

February 17 • 11:45 a.m.

Join us at the back of the Nave to discuss a few of our beautiful stained glass windows and hear about the work that went into restoring them.

Evensong—February

February 17 • 5 p.m.

Evensong is a service of hymns, choral anthems, Bible readings and prayers—it is a time to listen, pray, meditate and sing. Holy Communion is often celebrated following Evensong for those desiring it. Childcare is available.

Did You Know?

NOURISHKC

NourishKC Needs Your Help!

Over the last several weeks a growing financial concern became evident and clear. The Board and NourishKC leadership has made the hard decision to reduce services and operations to only the Kansas City Community Kitchen. The pantry is now being operated via St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Kansas City, Kansas. If you would like to help by donating money, you may visit nourishkc.org/donate, check out their Go Fund Me campaign at gofundme.com (search for NourishKC) or you may mail a check to NourishKC, P.O. Box 412458, Kansas City, MO 64141. Volunteers are also desperately needed. Sign up at nourishkc.org/volunteer.
