

Announcements for the Week of February 17, 2019

From me to you ...

As the season of Lent approaches, our Presiding Bishop Michael Curry and the Rev. Jim Wallis of Sojourners have joined with faith leaders to issue a letter, Reclaiming Jesus: A Call to Prayer, Fasting and Action. You will find the full text of the letter on episcopalchurch.org (scroll down to the “From Public Affairs” section).

This letter reads, in part, “Prayer turns us to God and fasting focuses our attention on repentance. Gathering to pray will anchor us for the days ahead. Our Lenten prayers in our homes and our churches can be weekly and daily, individual and corporate, personal and public. As we pray, let us also discern what our best responses should be in such a time as this. It is time to reclaim Jesus—and have Jesus lay his claim on us.”

Please take a moment to read this letter and think about how you can participate in your own life. See you in church!

NOURISHKC

NourishKC Needs Your Help!

Over the last several weeks a growing financial concern became evident and clear. The Board and NourishKC leadership has made the hard decision to reduce services and operations to only the Kansas City Community Kitchen. The pantry is now being operated via St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Kansas City, Kansas. If you would like to help by donating money, you may visit nourishkc.org/donate, check out their Go Fund Me campaign at gofundme.com (search for NourishKC) or you may mail a check to NourishKC, P.O. Box 412458, Kansas City, MO 64141. Volunteers are also desperately needed. Sign up at nourishkc.org/volunteer.
