

Announcements for the Week of February 24, 2019

From me to you ...

Looking out my office windows this week has been interesting! To say the least. Snow, snow, everywhere. Piled up and dirty. And some, lying like a snuggly blanket on the ground, keeping the spring grass and flowers nourished for a while longer. The harbinger of new life to come.

And so it is with Lent: the time when we Christians cover ourselves in the nurturing yet discomfiting awareness of the tragedy to come. The time when we intentionally pay attention to all the ways in which we separate ourselves from God and all that is holy. Sometimes like the blanket of snow, sometimes like the dirty piles at the curbs. It is also the time when we at GHTC offer ways to help one another on our journeys to the Resurrection, new life to come. Ways designed to be healing and hope-renewing. These times together are not meant to be all things to all people. They are simply ways, each of them, to help us connect and reconnect with one another and with God. Perhaps one or two appeals to your deep need, perhaps another one does not. That is the way with journeys through the snow—and through Lent.

We have to go through the messiness to get to the glory!

Mrs. Evelyn

If you would like to help by donating money, you may visit nourishkc.org/donate, check out their Go Fund Me campaign at gofundme.com (search for NourishKC) or you may mail a check to NourishKC, P.O.
