

Announcements for the Week of March 10, 2019

From me to you ...

As we begin the journey through Lent and think about the disciplines required in self-examination, let's think about fasting and what we might fast from. Perhaps we can fast from negative thoughts and our woes, focusing on the blessings inherent in everything that is part of our lives? I will, if you will.

See you in church!

Choral Evensong

March 17 • 5 p.m.

Evensong is a service of hymns, choral anthems, Bible readings and prayers—it is a time to listen, pray, meditate and sing. Holy Communion is often celebrated following Evensong for those desiring it. Childcare is available.

Volunteer at KCCK

March 20 • 8:30–10:30 a.m.

Volunteers in this position will be setting up the dining room to prepare for our diners. Tasks will involve rolling silverware, setting up tables and chairs, putting out tablecloths, etc. This team will also set up the beverage station and pack to-go snack bags. Volunteers under 14 should have proper supervision (one adult for 2 kids) and no volunteers under 10 years old.

God's Family at the Table

March 23 • 10 a.m.–12 noon

Families are invited to learn about communion together during this workshop. We'll start by making bread, then visit stations to learn more about communion. We'll end our time together by celebrating communion using the bread we bake. This communion workshop is especially appropriate for families with children ages 4–8, but all are welcome to attend. Please RSVP by March 18 to Julie Brogno, childrensformation@kccathedral.org.
