

Announcements for the Week of April 28, 2019

From me to you ...

Alleluia! Christ is risen! And thanks to you, He is indeed risen from this beautiful cathedral. You made Holy Week holy, you gave yourselves over to the vulnerability of the week—and it was magnificent to experience. You reenacted Jesus' entry into Jerusalem, you prayed and cried in the meditative silence. You knelt at one another's feet and at the foot of the cross. You shared the lighting of the new fire and shouted the first Alleluias of the season. Then you participated fully in the liturgy of the Resurrection on Sunday. You and your faithful expressions of love and devotion made it all happen, made it all holy. And I know you are grateful to have been here and to have had the experiences you did.

There are any number of people who created the ambiance and dramatic moments that were for the most part behind the scenes—acolytes, lectors, teachers, cooks, Altar Guild, choir, ushers, children, eucharistic ministers, guest musicians, schedulers, coffee makers, clergy, bulletin compilers, food preparers and on and on. All these and more, too many to name, too many to ignore. Please say a rousing “thank you” to anybody you see who might possibly have had even a small part in making our week rich and touching. Everybody made it the beautiful and special experience that it was. Everybody. Including you! And you did it without being asked, without being anything but your loving, caring people of God.

My thanks for serving God in this place in such a mindful way. Now, let's go out and serve the world in His name!

Mrs. Evelyn +
