

Announcements for the Week of May 20, 2018

From me to you ...

Last Sunday at the 10:15 a.m. service, our fabulous youth led us in an inspiring liturgy. They read the lessons, wrote and delivered the prayers, sang and encouraged us to join them in songs we all know from church camp days. The sermon about her experience after a car accident made us all understand not only Amanda Colburn's faith, not only faith through the eyes of a group of wise-beyond-their-years young people; but Amanda opened our hearts to hear anew our own declarations of trust in the One who created us and who holds us in his everlasting care. How blessed we were to be together for this powerful witness to all that is holy, all that is true. Thank you, dear youth, for being your wonderful selves and for being strong enough in your faith and in your trust of us to invite us in to your special world. Thank you, too, Alexandra and Curtis, for your love and faithfulness to guide these young people as they grow in wisdom and stature.

Mrs. Evelyn +

Welcome First-Time Visitors

As a special welcome, first-time visitors are invited to come to our Connection Corner following this morning's 10:15 a.m. service. Look for the festive table in the courtyard between the Cathedral and Founders' Hall. There you will be greeted by Cathedral members and can pick up a small gift in appreciation for worshipping with us today.

Summer Fellowship Hosts Needed

We need summer hosts to sign up to provide the goodies for fellowship time after both the 8 & 10:15 a.m. services. Won't you help?

The Cathedral small groups are also asked to sign up for one Sunday, or multiple Sundays, if possible. Groups of individuals may sign up together. We have approximately 15 weeks of opportunity to support this fellowship. Please help as you are able.

Sign-up sheets are located in the back of the Nave, as well as Founders' Hall. For questions or additional information, please contact Joan Bergstrom (8 a.m. service) at 1234jebergstrom@gmail.com, Jackye Finnie (10:15 a.m. service) at jpfinnie@aol.com or Julie Brogno (10:15 a.m. service) at childrensformation@kccathedral.org. Let's do this together!
