

Announcements for the Week of July 1, 2018

From me to you ...

This Sunday, the Sunday before Independence Day, a day that we so often take for granted, let's remember the brave men who lived and died that America might come into existence. Let's remember the words "We the people ..." and the promise of liberty and prosperity and freedom for all who come to these beautiful shores. Let's remember Emma Lazarus' powerful words etched on Lady Liberty: "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free." And let's remember the plaintive words of Matthew: "Come unto me, all ye who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." So during this long holiday week, let's rest, remember and sing out for ourselves and for those promises made in Philadelphia, on the battlefields, on the seashores, and on the borders of this land of hope and promise.

While we're celebrating our country's glorious beginnings this week, our Cathedral will welcome the American Guild of Organists into these holy spaces with concerts Tuesday afternoon and Friday afternoon. We'll make our musical offering of Evensong for our illustrious guests this Sunday at 5 p.m. We'll discover new ways of being disciples as we join with our musical guests from all over the world in fun, food and fellowship at Bartle Hall Wednesday evening. We will be what we proclaim we are: A Servant Church in the Heart of the City! And how grand that will be, too!

And then to cap off the festivities, Fr. Larry Ehren will be here on Sunday, July 8 at both services, celebrating Holy Eucharist with us before he assumes his position as Priest-in-Charge at St. Mary Magdalene in Belton. Come with joy and thanksgiving, to be with Larry and Christy as we send him out into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit!

I sing with joy for you, each of you! I am blessed by your faithfulness. You strengthen me.

See you in church!

Mrs. Evelyn +
