

Announcements for the Week of July 15, 2018

From me to you ...

The Bishop is coming! The Bishop is coming! Yes, he is ... this Sunday!

Bishop Martin Field will be at all three worship services this Sunday. After each one, he will hold an informal conversation with us to talk about the search process. You have all received the letter announcing what will take place over the next few months and Sunday he's inviting our questions and thoughts. Bring the letter with you, so you can ask your questions. There will also be a timeline to add to the letter, which will provide some additional detail—including the selection of the Search Committee. There will be copies available at the conversations today, as well as additional copies of the letter.

Note WHERE these conversations will take place:

After 8 a.m.—in the Nave

After 10:15 a.m.—in Founders' Hall

After 5 p.m.—in the Nave

Come one, come all! Get yourselves a cup of coffee and join the Bishop as together we learn more about how we will go about calling our permanent Dean!

See you in church!

Mtr. Evelyn

A Vestry Announcement

In a letter to Mtr. Evelyn last week, Bob Carlson submitted his resignation from the Vestry and as Sr. Warden, effective July 31. As you know, he's recently undergone cardiac surgery and needs to put all his energy into recovering fully.

Appointed in January, Bob has given us all the benefit of his calm presence and wise counsel as we begin this transition time, and those gifts will be missed by us all. The good news is that Bob and Linda will continue their faithfulness here at the Cathedral, and they will be the same kind, loving people they always have been. And for that, we are indeed grateful!

The Vestry will meet next week in special session to consider how to fill the seat he is vacating—and with whom. Please keep them in your prayers for wisdom and clarity. And by all means, pray for Bob's continued healing and recovery.

School is out for the summer and school-age kids are home all day. This means no free or reduced lunches from school. So please consider picking up extra shelf-stable food at the grocery store that is easily opened by children at home (i.e., canned goods with pop top lids, tuna in foil packs, etc.) for the pantry at St. Mary's.
