

Announcements for the Week of July 21, 2019

From me to you ...

You all should have received word by now that the Rev. Marco Serrano's last day at the Cathedral will be next Sunday, July 28. Marco will be leaving us to accept a call to serve as the new Rector at St. Margaret's Episcopal Church in Lawrence. He has been an exceptional colleague during his time at the Cathedral and he will definitely be missed.

The Cathedral will be making a financial contribution to the Rector's Discretionary Fund at St. Margaret's, in gratitude for Marco's ministry during his time here. If you would like to contribute, please mail your check to the Cathedral or place it in the offering plate, with the memo designation of "St. Margaret's-Marco." The deadline for donations is next Sunday, July 28.

Please join us next Sunday, when Marco will preach and preside at both morning services. Following each service, there will be opportunity to greet Marco, Corrine and girls at a reception in Founders' Hall. Also, please keep Marco and his family in your prayers during this time of transition.

See you in church!

Mrs. Evelyn

Did You Know?

Fun Fact about the Saint John's Bible

An international team of calligraphers and artists created the 1,165-page manuscript and its 160 major illuminations. Most calligraphers and artists worked in their own studios and did not come together as a whole group until the end of the project. Each page is two feet tall by three feet wide and will be bound into seven volumes at the end of the exhibition phase of the project. The script, Jacksonian, was devised by Donald Jackson to be readable, modern, and appropriately dignified for this sacred text. Each of the six calligraphers/scribes had to learn to use this script. The hand of all six together can be seen in only one place across the seven volumes ... in 1 Corinthians 9-11. The squares at the bottom of these pages contain their initials.
