

Announcements for the Week of September 9, 2018

From me to you ...

It's that time! Classes new and interesting for all ages begin this week— lectionary Bible study with Christy and Bob, adult forum and spirituality sessions with Jerry, book group with Jackye Finnie, children's choir with Linda, Tallis and Trinity choirs with Paul, Trinity Teens Youth Group with Alexandra and Cafe Grazia—good food, a lively book review with the author, a powerful movie and fun singing. All the other things we at the Cathedral do to live into our calling as Christians will go on, too.

On top of that, your applications to serve on the Dean Search Committee are coming in. If you want to be part of this vital ministry having to do with our future, be sure to get your application in to the office by Friday.

Catch all the details in this newsletter, or the Sunday bulletin, or the announcements! You don't want to miss out on all the great ministries, programs and activities here. As they used to say: "Be there or be square!"

See you in church Sunday!

Mrs. Evelyn

Weekday Worship Change!

Beginning in September, the Cathedral began offering weekday Holy Eucharist at 12:05 p.m. on Wednesdays only! There will be no services offered other weekdays. We will be asking for feedback from attendees on the change, so if you attend the weekday service, please let us know your opinion.
