

Announcements for the Week of September 15, 2019

Meanwhile ...

Dear Cathedral Family,

For a time, we will call this article Meanwhile. It seems fitting. ‘Meanwhile’ refers to that in-between time, the time before something expected is to happen. Here at Grace & Holy Trinity, we are in “between Deans” time. As most of you know, we have been in our Dean search for quite awhile. But the search will soon come to a close. Meanwhile ... meanwhile, may this continue to be a time of growth for us; our congregational life and ministry continues; God continues to call us to be a servant church, responding to those in need; we are called to be the hands and heart of Jesus in our world; there is much work to be done.

This morning, please join me in welcoming our own Bishop Marty Field as our preacher. In the very near future, we will also welcome retired ELCA Bishop, Roger Gustafson, as our guest preacher.

I invite you to reflect on these words from today’s Psalm: Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me (Psalm 51: 10). The heart is the truest part of who we are. It influences what we do. What we treasure, what we value, is where our heart is. These words invite us to become centered and focused on what is important, and to live more fully in Christ.

Peace, joy, love,

Christy Dorn
Priest-in-Charge

Thank You

Dear friends in Christ,

My heart delights in the Sunday we spent together! Your worship, praise and thanksgiving was everything I hoped it would be, everything I know to be true about you and our beloved cathedral. We were blessed to hear together still again the lessons from scripture, to say prayers from deep in our souls and to share the Holy Feast. The music of hymns, psalms and anthems do honor to you, and, more importantly, to God. Even this morning I am re-reading the cards and notes you gave me, and remembering the words we shared in Founders Hall—your well-wishes and thanks, your hopes for me and for yourselves in the time to come. I find God’s great peace surrounding my memories of our time together. I wish for you only those good gifts and mercies that you so richly deserve.

Thank you for the gifts. I will treasure the books, the flowers, the jewelry, and the monetary offerings. Most of all, I am thankful for your friendships during a difficult time. Your generosity of spirit will be the balm that soothes the loss I feel in departing my beloved Cathedral. When you hear that I’m holed up reading and pondering God’s generosity, join me! When you hear that I’ve gone to stay in Ireland or Wales for several months, or that I’ve gone exploring in Alaska, remember that you helped make still another pilgrimage possible for me—and that my gratitude is unbounded. For you and for God.

May we see one another again and meet in love and thanksgiving!
