

Announcements for the Week of September 16, 2018

From me to you ...

As we move farther into the fall here at the Cathedral, our lives and activities pick up and seem newer, brighter, better than ever. Perhaps that is so about some of our things. But I suspect it's because God has reminded us that resurrection lives among us, that "all things bright and beautiful," to call up a favorite hymn, also is about our renewed understanding of who Jesus is in our lives with a reminder that each day is an opportunity to be newer, brighter, better than ever—simply by recognizing our place in God's economy. That we carry with us and in us the light that lightens all burdens. That we have the gift of freshness in relationships with one another that opens hearts and minds. That we can and do acknowledge who we are and Whose we are.

We are truly All Things Bright and Beautiful, every one of us. Even me! Even you!

See you in church Sunday!

Mrs. Evelyn +
