Introducing our guest preacher, Roger Gustafson...

The Rev. Roger Gustafson recently retired from a six-year term as Bishop of the Central States Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA). Bishop Gustafson was responsible for the oversight of 175 congregations in Missouri and Kansas. In addition, he has served in a number of volunteer capacities, including: a member of the Pastor-to-Pastor pilot project, a member of the Bishop's Pastoral Care Team, co-dean with his wife, Susan Langhauser, of the Kansas City Area Ministry, chair of the synod's Evangelizing Strategy Task Force, chair of the Church Planters missions team for the KC metropolitan area. Bishop Gustafson has been a contributing writer for Lectionary Homiletics and Living Pulpit preaching journals. He has been a court-approved mediator and has served as a consultant for Children International, a humanitarian organization focused on helping children break the cycle of poverty.

Before his election as bishop, Rev. Gustafson served for 20 years as Pastor of Advent Lutheran Church in Olathe. He earned his B.A. in journalism from the University of Minnesota and his M.Div., with honors, from Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary in Berkeley, California, where he met Susan. His first career was in print journalism, working for a variety of newspapers in the Midwest and West.

Roger and Susan are parents of Andrew and parents-in-law of Megan, and grandparents of Henry James and Vivian Rose. In his spare time, you might find Roger on his motorcycle, fly-fishing, or chasing his grandkids. Welcome, Bishop Gustafson!

Peace, joy, love,
