

Announcements for the Week of October 21, 2018

From me to you ...

In a world where a man can be tortured, dismembered and killed and no leader who should be, is outraged; in a world where people can go hungry everyday and no leader who should be, is disgusted; in a world where personal entitlement and selfishness is rampant and no leader who should be, is willing to stand up and say “No more!” let each of us remember the God Who is outraged, is disgusted and calls out our sin, is ever-present with us. Crying over our separation from him as we continue defiling the world He made for our care and enjoyment. Let each of us recall our contribution to the world we live in, both our sins and our holiness ... and drop to our knees and ask for forgiveness for our daily sins and then, offer our thanksgivings for God’s free gift of grace. A gift we can never earn, and yet a gift that is freely given.

I really hope to see YOU in church Sunday.

Mrs. Evelyn +
