

Announcements for the Week of November 4, 2018

From me to you ...

A profound sadness has fallen over our land. A wound that was beginning to heal from previous disasters and tragedies has reopened and poured forth with a ferocity—and at the same time, a numbness—that we haven't felt for a long time. Somehow those of us who believe in a world that God means to be good, have trouble understanding why we keep rebelling against the One Who made us for His pleasure. I have no answers, and yet I continue to hope that our better angels will ultimately prevail, that the Good News of Christ will be called up from our sorrows, that we will heed the words of Micah and of Jesus to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with the Lord. I read some wisdom in a letter this week from the bishop of Arkansas, The Rt. Rev. Larry Benfield. Bishop Benfield speaks of justice and mercy in a way that speaks volumes not only of his own faith, but of his understanding of the Christian condition. Please read the letter at kccathedral.org/conversations-mother-evelyn and ponder its truth and then continue to pray.

Meanwhile, let's pray together, celebrate new baptisms together, and honor Marco's ordination together on Sunday. See you there.

Mother Evelyn
