A Contemplative Season

There is something about this time of year that makes me literally giddy, which I actually find kind of strange, because I am not a big fan of winter and the cold that comes with it. But for some reason, the sights and smells of autumn just make me feel right at home.

I've also found that this time of year tends to make me feel very introspective. Maybe it's because the busyness of summer and all the activities that go along with it tend to slow down a bit. Whatever the reason, now is the perfect time to take stock and do a little soul searching.

This is exactly what will be happening around the Cathedral as well, as we enter this season of all things pumpkin spice. Cathedral Conversations are taking place in many congregation members' homes, as the people in this place seek to determine exactly who you are and what is important to the members of the Cathedral. This important work will help further the process of calling a new dean. You can read more about that process on page 9 in "The Interim Time" article.

Dean Evelyn discusses "Our Journey Together" on page 4, as she talks about some of the activities going on at the Cathedral. More detail on those activities can also be found on pages 10–11 in the "Autumn at the Cathedral" graphic.

There are some quotes from participants in the Cathedral Qigong and Tai Chi class, led by Karen Kissinger, on page 5, "Upcoming Music Events" are listed on page 8 and information about the Adult Formation classes can be found on pages 12–13.

All the wonderful things being done by the Cathedral's Social Outreach are listed on pages 14–15 and a preview of the Cathedral's Christmas services is located on page 16.

Finally, all the "Other Things" you need to know about are listed on pages 18–19.

Take a moment to check out all the things being offered at the Cathedral this autumn. And make sure to spend a little time offering your input at the Cathedral Conversations. Every voice is important, so be sure to lend yours to the conversation.

Our Journey Together

I love the fall! The crisp air that refreshes my soul and whisks away the heat and stagnant ennui of the summer often makes me wish October could just stay around forever. The lingering smell of a wood fire, the cheers for a favorite football team, the new-found delight in cuddling up in an oversized turtleneck sweater—what could be better than that? Not much, except for the warmth and care of you, the people of this Cathedral, my sisters and brothers on the journey to God's Kingdom. To be able to serve God in this place as your Interim Dean is a privilege that I do not take lightly, nor do I take it for granted. You have welcomed me into your lives and ministry, and I hope you believe I have welcomed you into mine. And I am ever so grateful for all that you are and all that you do for the sake of Christ's claim on us.

This fall you'll have a chance to love, laugh and learn through the ways we spend our time together. Our children and youth can continue to grow in grace and compassion through their time with Julie Brogno, Linda Martin, Paul Meier, Curtis Hamilton and Alexandra Connors. What extraordinary gifts these wise leaders have to share with our children and youth. We've seen and heard the fruits of those gifts weekly as they sing, lead and proclaim their understanding of God's love. Even our youngest ones dash off to Children's Chapel behind their cross which one of them proudly carries each week. These opportunities continue to abound this fall—watch for the signs.

The older youth (meaning you and me!) will continue journeying into lives of wisdom and grace with not one, but two Adult Forums each Sunday! Deacon Jerry Grabher, Canon Christy Dorn and Dr. Bob Johnson are leading classes that you've asked for—spirituality that affects the heart and mind, and getting in touch with the Bible in an engaging way. The Women's Bible Study Class continues to meet weekly for an enlivening and enriching time of study and sharing. There are two book clubs that gather periodically for discussion.

Music has always been part of our identity as an Episcopal Cathedral. And so it continues with Paul Meier and the choir program he inherited and is building on. Three choirs, plus Linda Martin's children choir, all sing regularly in worship, and our prayers are richer for their gifts that "make a joyful noise."

Elsewhere you can read about this time of transition following the retirement of Dean Peter DeVeau and the calling of a new Dean. Things don't stop during these times, and they are not doing so here. The Vestry and staff are not only committed to the future and what it may hold for us all, but are intent upon making sure that the present is rich and healthy as befits a congregation that understands itself to be true disciples of Christ.

Finally, a word about our worship: Grace & Holy Trinity Cathedral has always been known for its warmth and welcoming expressions of caring for friends and family alike who have found their way to this place to pray, hear the Word and share the Feast. However, we are often unaware of the profound impact our worship has on strangers, even as we understand how much we are drawn closer to God and each other by being together.

"It was easy to be with God in this place where such care was being taken with the sacraments and the Word."

Recent visitors from another cathedral with a wide reputation for holiness in worship remarked that they not only felt welcomed, included and wanted on the day they visited, they also found the service to be God-centered and sacred. "It was easy to be with God in this place where such care was being taken with the sacraments and the Word." There are no dearer words to be said. Ponder them in your hearts.

So, here we are, fall is upon us. We will have classes, rehearsals, meetings, pastoral visits, weddings, baptisms, the ordination of Marco Serrano, perhaps a funeral (but oh, I hope not!). We will gather as the children of God that we are, to be together in our humanity and in our holiness to keep seeking the mind of Christ, the will of God and all things that point us towards the Kingdom. Together our journey is made easier, because there are others who are going with us. Others who share the Holy Feast and who are strengthened by it for the work we're called to do.

See you in church!

—Evelyn Hornaday

A weekly Qigong and Tai Chi class meets at the Cathedral Wednesdays at 12:45 p.m.

Following are some quotes from participants, who were asked what they get out of the class.

"Taking this class, I have gained a greater balance, both mentally and physically."

"I have a slightly decrepit back and my neurosurgeon said I have an impressive amount of arthritis. I told him what I was doing with Pilates and Qigong and Tai Chi, and he said 'that's exactly what you ought to be doing.' It diminishes any pain and distracts me from problems and makes me feel more healthy and capable."

"I have a greater sense of balance and I have noticed this in my everyday life. It's really, for me it's really special, thank you."

"I think the big thing that I've gotten out of this class is a connection between this world and the divine."

A lot of times we go through our daily routine and we're so focused on what's happening in this world that we forget to bring in the divine."

"I just want to say that I enjoy the gathering. I have friends and I feel better when I leave here. I have arthritis, which is getting worse with my age, but the exercise is really, really helping it."

"I live downtown and ended up here because it was nearby and someone told me about it, but it makes me really appreciate Grace and Holy Trinity as a member of the community and offering something that improves everyone's lives."

Children's Fall Activities

Fall Saints Festival Sunday, October 28 Following the 10:15 a.m. service

Come to church dressed as your favorite saint (or another costume) and stay after the 10:15 a.m. service for a potluck lunch. The Cathedral will provide regular hot dogs and vegetarian dogs; please bring a side dish to share. Activities will include a bounce house and pumpkin decorating!

Sundays in Advent

Children in Chapel and Godly Play will use an Advent wreath to get ready for the birth of Jesus. Chapel lessons will follow the lectionary readings. In Godly Play, the children will hear stories that relate to the candles on the Advent wreath and point towards Bethlehem.

Advent Prayer Chains Sunday, December 9

Remember loved ones by constructing paper chains of prayer to decorate the Christmas tree in Founders' Hall. Take a strip of paper (available in the Nave and in Founders' Hall) to write your name, the name of a loved one, or anyone you'd like to remember in prayer, and place the strips in the provided baskets. Then, help us assemble the strips into chains during coffee hour. The Christmas tree draped in prayer chains will be a reminder of the love that connects us together.

One & Only Pageant Rehearsal Sunday, December 16 11:45 a.m.—12:15 p.m.

Children are encouraged to come to the One & Only Rehearsal—it helps to have people who know what's happening! Meet in the back of the Nave immediately following the 10:15 a.m. service. Don't worry about missing coffee hour—we'll have snacks for those who participate.

Christmas Eve Pageant & Eucharist Monday, December 24 • 5 p.m.

All children are welcome to participate in the pageant. There are no lines to learn and simple costumes will be provided. Children who want to participate should meet in the Common Room at 4:30 p.m.

On the Bookshelf

Have you ever taken a moment to look at the books on the shelf at the back of the Nave? The Cathedral is fortunate to own many excellent children's books, and I enjoy finding new books to share with our children. I rotate the books every couple of weeks and try to align the selections with the season or theme in the lectionary readings. If you need a gift for a child's birthday, baptism, or another occasion, consider getting ideas from the Nave bookshelf. Some titles may be purchased in the Cathedral Bookstore.

A great gift for a young person who likes graphic novels is The Action Bible. This book of the major stories of the Bible is illustrated by Marvel/DC Comics artist Sergio Cariello, and has quickly become a favorite of the older elementary kids at the Cathedral. Many of these kids have even asked their parents to buy them a copy of their own! I recently purchased a set of The NIV Action Study Bible to use with our third–fifth graders in Children's Chapel. These study Bibles include some illustrations, along with background information and short devotions. Let me know if you'd like to look at a copy.

These books that will be on the Nave bookshelf in the next few months:

- Water, Come Down! a beautifully illustrated book about elements of nature rejoicing at a child's baptism.
- The Perfect Thanksgiving, a book about what really matters at the holidays—the love families share.
- The Christmas Truce, Christmas Day in the Morning, and Home by Another Way, the interesting stories in these picture books will appeal to elementary-aged children.

Are you interested in helping with this ministry? Volunteers are needed to organize our book collection and rotate the book selections. Or perhaps you'd like to make a donation towards purchasing additional children's books? Contact me at childrensformation@kccathedral.org.

A New Season

GHTC Children's Choir began a new season with a choir room full of bright, smiling faces on Sunday, September 9. Mrs. Martin, along with Caroline and Ryan Bennett, introduced some new vocal warm ups and began to prepare music that the children will sing in worship in a few weeks. The children were quite excited about the new carpet in the rehearsal room where they also experienced the wonderful sounds of beautiful xylophones. In addition to learning anthems that correlate with the themes in worship, the singers continue to learn parts of the sung liturgy so they can participate as part of the congregation.

Please contact me if you would like more information, lmartin@kccathedral.org.

Birthday Gift Cards for Foster Children

Help a child in the foster care system by donating $25 for a birthday gift card. These gift cards are given to children who do not receive any other gifts to celebrate their birthdays. In the past we have donated 40 gift cards each year, but with the growing number of children in the system 40 gift cards is not enough anymore. Please consider this very special ministry of making children feel special on their birthdays. You may mail your donation to the office or place in the offering plate.

The Interim Time

What does it mean for the Cathedral to be in the “Interim Time?” Why aren’t we doing anything the way we did before? Why is the Bishop involved in what we do about the search for a new dean? What are these conversations the Vestry is planning? Why should I want to participate? Good questions, all, and there are many more.

The Interim Time has several overarching purposes, but primarily it is a time for a congregation to review who it is and what its mission is, in this case as a cathedral. It is a time to recall its history of ministries and of people, both lay and clergy, in order to recognize and acknowledge how we have changed, or if we have. It’s a time to evaluate our ministries, programs and worship practices to be sure they reflect the vision and mission we say we have. It is a time to try some new ideas and programs to see how they fit with who we think we are—or to not take on any new major challenges without the leadership of the new dean, who may have visions, experiences and ideas that will join with ours.

What the Interim Time doesn’t mean is standing still and doing nothing, figuring “things are going to change with the new dean anyway, so why bother?” So, the Vestry, the interim dean and the rest of the staff are intentionally keeping life at GHTC on course with much of our common life and ministries, while at the same time looking to think and plan for new ways of understanding ourselves in such a complex world. And all of this has to be done prior to the calling of the priest who will come to lead us into the future.

Why, you ask? In very simple terms: so that we can be absolutely ready for new leadership to come and lead us without having to “fix” problems we already know we have. It is a time to be sure our systems and structures are good, to be sure our ministries are appropriate for our mission, to be sure our worship reflects both who we are as Episcopalians and is inviting to those outside our walls.

There are other things our leadership works hard to manage, but the most important thing for us to do right now is to believe in ourselves, trust our leadership to know what they’re doing and then prayerfully wait for the new leader God has in mind for us.

In the meantime, when it’s time to sign up for a Cathedral Conversation

Believe that, as Julian of Norwich said, “All will be well, all manner of things will be well.”

to talk about the Cathedral, do so with joy. When you learn about the various programs and events here, attend with enthusiasm. When asked by one of our leaders, “What did you think about such-and-such?” ... tell them. Offer hopeful faces, hearts and lips. Come and worship weekly, if possible. Pray daily—for God’s will in our life in all things, especially in the calling of the new dean. And believe that, as Julian of Norwich said, “All will be well, all manner of things will be well.”

Adult Forum: The Joy of Giving: Growing Our Spiritual Gifts with Money

*Sundays, November 11–18
9:15–10:10 a.m. • Common Room*

November’s the time when we begin to think about the holidays in earnest—Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year’s—wonderful home-cooked food, joyous gathering of family and friends, delighted exchange of gifts, and more importantly, being with those we love and care about most. When it’s all said and done, what else is there? What’s left to say? A lot ... mostly “Thank you” and “I really care about you” and “I’m so glad you’re who you are in my life.”

The same things we say and believe about the importance of the holidays-to-come can be said about our relationship and commitment to God and to our

the inclination, but not the book—come anyway and someone will share!

The group expects to complete its study of The Social Justice Bible Challenge, published by Forward Movement, sometime in the early fall. We have decided to begin studying the Gospel of Luke beginning in Advent. We will use Luke for Everyone by Tom Wright. Wright is a retired Anglican bishop and the author of over seventy books about theology and Christian Life. At the end of Advent, our group will decide whether to continue with the study of Luke or to move on to something else. Ken Stewart will order copies of the book and they should be available in the beloved Cathedral. Come together on Sundays, November 11 and 18 at 9:15 a.m. to talk about gratitude and generosity and love, as we know it in our common life at GHCT. We’ll tell stories about our love for each other, about what the Cathedral stands for in our community and in our personal lives ... and how that love shows itself in the way in which we give our money to further the Gospel imperative to “go into the world and make disciples of all.” This will be a class designed to lead us gratefully and graciously into the holiday time of giving and receiving. We’ll discover that our generosity has no bounds, when we have an open relationship with Christ that is built on the foundation of gratitude for all that we are and all that we have.

Bookstore well before we need them at the beginning of Advent.

Between the conclusion of our social justice study and the beginning of our study of Luke we will discuss selected commentaries authored by The Reverend Wilda Gafney, Ph.D. Gafney is an Episcopal priest and Associate Professor of Hebrew Bible at Brite Divinity School in Dallas. She is the author of many books, articles, and commentaries. Selections for our discussions will be made by Kathy Jennings and Marian Philip from commentaries available online.

Volunteer Recognition

Social Outreach wants to recognize Joan Bergstrom as the outstanding volunteer for the fall. Joan is an active member of the Y.A.R.N. group, that knits prayer shawls for St. Luke's Hospice, caps and scarves for New American Students, and caps for newborn babies at the Global Birthing Center in Haiti. She is a healing minister and lector at the 8 a.m. service and has volunteered in the office, helping the staff with administrative duties. All Saints' Sunday

November 4
Book of Remembrance

We gather names and add them to a book started in 2007. It is a lasting memorial of “those we love but see no longer.” The book is displayed in the Cathedral on All Saints’ Sunday. The names will also be listed in the bulletin. During the liturgy, there is a time when lectors read aloud the names of those who have died in the past 12 months, followed by a time when all present say aloud names of those they would like remembered.

Forms for submitting the names of those who have died within the past year will be available at services beginning October 7. You can place these in the offering plate or in the basket on the ushers’ table. Names can also be emailed to communications@kccathedral.org. The deadline for submitting names is Tuesday, October 30. The names of all those who have died within the past year will be included in a visual display in the Nave.

Treasurer’s Report

YTD
Income	$1,355,283	$1,246,178
Expenses	$1,316,120	$1,195,913
Net Total	$39,163	$50,265

Through the past summer season, the Cathedral’s pledge & plate income trailed last year’s receipts. Total income was above last year through August as funds were drawn from the endowment to pay for the cost of additional staff. These expenses were anticipated and included in the budget for this year. Expenses were close to expectations; therefore, the shortfall in pledge and plate income translated directly into a smaller surplus through the end of August.

The Cathedral generally has a surplus at the end of summer as a sizable recurring payment from a bequest is made in June every year. That surplus is needed as a cushion for the heavier expenses of the fall at the Cathedral as ministry activities resume a faster pace. Therefore, timely payment of pledges is essential to keep the Cathedral on solid financial footing. Parishioners are asked to prayerfully remember to make payments on their 2018 pledge.

All creatures great and small are invited to the Community Blessing of the Animals

Sunday, October 7 • 4 p.m.

On Sunday, October 7, at 4 p.m., gather up Fido and Fluffy and bring them and other animal companions to the lawn at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral for our annual "Community Blessing of the Animals" Service. What better place than church to celebrate the bond between pets and their humans; the church, after all, is the place where the bond between God and creation is celebrated.

The tradition of animal or pet blessings is in remembrance of St. Francis of Assisi's love for all God's creatures. Francis, whose feast day is October 4, wrote a Canticle of the Creatures, an ode to God's living things: "All praise to you, O Lord, for all these brother and sister creatures."

The bond between humans and their pets runs deep. This service is for animal lovers of all ages. We hope you and your furry, feathered and finned friends will join us for prayers, songs, and of course, blessings. For more information, or to help with planning our celebration, please contact Rev. Christy.
