The Liturgy of the Word

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, you know our necessities before we ask and our ignorance in asking: Have compassion on our weakness, and mercifully give us those things which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask; through the worthiness of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

Reading: Amos 7:7-17

Lector This is what the Lord God showed me—a basket of summer fruit. He said, “Amos, what do you see?” And I said, “A basket of summer fruit.” Then the Lord said to me, “The end has come upon my people Israel; I will never again pass them by. The songs of the temple shall become wailings in that day,” says the Lord God; “the dead bodies shall be many, cast out in every place. Be silent!” Hear this, you that trample on the needy, and bring to ruin the poor of the land, saying, “When will the new moon be over so that we may sell grain; and the sabbath, so that we may offer wheat for sale? We will make the ephah small and the shekel great, and practice deceit with false balances, buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, and selling the sweepings of the wheat.” The Lord has sworn by the pride of Jacob: Surely I will never forget any of their deeds. Shall not the land tremble on this account, and everyone mourn who lives in it, and all of it rise like the Nile, and be tossed about and sink again, like the Nile of Egypt? On that day, says the Lord God, I will make the sun go down at noon, and darken the earth in broad daylight. I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; I will bring sackcloth on all loins, and baldness on every head; I will make it like the mourning for an only son, and the end of it like a bitter day. The time is surely coming, says the Lord God, when I will send a famine on the land; not a famine of bread, or a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord. They shall wander from sea to sea, and from north to east; they shall run to and fro, seeking the word of the Lord, but they shall not find it.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 52 sing the verses in bold with the cantor

Cantor You tyrant, why do you boast of | wickedness *
against the god|ly all day long?

All You plot ruin; your tongue is like a sharpened | razor, *
O worker | of deception.

You love evil more than | good *
and lying more than | speaking the truth.

You love all words that | hurt, *
O you | deceitful tongue.

Oh, that God would demolish you | utterly, *
topple you, and snatch you from your dwelling, and root you out of the land | of the living!

The righteous shall see and | tremble, *
and they shall laugh | at him, saying,

“This is the one who did not take God for a | refuge, *
but trusted in great wealth and relied | upon wickedness.”

But I am like a green olive tree in the house of | God; *
I trust in the mercy of God for e|ver and ever.

I will give you thanks for what you have | done *
and declare the goodness of your Name in the presence | of the godly.

GOSPEL VERSE AND ALLELUIAS Standing, as able. The Cantor sings the verse, which is then repeated by the congregation.

Al-le -lu -ia, al-le-lu -ia, al -le-lu-ia.

Blessed are they who have the word with a generous heart and yield a harvest through good works.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 10:38-42

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Celebrant As Jesus and his disciples went on their way, Jesus entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying. But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me." But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her."
The Gospel of the Lord.

Gifts for Hospice Chapel

The new St. Luke's Hospice House on Southwest Trafficway will be dedicated and opened this week. As a way of showing our support for the work among those living with cancer and terminal illnesses and honoring the Episcopal roots of St. Luke's, we are planning to donate some items for use in the hospice chapel. Among the things we are planning to give are vessels and linens for celebrations of Holy Communion, a lectern Bible for public reading and the gift of prayer rugs to be used by Muslims and others using the sacred space.

The chapel itself is being dedicated in memory of Marilyn McMullen, long-time member of the Cathedral. It is intended to be used by persons of all faiths. We are glad that we can be part of providing for this fitting memorial and place of spiritual refreshment.

If you would like to contribute toward the purchase of these items, please send your gift in care of Janet Sweeting, Cathedral Sacristan. Make checks out to Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, marked with "Hospice" on the memo line. Thank you for your support.

Pastoral Emergencies

In the event of an emergency requiring a priest (outside of office hours), please call the main Cathedral number (816-474-8260) and leave a voice message. Messages are checked in early mornings and evenings.

Name Tag Signups

Forget to sign up for a name tag? It's not too late. If you would like to have your own name tag to wear for Services and Cathedral functions, please call or email the office (ext. 106 or jtoma@kccathedral.org). We will have one ready for the following Sunday on the kiosk in the tower (or courtyard outside, weather permitting), organized alphabetically by last name.

Outreach Opportunities

School Supply Drive

The Cathedral Social Outreach Commission is sponsoring a school supply drive for children in foster care and attending school on campus at Saint. Luke's—Crittenton Children's Center, a residential care facility and hospital. Shopping lists of what supplies are needed can be found in the Tower. Monetary donations welcomed so we can buy gift cards to be used for purchasing school uniforms or additional school supplies. Mark "School Supplies—Crittenton" on the memo line of your check.

School Uniforms Needed (used or new)

For those of you who like to garage sale, shop at thrift stores and outlets, or have children or grandchildren that have outgrown khaki pants or navy collared shirts, please bring them to the Cathedral. James Elementary School, one of the schools we assist with the Backsnack program, is in desperate need of school uniforms to comply with the district wide dress code. Many parents in this neighborhood don't have the resources to purchase uniforms. The principal at James would welcome all donations — used or new. There is also a need for some adult sizes for the larger children. We want to present Dr. Jo Nemeth (principal at James) a variety of sizes for students who can not afford uniforms prior to the start of the 2013-2014 school year.

August 11: Bring Food for Local Pantries

Get ready for back-to-school with your donation to the pantry at St. Mary's. Please bring dry cereal, juice boxes or pouches, peanut butter, jelly, tuna, small bags of chips/snacks, dried fruit, individual cups of applesauce or other fruits, individual small boxes of raisins, non-refrigerated pudding snacks and other non-perishables (no glass containers, please) to the large basket August 11. If you want to help, but don't want to shop, please bring in grocery coupons from the Sunday newspaper.
