OUR PRIMARY MISSION as the Episcopal Cathedral church in the heart of the City is to be a servant church. We seek and serve Christ in all people, loving our neighbors as ourselves and working for justice, peace and respect for every human being.

THE TENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Collect of the Day

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Hosea 1:2-10

When the Lord first spoke through Hosea, the Lord said to Hosea, "Go, take for yourself a wife of whoredom and have children of whoredom, for the land commits great whoredom by forsaking the Lord." So he went and took Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son. And the Lord said to him, "Name him Jezreel; for in a little while I will punish the house of Jehu for the blood of Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel. On that day I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel." She conceived again and bore a daughter. Then the Lord said to him, "Name her Lo-ruhamah, for I will no longer have pity on the house of Israel or forgive them. But I will have pity on the house of Judah, and I will save them by the Lord their God; I will not save them by bow, or by sword, or by war, or by horses, or by horsemen." When she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son. Then the Lord said, "Name him Lo-ammi, for you are not my people and I am not your God." Yet the number of the people of Israel shall be like the sand of the sea, which can be neither measured nor numbered; and in the place where it was said to them, "You are not my people," it shall be said to them, "Children of the living God."

Psalm 85

- 1 You have been gracious to your land, O Lord, *
you have restored the good fortune of Jacob.
  - 2 You have forgiven the iniquity of your people *
and blotted out all their sins.
  - 1 You have withdrawn all your fury *
and turned yourself from your wrathful indignation.
  - 2 Restore us then, O God our Savior; *
let your anger depart from us.
  - 1 Will you be displeased with us for ever? *
will you prolong your anger from age to age?
  - 2 Will you not give us life again, *
that your people may rejoice in you?
  - 1 Show us your mercy, O Lord, *
and grant us your salvation.
  - 2 I will listen to what the Lord God is saying, * for he is speaking peace to his faithful people and to those who turn their hearts to him.
  - 1 Truly, his salvation is very near to those who fear him, *
that his glory may dwell in our land.
  - 2 Mercy and truth have met together; *
righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
  - 1 Truth shall spring up from the earth, *
and righteousness shall look down from heaven.
  - 2 The Lord will indeed grant prosperity, *
and our land will yield its increase.
- All Righteousness shall go before him, *
and peace shall be a pathway for his feet.*

Colossians 2:6-19

So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory. Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. But now you must get rid of all such things—anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

Luke 11:1-13

Jesus was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples." He said to them, "When you pray, say: 'Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us. And do not bring us to the time of trial.'" And he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him.' And he answers from within, 'Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.' I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs. So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish? Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!"

Gifts for Hospice Chapel

The new St. Luke's Hospice House on Southwest Trafficway will be dedicated and opened this week. As a way of showing our support for the work among those living with cancer and terminal illnesses and honoring the Episcopal roots of St. Luke's, we are planning to donate some items for use in the hospice chapel. Among the things we are planning to give are vessels and linens for celebrations of Holy Communion, a lectern Bible for public reading and the gift of prayer rugs to be used by Muslims and others using the sacred space.

The chapel itself is being dedicated in memory of Marilyn McMullen, long-time member of the Cathedral. It is intended to be used by persons of all faiths. We are glad that we can be part of providing for this fitting memorial and place of spiritual refreshment.

If you would like to contribute toward the purchase of these items, please send your gift in care of Janet Sweeting, Cathedral Sacristan. Make checks out to Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, marked with "Hospice" on the memo line. Thank you for your support.

Pastoral Emergencies

In the event of an emergency requiring a priest (outside of office hours), please call the main Cathedral number (816-474-8260) and leave a voice message. Messages are checked in early mornings and evenings.

Name Tag Signups

Forget to sign up for a name tag? It's not too late. If you would like to have your own name tag to wear for Services and Cathedral functions, please call or email the office (ext. 106 or jtoma@kccathedral.org). We will have one ready for the following Sunday on the kiosk in the tower (or courtyard outside, weather permitting), organized alphabetically by last name.

Appreciation Ice Cream Social

In appreciation of the generosity of Cathedral members, the Social Outreach Committee is hosting an ice cream social for the entire congregation after the 10:15 a.m. service August 25. The success and growth of the ministries at the Cathedral would not be possible without your generosity and time. Mark your calendars for a special treat and a time for fellowship.

Outreach Opportunities

School Supply Drive: Ends Next Sunday

The Cathedral Social Outreach Commission is sponsoring a school supply drive for children in foster care and attending school on campus at Saint. Luke's—Crittenton Children's Center, a residential care facility and hospital. Shopping lists of what supplies are needed can be found in the Tower. Monetary donations welcomed so we can buy gift cards to be used for purchasing school uniforms or additional school supplies. Mark "School Supplies—Crittenton" on the memo line of your check.

School Uniforms Needed (used or new)

For those of you who like to garage sale, shop at thrift stores and outlets, or have children or grandchildren that have outgrown khaki pants or navy collared shirts, please bring them to the Cathedral. James Elementary School, one of the schools we assist with the Backsnack program, is in desperate need of school uniforms to comply with the district wide dress code. Many parents in this neighborhood don't have the resources to purchase uniforms. The principal at James would welcome all donations — used or new. There is also a need for some adult sizes for the larger children. We want to present Dr. Jo Nemeth (principal at James) a variety of sizes for students who can not afford uniforms prior to the start of the 2013-2014 school year.

August 11: Bring Food for Local Pantries

Get ready for back-to-school with your donation to the pantry at St. Mary's. Please bring dry cereal, juice boxes or pouches, peanut butter, jelly, tuna, small bags of chips/snacks, dried fruit, individual cups of applesauce or other fruits, individual small boxes of raisins, non-refrigerated pudding snacks and other non-perishables (no glass containers, please) to the large basket August 11. If you want to help, but don't want to shop, please bring in grocery coupons from the Sunday newspaper.
