

GRACE AND HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL

The Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost • August 11, 2013

Peace to you.

Welcome to Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral!

We're glad you are worshipping with us today. Following services this morning, refreshments are available across the main entrance courtyard, in Founders' Hall.

If you are interested in learning about our ministries and formation for all ages, spiritual growth and opportunities to engage in meaningful outreach to the people of Kansas City, speak to the clergy, staff or leaders today. You may also learn more by contacting the office (816.474.8260) or visiting kccathedral.org.

May you find here by the grace of God, that which feeds your soul.

Nursery care is provided from 7:50-11:30 a.m. for infants and toddlers in the nursery in Haden Hall (from the Tower entry, go up the stairs and straight ahead to the adjoining building. Follow signs.)

Children ages 4-9 are invited for Children's Chapel in Haden Hall following the Collect of the Day. They return to their families at the Peace.

Today at the Cathedral

Nonperishable food is gathered today for St. Mary's Food Pantry in the large basket in the Tower entrance. Thank you for your contributions.

Our annual Summer Music series continues with the Fabulous Wind Music of Mozart by the Kansas City Chamber Winds, Deborah Freedman, director.
- 5 p.m. Order for Evening and Holy Eucharist: Nave

A Guide for Children

Children are invited to use A Child's Guide to the Holy Eucharist during the worship service. Readers may follow along beginning on page 3, then continue with Eucharistic Prayer A on page 17. These books are kept in the basket at the back of the nave. Children may take one from the basket before the service begins and return it there at the close of the service.

OUR PRIMARY MISSION as the Episcopal Cathedral church in the heart of the City is to be a servant church. We seek and serve Christ in all people, loving our neighbors as ourselves and working for justice, peace and respect for every human being.

THE TWELFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Collect of the Day

Grant to us, Lord, we pray, the spirit to think and do always those things that are right, that we, who cannot exist without you, may by you be enabled to live according to your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Isaiah 1:1, 10-20

The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. Hear the word of the Lord, you rulers of Sodom! Listen to the teaching of our God, you people of Gomorrah! What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices? says the Lord; I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fed beasts; I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of goats. When you come to appear before me, who asked this from your hand? Trample my courts no more; bringing offerings is futile; incense is an abomination to me. New moon and sabbath and calling of convocation—I cannot endure solemn assemblies with iniquity. Your new moons and your appointed festivals my soul hates; they have become a burden to me, I am weary of bearing them. When you stretch out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you; even though you make many prayers, I will not listen; your hands are full of blood. Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your doings from before my eyes; cease to do evil, learn to do good; seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow. Come now, let us argue it out, says the Lord: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be like snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool. If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured by the sword; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.

Psalms 50:1-8, 23-24

- 1 The Lord, the God of gods, has spoken; *
he has called the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.
- 2 Out of Zion, perfect in its beauty, ***
God reveals himself in glory.
- 1 Our God will come and will not keep silence; *
before him there is a consuming flame, and round about him a raging storm.
- 2 He calls the heavens and the earth from above ***
to witness the judgment of his people.
- 1 “Gather before me my loyal followers, *
those who have made a covenant with me and sealed it with sacrifice.”
- 2 Let the heavens declare the rightness of his cause; ***
for God himself is judge.
- 1 Hear, O my people, and I will speak: “O Israel, I will bear witness against you; *
for I am God, your God.

- 2 I do not accuse you because of your sacrifices; ***
your offerings are always before me.

- 1 Consider this well, you who forget God, *
lest I rend you and there be none to deliver you.

- 2 Whoever offers me the sacrifice of thanksgiving honors me; ***
but to those who keep in my way will I show the salvation of God.”

Hebrews 11:1-3, 8-16

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible. By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old—and Sarah herself was barren—because he considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, “as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.” All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

Luke 12:32-40

Jesus said to his disciples, “Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves. But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.”

Appreciation Ice Cream Social: August 25

In appreciation of the generosity of Cathedral members, the Social Outreach Committee is hosting an ice cream social for the entire congregation after the 10:15 a.m. service August 25. The success and growth of the ministries at the Cathedral would not be possible without your generosity and time. Mark your calendars for a special treat and a time for fellowship.

Summer Music at the Cathedrals Concerts

August 18: Summer Singers of Kansas City and members of the Kansas City Symphony. Tickets available in advance (festivalsingers.org) or at the door: $20 adults; $15 students & seniors; Under 12 free.

August 25: A French Organ Festival, at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. Admission: free will offering.

Name Tags

Baskets are available at the back of the nave and in Founders' Hall for you to return your name tag. We'll put it back on the kiosk for you. Forget to sign up for a name tag? Print your name on the sign up sheet and we will have one ready for the following Sunday on the kiosk, organized alphabetically by last name.

Change of Address

Keep in touch with Nancy Cavanaugh, who has moved to California. Her new address is 10519 Boulder Street, Nevada City, CA 95959.

Thank You for School Uniforms!

The school uniform drive for James Elementary was a huge success. Social Outreach presented James Elementary's principal Dr. Jo Nemeth a total of 417 school uniform shirts or bottoms for boys and girls. A special thanks to everyone who participated by giving money, uniforms or pieces of uniforms! Kudos to Sara Copeland, Candy McDowell and Jack Whitacre who helped make this drive exceed expectations!

Fair Trade Coffee Available in Bookstore

Haitian Fair Trade coffee is available in the Cathedral Bookstore at $10 for 12 oz. Purchase of this coffee not only provides funds for Maison de Naissance, but it helps the small coffee growers in Haiti because they get a fair price for their beans. This delicious coffee is available in whole bean, ground, regular and decaf. And if you haven't tried it iced with a splash of your favorite flavored creamer, it is highly recommended!

Today's flowers are given to the glory of God and

- in thanksgiving for Miriam Marrs — Candy & Bud McDowell
- in loving memory of Betty Phillips on her birthday — The Bowen Family
