The Liturgy of the Word

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Grant, O merciful God, that your Church, being gathered together in unity by your Holy Spirit, may show forth your power among all peoples, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People Amen.

Reading: Jeremiah 1:4-10

Lector Now the word of the Lord came to me saying, "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations." Then I said, "Ah, Lord God! Truly I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy." But the Lord said to me, "Do not say, 'I am only a boy'; for you shall go to all to whom I send you, and you shall speak whatever I command you. Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord." Then the Lord put out his hand and touched my mouth; and the Lord said to me, "Now I have put my words in your mouth. See, today I appoint you over nations and over kingdoms, to pluck up and to pull down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant."

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 71:1-6 sing the verses in bold with the cantor

Cantor In you, O Lord, have I taken | refuge; *
 let me ne|ver be ashamed.

All In your righteousness, deliver me and set me | free; ***
 incline your ear to | me and save me.
 Be my strong rock, a castle to keep me | safe; *
 you are my crag | and my stronghold.
 Deliver me, my God, from the hand of the | wicked, *
 from the clutches of the evildoer and | the oppressor.
 For you are my hope, O Lord | God, *
 my confidence | since I was young.
 I have been sustained by you ever since I was born; from my mother's womb you have been my | strength; *
 my praise shall be | always of you.

GOSPEL VERSE AND ALLELUIAS Standing, as able. The Cantor sings the verse, which is then repeated by the congregation.

Al-le -lu -ia, al-le-lu -ia, al -le-lu-ia.

I am the way, the truth and the life, says the Lord; no one comes to the Father, except through me.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 13:10-17

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Celebrant Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, "Woman, you are set free from your ailment." When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, "There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day." But the Lord answered him and said, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?" When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

 The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

MEDITATION All are seated.

OFFERTORY HYMN "This is the hour of banquet and of song" Please stand, as able.

blue Hymnal, hymn 316

1 This is the hour of ban-quet and of song;
 2 Too soon we rise; we go our sev-eral ways;
 3 Feast af-ter feast thus comes and pass-es by,
 this is the heaven-ly ta-ble spread for me;
 the feast, though not the love, is past and gone,
 yet, pass-ing, points to the glad feast a-bove, here let me feast, and feast-ing, still pro-long the the Bread and Wine con-sumed: yet all our days thou giv-ing us fore-taste of the fes-tal joy, the brief, bright hour of fel-low-ship with thee.
 still art here with us—our Shield and Sun.
 Lamb's great mar-riage feast of bliss and love.

Words: Horatius Bonar (1808–1889), alt. Music: Canticum refectiois, David McKinley Williams (1887–1978).

COMMUNION

All those desiring a relationship with Christ are invited to receive Holy Communion.

To take communion receive the bread in your hands (for gluten-free bread cross your hands palms down).

Drink the wine from the cup, or holding the bread in your hands, wait for the minister to dip the bread in the wine and place it on your tongue.

You may choose not to take the wine by crossing your hands over your chest.

For a blessing, cross your hands over your chest.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father,
 you have graciously accepted us as living members
 of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
 in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
 Send us now into the world in peace,
 and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
 with gladness and singleness of heart;
 through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSING

SENDING HYMN “How wondrous and great thy works”

blue Hymnal, hymn 533

1 How won - drous and great thy works, God of praise!
 2 To na - tions of earth thy light shall be shown;

How just, King of saints, and true are thy ways!
 their wor - ship and vows shall come to thy throne:

O who shall not fear thee, and hon - or thy Name?
 thy truth and thy judg - ments shall spread all a - broad,

Thou on - ly art ho - ly, thou on - ly su - preme.
 till earth's ev - ery peo - ple con - fess thee their God.

Words: Henry Ustick Onderdonk (1759–1858), alt.; para. The Song of the Redeemed. Music: Lyons, att. Johann Michael Haydn (1737–1806).

DISMISSAL

Celebrant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord!
 People Thanks be to God.

Centering Prayer Opportunities

Spiritual formation is writ large across the pages of Scripture ... so large, in fact, that it's often easy to miss it altogether. In C.S. Lewis's The Silver Chair, from The Chronicles of Narnia, Eustace and Jill search for a sign in a ruined city of giants, but are disheartened to find themselves wandering through a confusing maze of rock trenches without uncovering any message. The following morning, while looking out from a high window, they are astounded to see the words "UNDER ME" carved in huge letters on the stony hillside ... and they suddenly realize they had spent the previous day stumbling through the very words they had been seeking. They simply lacked the vantage point from which to read the sign.

Some of us experience the same problem when it comes to prayer. We lack the vantage point from which we pray. Faith and prayer are a journey — an experience in which we can grow beyond childlike understanding about faith and prayer into a mature understanding that prayer is interactive conversation with God and about what we and God are thinking and doing together.

The mid-twentieth-century minister and writer George Buttrick refers to prayer as "friendship with God." Author Richard Foster tells us "prayer is the key to the heart of God, the one place we truly belong."

This fall I invite you to participate in one or both of the following Centering Prayer opportunities here at the Cathedral. I would invite you to participate in this growing love relationship with God. For more information about these opportunities or to enroll contact Jerry Grabher, at jgrabher@kccathedral.org or call 816-590-6205.

Exploring and Experiencing the Naked Now: Learning to See as the Mystics See Mondays, September 16, 23, 30, October 7, 14, 7-8:30 p.m.

During our time together we will explore the lost tradition of Mystical Christianity. We will look at those forces that separate us from our deeper self. Drawing from the Gospel and the Christian contemplatives, we will discover what it means to be spiritually awake.

We will learn: (1) Why we resist change, (2) What Jesus, the first mystical leader in the West, can teach us, (3) How we can enhance spiritual awareness without sacrificing reason and (4) We will discover what it means to see as the mystic see. We will begin to live in full awareness of The Naked Now!

Transformation in Christ through Centering Prayer

Mondays, November 11, 18, 25, December 2, 9, 16, 7-9 p.m.

This six week series features Thomas Keating and Betty Sue Flowers. Through this series, Fr. Keating guides us toward an understanding of the contemplative dimension of the Gospel and its extraordinary implications and applications for personal freedom and global peace.

Anyone desiring to deepen his or her prayer life will benefit from this introduction to Centering Prayer. The format will include presentation, discussions and the opportunity to practice Centering Prayer. Through DVD interviews, Betty Sue Flowers draws out of Fr. Keating the importance of silence and contemplative practices as a means of opening the mind and heart and one's whole being to God.

As Fr. Keating states: "We are being called by God, to open to a new reality that is our True Self ... the Image and the likeness of God. This path to the True Self and all its fruits and gifts in the challenge of become fully human. And to become fully human is to become fully divine. This is the fullness of life itself, a life abiding in the grace and truth of Christ."
