

GRACE AND HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL

The Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost • September 1, 2013

Peace to you.

Welcome to Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral!

We're glad you are worshipping with us today. Following services this morning, refreshments are available across the main entrance courtyard, in Founders' Hall.

If you are interested in learning about our ministries, formation for all ages, spiritual growth and opportunities to engage in meaningful outreach to the people of Kansas City, speak to the clergy, staff or leaders today. You may also learn more by contacting the office (816.474.8260) or visiting kccathedral.org.

May you find here by the grace of God, that which feeds your soul.

Nursery care is provided from 7:50-11:30 a.m. for infants and toddlers in the nursery in Haden Hall (from the Tower entry, go up the stairs and straight ahead to the adjoining building. Follow signs.)

Children ages 4-9 are invited for Children's Chapel in Haden Hall following the Collect of the Day. Children return to their families at the Peace.

Today at the Cathedral

Bless Us in Our Working: At each service today, we present symbols of our labor and ask God's blessing on our work.

- 8 a.m. Holy Eucharist: Nave See page 3.
Hospitality follows in Founders' Hall. All are welcome!
- 9:15 a.m. Adult Bible Study: Haden Hall
Come study the Gospel reading for the day. Wes Harden facilitates; childcare is provided in the nursery.
- 10:15 a.m. Holy Eucharist: Nave See page 5.
Hospitality follows in Founders' Hall. All are welcome!
- 10:20 a.m. Children's Chapel: Haden Hall
Children gather in church. Following the Collect of the Day, children ages 4-9 and leaders go to Haden Hall for Children's Chapel. Children return at the Peace. (An adult needs to accompany children under 4 during Chapel.)
- 11:45 a.m. Family Ministry Lunch: Haden Hall
Following a light lunch, parents will talk about Family and Children's ministry for this coming year. While the adults gather, the children (four and older) will participate in a craft. The nursery will be staffed for our littlest members.
- 5 p.m. Order for Evening and Holy Eucharist: Nave

OUR PRIMARY MISSION as the Episcopal Cathedral church in the heart of the City is to be a servant church. We seek and serve Christ in all people, loving our neighbors as ourselves and working for justice, peace and respect for every human being.

THE FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Collect of the Day

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: Graft in our hearts the love of your Name; increase in us true religion; nourish us with all goodness; and bring forth in us the fruit of good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

Jeremiah 2:4-13

Hear the word of the Lord, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel. Thus says the Lord: What wrong did your ancestors find in me that they went far from me, and went after worthless things, and became worthless themselves? They did not say, "Where is the Lord who brought us up from the land of Egypt, who led us in the wilderness, in a land of deserts and pits, in a land of drought and deep darkness, in a land that no one passes through, where no one lives?" I brought you into a plentiful land to eat its fruits and its good things. But when you entered you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination. The priests did not say, "Where is the Lord?" Those who handle the law did not know me; the rulers transgressed against me; the prophets prophesied by Baal, and went after things that do not profit. Therefore once more I accuse you, says the Lord, and I accuse your children's children. Cross to the coasts of Cyprus and look, send to Kedar and examine with care; see if there has ever been such a thing. Has a nation changed its gods, even though they are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for something that does not profit. Be appalled, O heavens, at this, be shocked, be utterly desolate, says the Lord, for my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living water, and dug out cisterns for themselves, cracked cisterns that can hold no water.

Psalms 81:1, 10-16

- 1 Sing with joy to God our strength *
and raise a loud shout to the God of Jacob.
- 2 I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and said, ***
"Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it."
- 1 And yet my people did not hear my voice, *
and Israel would not obey me.
- 2 So I gave them over to the stubbornness of their hearts, ***
to follow their own devices.
- 1 Oh, that my people would listen to me! *
that Israel would walk in my ways!
- 2 I should soon subdue their enemies ***
and turn my hand against their foes.
- 1 Those who hate the Lord would cringe before him, *
and their punishment would last for ever.
- 2 But Israel would I feed with the finest wheat ***
and satisfy him with honey from the rock.

Hebrews 13:1-8, 15-16

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. Let marriage be held in honor by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, "I will never leave you or forsake you." So we can say with confidence, "The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can anyone do to me?" Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

Luke 14:1, 7-14

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely. When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable. "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, 'Give this person your place,' and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher'; then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted. He said also to the one who had invited him, "When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

COMMUNION

The congregation presents symbols of their labor as they come forward for communion. The symbols are placed on the tables at the chancel steps. You may retrieve your symbols following the service today.

All those desiring a relationship with Christ are invited to come forward for Holy Communion or for a blessing. To take communion, receive the bread in your hands (for gluten-free bread cross your hands palms down). Drink the wine from the cup, or holding the bread in your hands, wait for the minister to dip the bread in the wine and place it onto your tongue. You may choose not to take the wine by crossing your hands over your chest. For a blessing, cross your hands over your chest.

Prayer for healing is offered at the prayer desk during the administration of Communion until the close of worship.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER Please stand, as able.

OFFERTORY “Man born to toil”

Gustav Holst

Man, born to toil, in his labour rejoiceth; His voice is heard in the morn: He armeth his hand and sallieth forth to engage with the generous teeming earth, And drinks from the rocky rills the laughter of life. Life is toil, and life is good: There in loving brotherhood beareth the nation's heart of fire. Strife! Strife! The strife is strong! There battle thought and voice, and spirits conspire in joyous dance around the tree of life, and from the ringing choir riseth the praise of God from hearts in tuneful song. Gird on thy sword, O man, thy strength endure, In fair desire thine earthborn joy renew: Live thou thy life beneath the making sun till Beauty, Truth and Love in thee are one. Thro' thousand ages hath thy childhood run: On timeless ruin hath thy glory been: From the forgotten night of loves fordone Thou risest in the dawn of hopes unseen. Higher and higher shall thy thoughts aspire, unto the stars of heaven and pass away, and earth renew the buds of thy desire in fleeting blooms of everlasting day. Thy work with beauty crown, thy life with love; Thy mind with truth uplift to God above: For whom all is, from whom all was begun in whom all Beauty, Truth and Love are one.

Words by Robert Bridges, Poet Laureate of Great Britain, 1913-1930.

BLESSING OF OUR LABOR

Celebrant Almighty God, you have so linked our lives one with another that all we do affects, for good or ill, all other lives: So guide us in the work we do, that we may do it not for self alone, but for the common good; and, as we seek a proper return for our own labor, make us mindful of the rightful aspirations of other workers, and arouse our concern for those who are out of work; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People Amen.

The musical score is written on five staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (Bb). The melody is simple and hymn-like. The lyrics are: "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est." The score includes rests and phrasing slurs to indicate the musical structure.

Anthem: "How clear is our Vocation, Lord"

arranger unknown

How clear is our vocation, Lord, when first we heed Your call;
To live according to Your word, and daily learn, refreshed, restored
That You are Lord of all, and will not let us fall.
We marvel how Your saints become in hindrances more sure;
Whose joyful virtues put to shame the casual way we wear your name,
and by our thoughts obscure Your power to cleanse and cure.
But if, forgetful, we should find Your cross is hard to bear,
If worldly pressures fray the mind, and love itself cannot unwind its tangled skein of care, our inward life repair.
In what You give us, Lord, to do, together or alone,
In old routines and ventures new, May we not cease to look to You,
the cross You hung upon, All You endeavoured, Done.

So says the writer of the volume of Wisdom literature called

Proverbs. What about your congregation? Do they have a vision of their church in today's world and into the future? Perhaps they are just beginning the process of defining what the Holy Spirit has in mind for them to do, or perhaps you have already completed "Ripe For the Harvest" and are unsure of how to proceed. This session will give you a taste of the possibilities for your congregation in having a 5 hour workshop on Visioning to draw from the history of the congregation, look at it's present day environment, and develop a vision for the future.

role of elders is that ageing is more a process of spiritual growth through a lifetime of experiences containing the people, events, and life lessons yielding abundant harvests of wisdom.

Living Compass for Parents & Living Compass for Teens -

Holly will describe the uses of Living Compass for Parents and/or Teens. This is an opportunity to hear how the program might work in your congregation and get your questions addressed.

Your Congregation has a Heart, a Soul, a Mind, Great Strength and a Voice!
Presented by: The Rev. Dr. Steven Rottgers

Yes, it's true! Your Congregation has a heart, a soul, a mind, great strength and yes, a voice! The bigger and most important question is, "As a Leader, are you aware of that and can you hear the voice?!" Let's sit and explore just how that can be accomplished and understood! It really is not that hard if you know where to look and take the time to know how to listen to what your congregation is telling you. Come join me for an hour to explore!

Christian Formation in Small Churches: 10 Success Stories Presented by: Kat Mercer
How do you make Christian Formation work in small congregations? You start with an expansive definition of formation and a clear idea of what constitutes success. Come hear about 10 formation tactics that will bring good results with small and large groups.

Ageing Wisely
Presented by The Rev Robert E. Wood
Drawing on the insights of the groundbreaking text, From Ageing to Sage-ing by Rabbi Zallmon Schacter-Shalomi, this workshop challenges a prevailing culturally imposed stereotype about elders, that ageing is primarily a process of physical decline, diminishment, and loss. In contrast, the authentic value and

Ministry Fair: Cathedral Windows

September 8 • Following ALL services, in Founders' Hall
Look in the windows and see the ministries of the Cathedral at our annual ministry fair Sunday, September 8. Following both morning services, representatives of Cathedral ministries will be available to talk with you about their ministry and how you can be involved.

Exploring and Experiencing the Naked Now:

Learning to See as the Mystics See

Mondays, September 16, 23, 30,

October 7, 14, 7-8:30 p.m. • Common Room

During our time together we will explore the lost tradition of Mystical Christianity. We will look at those forces that separate us from our deeper self. Drawing from the Gospel and the Christian contemplatives, we will discover what it means to be spiritually awake.

We will learn: (1) Why we resist change, (2) What Jesus, the first mystical leader in the West, can teach us, (3) How we can enhance spiritual awareness without sacrificing reason and (4) We will discover what it means to see as the mystic see. We will begin to live in full awareness of The Naked Now!

Bake? Find peace in ironing?

Help is needed for two of our special ministries. The Bread Guild and the Altar Guild – Linen Zen are seeking volunteers. Do you bake bread? Would you like to? The Bread Guild is looking for a few bakers to fill out our roster in the preparation of Eucharistic Bread. The Altar Guild is seeking help with Eucharistic and Fair Linens. If doing laundry and Ironing is a meditative experience for you then this is a ministry for you. Linen Zen is taking care of these very special linens on a rotation with others who appreciate the significance of these items.

Please contact Janet Sweeting in the Cathedral office at ext. 144 or jsweeting@kccathedral.org. If you would like to volunteer or want more information on either of these ministries.

Name Tags

Baskets are available at the back of the nave and in Founders' Hall for you to return your name tag. We'll put it back on the kiosk for you. Forget to sign up for a name tag? Print your name on the sign up sheet in the tower and we will have one ready for the following Sunday on the kiosk, organized alphabetically by last name.

Outreach Opportunities

September 8: Bring Food for Local Pantries

Help the pantry at St. Mary's get ready for cooler fall weather with your September donation. Please bring canned soup, chili, stew and pastas, canned tomatoes, dry pasta, protein bars, peanut butter, boxed dinners and other non-perishables (no glass containers, please) to the large basket September 8. If you want to help, but don't want to shop, please bring in grocery coupons from the Sunday newspaper.

Donate Diapers for Children in Need

An estimated 15,000+ children in the Kansas City area aren't receiving the diapers they need. But we're striving to help — and we hope you'll join us. HappyBottoms is a local organization that works with partners to provide diapers to low-income families. We are collecting diapers during September for HappyBottoms. We accept all sizes (even open packs). Bring your diaper donations to the blue barrel in the cross hall or to the basket in the Tower.
