Anticipation

A Two-Edged Sword

We have been living in a state of flux here at the Cathedral for the past three years. First there was Dean Peter DeVeau's stroke and the resulting anxiety as we waited to see how he would recover. Then, with the arrival of Interim Dean Evelyn Hornaday, we went through all the necessary steps (some of them painful) to begin the process of calling a new dean. In short, we have been in a constant state of anticipation for quite some time.

Anticipation is a two-edged sword, in my opinion. If whatever we are waiting for is perceived to be positive, the anticipation can be wonderful. The following quote sums that thought up nicely.

"Well," said Pooh, "what I like best," and then he had to stop and think. Because although Eating Honey was a very good thing to do, there was a moment just before you began to eat it which was better than when you were, but he didn't know what it was called."

~ A. A. Milne, Winnie-the-Pooh

However, if the outcome for which we are waiting is thought to be negative, the anticipation can be downright torturous.

"Anticipating pain was like enduring it twice. Why not anticipate pleasure instead?"

~ Robin Hobb, Renegade's Magic

Thankfully, we have control over how we choose to perceive the changes we are anticipating. I know that change is sometimes frightening, but with just a little shift in one's attitude, change can become exhilarating.

So while we are waiting for our new dean to be called, just remember that perception is everything. Why not choose to focus on the positive?

A Spirit of Anticipation

Anticipation is excitement, ever-growing, moving our hearts forward while we wait for what is yet to be. Anticipation weaves its way throughout Scripture; Noah and Moses were filled with anticipation as they obeyed God's call. Anticipation propels us to look to God and to place our hope and trust in God's goodness. Anticipation is an important part of life.

What are you anticipating that brings you joy—

- a change of seasons?
- a new movie coming out?
- the birth of a child?
- watching a favorite sports team?
- going off to college?
- a vacation?

As writer John Green puts it, "The pleasure is not in doing the thing; the pleasure is in planning it," (from Paper Towns). My husband, Larry, could certainly relate to that. He delights in vacation planning. For him, planning the trip is at least as gratifying as the trip itself.

Whatever it might be that you are anticipating, do you wonder what it will be like? When Larry and I were going through the process to adopt our two daughters from China, we were filled with anticipation. They were happy times filled with hope and wonder, with deep longings seeking to be fulfilled, and maybe a tiny bit of anxiety. We spent time preparing. We completed mounds of paperwork required by governments and agencies, we decorated rooms, purchased clothes and toys, packed and re-packed, for a trip of a lifetime. When we received their photos for the first time, we studied every inch of their little faces.

You may remember the old Heinz ketchup commercial from 1978, in which Carly Simon sings the song, "Anticipation," while ketchup slowly hangs in mid-air. We hear the tag line, "The taste is worth the wait." Anticipation involves waiting; may it be a joyful waiting.

"Anticipation involves waiting; may it be a joyful waiting."

There's an air of growing anticipation around the Cathedral these days as we continue our search for a new dean, and as we look forward to the beginning of a new chapter in our Cathedral life together. As we anticipate, we prepare and make ready; we continue to move forward. Anticipation is faith in motion. It's empowered by the Holy Spirit. May we have that spirit of anticipation and may we always look to God, "who is always able to accomplish more than we can ask or imagine." (Eph. 3:20).

—Christy Dorn

As we anticipate the selection and arrival of a new dean, please keep everyone involved in your prayers.

Dean Search Prayer

Almighty God, giver of every good gift: Look graciously on your Church, and so guide the minds of those who shall choose a dean for this Cathedral, that we may receive a faithful pastor, who will care for your people and equip us for our ministries; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Continuing to Wonder: Godly Play at GHTC

This August Children's Ministry leaders Vern Barnet, Aaron Dutton, Lisa Thomas and Julie Brogno attended an 18-hour Godly Play Core Training hosted by GHTC. Participants discussed the guiding principles of Godly Play, told stories and listened to stories, and learned from one another.

At the end of Godly Play stories, children are asked to think about the story with wondering questions like: I wonder what part of the story you like best? I wonder where you are in this story? I wonder if you have ever come close to anything in this story? Children naturally wonder wherever they are, so this is not a new concept to them, but it is a key moment during a Godly Play session.

According to Jerome Berryman in Teaching Godly Play, wondering "opens the creative process and draws both the lesson and the child's life experience into the personal creation of meaning." Wondering allows children the space to make meaning of the Biblical stories they hear rather than being told what they should think. This allows them to "create meaning with the Christian language system" and find personal theological meaning rather than simply memorizing concepts or others' ideas (Berryman, 42-46).

This fall, a second Godly Play room has been opened, so more children are able to wonder with us during the 10:15 a.m. worship service! We now have one room for preschoolers and kindergarteners and one for first and second graders. Fortunately, the Cathedral already owned some extra Godly Play materials, so we were able to partially outfit an additional room without much expense. Children in the first and second grade room will be able to move up through Godly Play's spiral curriculum which includes the core stories that they have already worked with in addition to extension stories, which expand on the core stories. For example, the older children will hear the story of The Exodus and then will learn more about Moses through an extension story just about him.

"Wondering opens the creative process and draws both the lesson and the child's life experience into the personal creation of meaning."

How can you help us as we wonder? Consider volunteering your time to lead chapel or Godly Play sessions. Or make a financial contribution to our ministry. Please contact me if you'd like to learn more at childrensformation@kccathedral.org.

Celebrating Summer, Welcoming Fall

Why Summer Matters—A look back on Summer 2019

A lot of us, myself included, thrive on the full calendar, schedule of activities and routine that come with the new school year. However, the freedom and creativity of the summer months often offer us a lot of room to grow. This past summer with our youth was spiritual, rewarding and wholly life changing. Take a quick look back through the 2019 youth ministry summer!

Camp WeMO

Incoming sixth grade through newly graduated youth from the entire Diocese gathered together at Camp Wakonda for a jam packed week of prayer, exploration and community. Our newest youth to the community were embraced and we sent off our graduates with love. Camp is one of the greatest expressions of the youth community gathered together! During camp we are blessed to be visited by clergy throughout the diocese to learn and expand our horizons. Camp also affords opportunities to participate in new and exciting activities like ziplining, archery and exploratory nature expeditions. This first event of the summer set the tone for all we had yet to experience together.

Happening #78

This year, the youth leadership of the Diocese made the decision to transition Happening to the summer. We had our first summer Happening this year with great success! This spiritual retreat for and by high school youth provides a safe space for everyone involved to grow, connect and to just be. The Cathedral youth showed up in force, making up the majority of the youth staff team for this event. We are excited for the next happening, which will be co-led by our own Caroline Bennett!

Pilgrimage

Just a few short days after the conclusion of Happening, youth and adult leaders loaded up vans and started the trek to Glacier National Park. The purpose of Diocesan Youth Pilgrimages is to allow youth the opportunity to connect more deeply to their faith. Pilgrimages are offered every three years, alternating focus between cities (the start of the church in America) and nature (typically National Parks). This year's creation-centric trip allowed everyone involved to deeply reflect on our natural environment and our place in it. Through hikes (so many super long hikes!), worship and reflections at the campsite, and communing together in creation, we were all able to find stillness.

MissionPalooza

As one of the most longstanding events in our Diocesan Youth Ministry Program, MissionPalooza goes back to one of most basic callings, serving others. This full week-long event held in urban Kansas City had youth fanned across the metro performing acts of services at a wide range of organizations. Our youth worked on projects ranging from painting to cooking and serving meals to manual labor at Habitat to cleaning and caring for animals at local shelters. Many of the organizations that we partnered with during this week reported back that the work completed tackled their to-do lists for months to come!

As summer wrapped up and we move into fall, what do we take away? How do we hold on to the joy, calm and peace that is often found in summer months and activities as we move into fall? I hope that all of us take the lessons and positive experiences we had this summer (be it in the youth ministry setting or otherwise!) and use them to power us through the fall and winter! If you're interested in more photos from this summer, check out @ghtcyouth on Instagram.

Coming Up for Fall

The fall program year is well underway! We have many opportunities for youth to grow formationally, gather in fellowship and connect with the larger church.

The main gathering for youth in grades 6–12 is Wednesday Night Youth Group! All 6th–12th graders are invited to the Haden Hall youth room each week at 6:45 p.m. for fellowship. We move into dinner and program at 7 p.m. Each meeting concludes with worship and is wrapped up by 8:30 p.m. We hope you'll join us this semester as we learn about the beauty of liturgy and all of the amazing things the Book of Common Prayer has to offer!

Senior High youth (9th–12th grade) are also encouraged to stop by the youth room on Sunday mornings before church for an intimate, lectionary-based Senior High Bible Study.

GHTC Youth Ministries is also closely connected with Regional Youth Ministry and Diocesan Youth Ministry. Make sure you have the following events and activities on your calendars:

Wednesday Youth Group—Every Wednesday from 6:45–8:30 p.m. in the Youth Room

October 12–13—Regional Ministry Corn Maze and Lock-In (at Good Shepherd)

October 25–26—Diocesan Youth Event at GHTC (concurrent with Diocesan Convention)

December 14—Regional Ministry Advent Outreach

Make sure that you are staying up to date with @ghtcyouth on Instagram! If you would like to receive weekly youth ministry updates, please email youthformation@kccathedral.org to be added to the distribution list.

Welcome Back, Katie!

The GHTC Youth Ministry team is thrilled to welcome back Katie Mansfield as our Youth Ministry intern for the 2019–2020 school year. Katie is a Junior at UMKC studying Psychology. Katie came to us from Grace Church Carthage after being an active member of the WeMO youth community herself. Having Katie as a part of our leadership team is a true joy; she brings a passion for our youth and their formation that we are so blessed to have.

Make sure to say hi to Katie when you see her around the Cathedral and welcome her back to our community!

—Alexandra Connors

Other Activities

Yoga Recap

This past summer we invited our neighbors onto the Cathedral grounds and expanded our boundaries by offering a once a month outdoor Yoga class. Thank you to everyone that came out to engage in yoga practice and expose the Cathedral to our downtown neighbors. Be looking for more opportunities to engage with our neighborhood this fall!

Post-High School Connection

Connection to the church doesn't just end when you graduate high school! We want to keep up with our community members as they take on new endeavors after high school. If you are interested in periodic gatherings during school breaks, a regular check-in and resources on how to stay connected, please send an email to youthformation@kccathedral.org to be added to our group!

What It Means to Be A SERVANT CHURCH IN THE HEART OF THE CITY

Volunteer Recognition

Ric Sweeting

Outreach Ministries wants to recognize Ric Sweeting as an outstanding volunteer. Ric is a Eucharistic minister at the 10:15 a.m. service and an active member of the Building and Grounds Committee. Ric has recently taken over the gardening committee at the Cathedral, and the gardens are being enjoyed and admired by everyone in the congregation. Gerry Reynaud would be honored that Ric is continuing his legacy of maintaining the Cathedral grounds. Ric has volunteered with other members of the Building and Grounds Committee to remove old fencing by the dumpsters, make a cover for the back of the fountain, get dead trees removed and he has been instrumental in doing research with the city to improve the sidewalks bordering the Cathedral on 14th Street. Ric is also a very active and valued member of the BackSnack team and takes on extra deliveries to help out whenever needed. When Ric is not at the Cathedral, he is often volunteering at the Kansas City Community Kitchen or the World War I Museum. Please congratulate Ric Sweeting for his dedication and generosity in maintaining the gardens around the Cathedral, offering his time and talents to the building and grounds committee, being a dedicated volunteer to the BackSnack team and being a community volunteer.

And We're Off!

A new choir year is off and running for the Grace and Holy Trinity Children's Choir and we'll be racing to get ready for our first musical contribution in worship October 27. Anticipating a new choir year is exciting as I search and explore many pieces of music that are just right for our children and for our liturgy.

Our theme for the year is kindness, so each week we'll be thinking about kind things we do both during choir rehearsals and during the week.

As the Director of Children's Music at GHTC, I am guided by the words from Ephesians 4:12—to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ. These are the goals for the Children's Music Ministry:

- To help cultivate life-long worship habits.
- To develop talents and give instruction in proper vocal technique.
- To introduce and develop music fundamentals.

- To develop an understanding and appreciation for The Hymnal 1982.
- To teach biblical texts and teachings through music.
- To prepare our young members for leadership roles in our liturgies.

New members are always welcome! Children in grades 1–5 can join at any time. I'm grateful for any help in recruiting members for this important ministry. Rehearsals are Sundays from 9:15–10 a.m. in Haden Hall. Contact me at childrensmusic@kccathedral.org with any questions.

Adult Forum Jesus and the Gospels

Sundays, through December 22
9:15–10 a.m. • Haden Hall Purple
Door Room

The figure of Jesus has tantalized both Christians and non-Christians who have sought definitive answers to questions about his words, his acts and even his very existence. For most of the last 2,000 years, the search for those answers has begun with the Gospels, but the Gospels themselves raise puzzling questions about both Jesus and the religious movement within which these narratives were produced. They also provide sometimes bewilderingly diverse images of Jesus. To “Love is so powerful that it makes everything one.”

— The Cloud of Unknowing

The Cloud of Unknowing offers unique guidance for anyone who desires intimate contact with God. As you will learn, the Master synthesizes ancient mystical insight with the vivid understanding of human nature. You will explore how the down-to-earth voice of this great Teacher resonates with our own postmodern spiritual search. Indeed, as you read his letter of guidance to contemplatives, you will uncover an uncannily contemporary and universal message.

In these conferences, you will explore the sources of what has come to be known as “centering prayer.” You will discover its roots in the Desert Fathers and Mothers, emergent contemplatives who labored to “put on the mind and heart of Christ.” You will trace the unfolding of the sacred science of spiritual transformation through its earliest pioneers to its ongoing development in our day. In learning the practice of “dark” contemplation, you will come to sense the ineffable mystery and hiddenness.

This journey will draw you closer to life with God through the healing peace of “unknowing.” Let the wisdom of this timeless work guide your spiritual life today.

presentations in support of the Episcopal Church’s ministry of welcome, education and advocacy for refugees, immigrants and asylum seekers. The topics will include a history of immigration in the United States from the early 20th century to the present, the role the Episcopal Church has had and continues to have in this process, an exploration of the pathways to protection in the U.S., and specific ways we can join Episcopal Migration

Ministries as Partners in Welcome. We’ll focus on prayer, learning and engaging in our government and communities to support and welcome our new neighbors. Please contact Brenda Richardson, brenda.richardson1959@gmail.com, for more details.

Women’s Bible Study
Luke for Everyone
Tuesdays

12:30–1:30 p.m. • Common Room

Women’s Bible Study meets for an hour or so on Tuesdays at 12:30 p.m. in the Common Room. At the beginning of each session, members of the group read a passage from the current selected book or study guide and then see where the spirit takes them. Discussions are lively, thought-provoking, and often irreverent. All are welcome. If you have the inclination, but not the book—come anyway and someone will share!

Congruent with Lectionary Year C, The Women’s Bible Study group is using Luke for Everyone by the Right Reverend N. T. Wright, Bishop of Durham (Church of England) as the inspiration for its weekly discussion. The book is available in the Cathedral Bookstore.

Treasurer's Report

	2019 YTD	2018 YTD
YTD
Income	$1,243,939	$1,355,583
Expenses	$1,163,428	$1,316,120
	-----	-----
Net Total	$80,511	$39,463

Plate and pledge income continues to lag budget expectations contributing to an overall income shortfall YTD. Lower than expected expenses have helped considerably with notable savings in our Property account. Increased participation in group fundraising like event parking has produced very positive returns in our User Fee account. Thanks to the generosity of the David T. Beals III Trust fund, our stained glass windows have been professionally restored and we have remaining funds to put aside for future upkeep.

Please remember that the needs of our Cathedral community and those in our Kansas City community that we serve do not take a break. It is your continuing generosity that sustains and helps to expand our vital outreach efforts. Please be mindful of our mission and the needs of others.

November 10 • 11:45 a.m.

Our next Readers Book Club Meeting is Sunday, November 10 in the Founders' Hall Multipurpose Room. We will discuss Little Fires Everywhere, written by Celeste Ng. Copies of the book can be purchased from any bookseller.

For those of you who like to plan ahead, the book that has been chosen for January is Us Against You by Fredrik Backman. It is his second book about an imaginary town in the Swedish forests, following Beartown. While it is not necessary to read both books and in sequence, ambitious readers might wish to do this.

If you're a movie buff, you won't want to miss our Movie Nights. We'll meet downstairs in the Founders' Hall Cathedral Café for a potluck dinner (please bring a dish to share) and movie, followed by discussion.

The movie for October is Focus. In the waning months of World War II, a man and his wife are mistakenly identified as Jews by their anti-Semitic Brooklyn neighbors. Suddenly the victims of religious and racial persecution, they find themselves aligned with a local Jewish immigrant in a struggle for dignity and survival. Rated PG-13, made in 2002.

The movie for November is The Help. It recounts the story of young white woman and aspiring journalist Eugenia "Skeeter" Phelan. In an attempt to become a legitimate journalist and writer, Skeeter decides to write a book from the point of view of the maids, exposing the racism they are faced with as they work for white families in 1963 Jackson, Mississippi. Rated PG-13, made in 2011.

In December, we'll be watching The Bishop's Wife. This film tells of an angel in human form who enters the life of a bishop in order to help him build a new cathedral and repair his fractured marriage. Made in 1947.

We hope you'll join us!

All Saints' Sunday

November 3
Book of Remembrance

We gather names and add them to a book started in 2007. It is a lasting memorial of "those we love but see no longer." The book is displayed in the Cathedral on All Saints' Sunday. The names will also be listed in the bulletin. During the liturgy, there is a time when lectors read aloud the names of those who have died in the past 12 months, followed by a time when all present say aloud names of those they would like remembered.

Forms for submitting the names of those who have died within the past year will be available at services beginning October 6. You can place these in the offering plate or in the basket on the ushers' table. Names can also be emailed to communications@kccathedral.org. The deadline for submitting names is Tuesday, October 29. The names of all those who have died within the past year will be included in a visual display in the Nave.

Altar Guild

Preparing the Eucharistic feast. Laundering linens. Polishing silver. These are just a few of the activities of the devoted members of the Altar Guild. The Altar Guild is responsible for the preparation of the altar for the celebration of the Eucharist and other sacraments that occur at the Cathedral. It is a “behind the scenes” ministry that many Cathedral members do not see but is essential to every church service. Altar Guild workdays, which are scheduled twice a year, are a time for the members to share fellowship and clean, polish, buff and shine the Nave and chancel, Eucharistic silver, candlesticks and many other items. We are grateful to the wonderful members who serve this ministry.

If you would like more information about the altar guild or would like to visit the working sacristy, please contact Kristy Moore at sacristan@kccathedral.org.

Special Showing and Presentation on The Saint John's Bible

Kansas City Public Library and Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral co-presented a Saint John's Bible event at the downtown Kansas City Central Library Wednesday, September 8. All seven of the Cathedral's Saint John's Bible volumes were displayed while Tim Ternes of the Hill Museum and Manuscript Library at Minnesota's Saint John's University (home to The Saint John's Bible), explained the making of the magnificent 1,150-page manuscript—one of a very few completely handwritten and illuminated Bibles produced since the invention of the printing press. The venue was packed with attendees who were mesmerized by the process of making this masterpiece on calfskin vellum and using turkey, goose and swan quills with natural inks, hand-ground pigments and gold and silver leaf gild.

Cathedral docents spent several hours in training with Tim Ternes. This in-depth training will equip our docents to share the volumes with interested groups in our community and our own GHTC family.
