Newcomers and visitors, welcome! We are a servant church in the heart of the city. May you find here, by God’s grace, that which feeds your soul, and leave here with a heart prepared to serve.
Morning Prayer

SERVICE NOTES: Page numbers listed are from The Book of Common Prayer. Hymn numbers are from The Hymnal 1982, unless otherwise noted.

Voluntary: “Prélude” César Franck

Hymn #472: “Hope of the world, thou Christ of great compassion”

Opening Sentence

Officiant Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
Confession and Absolution

Officiant    Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
People      Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Officiant    Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Invitatory and Psalter

Officiant    Lord open our lips.
People      And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.
All         Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia.

Antiphon

All         Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: Come let us adore him.

Jubilate

Psalm 100

All         Be joyful in the Lord, all you lands; *
            serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.

            Know this: The Lord himself is God; *
            he himself has made us, and we are his;
            we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

            Enter his gates with thanksgiving;
go into his courts with praise; *
give thanks to him and call upon his Name.

            For the Lord is good;
his mercy is everlasting; *
            and his faithfulness endures from age to age.

Antiphon

All         Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: Come let us adore him.
Psalm 17:1–7,16, sung by the choir

Hear my plea of innocence, O Lord;
give heed to my cry; *
listen to my prayer, which does not come from lying lips.

Let my vindication come forth from your presence; *
let your eyes be fixed on justice.

Weigh my heart, summon me by night, *
melt me down; you will find no impurity in me.

I give no offense with my mouth as others do; *
I have heeded the words of your lips.

My footsteps hold fast to the ways of your law; *
in your paths my feet shall not stumble.

I call upon you, O God, for you will answer me; *
incline your ear to me and hear my words.

Show me your marvelous loving-kindness, *
O Savior of those who take refuge at your right hand from those who rise up against them.

But at my vindication I shall see your face; *
when I awake, I shall be satisfied, beholding your likeness.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Lessons

Genesis 32:22–31

Reader  The same night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob’s hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, “Let me go, for the day is breaking.” But Jacob said, “I will not let you go, unless you bless me.” So he said to him, “What is your name?” And he said, “Jacob.” Then the man said, “You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed.” Then Jacob asked him, “Please tell me your name.” But he said, “Why is it that you ask my name?” And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, “For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved.” The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip.

The Word of the Lord.

People  Thanks be to God.
Canticle 16

All
Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; *
he has come to his people and set them free.

He has raised up for us a mighty savior, *
born of the house of his servant David.

Through his holy prophets he promised of old,
that he would save us from our enemies, *
from the hands of all who hate us.

He promised to show mercy to our fathers * and to remember his holy covenant.

This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham, *
to set us free from the hands of our enemies,

Free to worship him without fear, *
holy and righteous in his sight
all the days of our life.

You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, *
for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way,

To give his people knowledge of salvation *
by the forgiveness of their sins.

In the tender compassion of our God *
the dawn from on high shall break upon us,

To shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, *
and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Matthew 14:13–21

Reader
Jesus withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, “This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.” Jesus said to them, “They need not go away; you give them something to eat.” They replied, “We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish.” And he said, “Bring them here to me.” Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Homily
All  You are God: we praise you;
You are the Lord: we acclaim you;
You are the eternal Father:
All creation worships you.
To you all angels, all the powers of heaven,
Cherubim and Seraphim, sing in endless praise:
   Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
   heaven and earth are full of your glory.
The glorious company of apostles praise you.
The noble fellowship of prophets praise you.
The white-robed army of martyrs praise you.
Throughout the world the holy Church acclaims you;
   Father, of majesty unbounded,
   your true and only Son, worthy of all worship,
   and the Holy Spirit, advocate and guide.
You, Christ, are the king of glory,
the eternal Son of the Father.
When you became man to set us free
you did not shun the Virgin’s womb.
You overcame the sting of death and opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
You are seated at God’s right hand in glory.
We believe that you will come and be our judge.
   Come then, Lord, and help your people,
bought with the price of your own blood,
   and bring us with your saints to glory everlasting.

The Apostles’ Creed

All  I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
   He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
   He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
   He descended to the dead.
   On the third day he rose again.
   He ascended into heaven,
   and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
   He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
   the holy catholic Church,
   the communion of saints,
   the forgiveness of sins,
   the resurrection of the body,
   and the life everlasting. Amen.
The Prayers

Officiant  The Lord be with you.
People   And also with you.
Officiant  Let us pray.
All       Our Father, who art in heaven,
             hallowed be thy Name,
             thy kingdom come,
             thy will be done,
             on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Suffrages

Officiant  Show us your mercy, O Lord;
People   And grant us your salvation.
Officiant  Clothe your ministers with righteousness;
People   Let your people sing with joy.
Officiant  Give peace, O Lord, in all the world;
People   For only in you can we live in safety.
Officiant  Lord, keep this nation under your care;
People   And guide us in the way of justice and truth.
Officiant  Let your way be known upon earth;
People   Your saving health among all nations.
Officiant  Let not the needy, O Lord, be forgotten;
People   Nor the hope of the poor be taken away.
Officiant  Create in us clean hearts, O God;
People   And sustain us with your Holy Spirit.

Collects

Officiant  Let us pray.
Let your continual mercy, O Lord, cleanse and defend your Church; and, because it cannot continue in safety without your help, protect and govern it always by your goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

O God, you make us glad with the weekly remembrance of the glorious resurrection of your Son our Lord: Give us this day such blessing through our worship of you, that the week to come may be spent in your favor; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
Lord Jesus Christ, you stretched out your arms of love on the hard wood of the cross that everyone might come within the reach of your saving embrace: So clothe us in your Spirit that we, reaching forth our hands in love, may bring those who do not know you to the knowledge and love of you; for the honor of your Name. Amen.

ANTHEM: “Panis Angelicus”

Panis angelicus fit panis hominum;
Dat panis caelicus figuris terminum:
O res mirabilis: manducat Dominum
Pauper, servus et humilis.

César Franck

The bread of the angels becomes the bread of mortals;
the bread of heaven puts an end to prefigurations.
O wondrous thing!
the poor, the slave and the humble feed on their Lord.

—Text: Thomas Aquinas

INTERCESSIONS AND THANKSGIVINGS

Lector   Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
People   That we all may be one.
Lector   Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
People   That your Name may be glorified by all people.
Lector   We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
People   That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.
Lector   We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
People   That there may be justice and peace on the earth.
Lector   Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People   That our works may find favor in your sight.
Lector   Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People   That they may be delivered from their distress.
Lector   Give to the departed eternal rest;
People   Let light perpetual shine upon them.
Lector   We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People   May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.
Lector   Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

The People may add their own petitions.

Concluding Collect

All   God of all power and love, we give thanks for your unfailing presence and the hope you provide in times of uncertainty and loss. Send your Holy Spirit to enkindle in us your holy fire. Revive us to live as Christ’s body in the world; a people who pray, worship, learn, break bread, share life, heal neighbors, bear good news, seek justice, rest and grow in the Spirit. Wherever and however we gather, unite us in common prayer and send us in common mission; that we and the whole creation might be restored and renewed, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Announcements
Celebration Prayer

All O God, our times are in your hand: Look with favor, we pray, on your servant(s) as they begin another year. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

General Thanksgiving

All Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you humble thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all whom you have made. We bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we pray, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to your service, and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory throughout all ages. Amen.

Dismissal

Officiant Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.
The Grace

Officiant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Social Outreach

School Supply Drive—Last Call!

We are now collecting school supplies for the children at Crittenton, both in residence and foster care. Click here for a list of the supplies needed.

The last parking lot drop-off day is Tuesday, August 4, 10 a.m.–2 p.m.

Bring your donations to the Cathedral parking lot during this time for a safe opportunity to drop off the supplies. For more information, contact Terri Curran.

Onesie Drive

The 2020 Onesie Drive for Maison de Naissance (MN) will be during the month of August. If the Cathedral is open, the collection place will be a table in the Tower. If not, a time and location for dropping off donations will be announced.

In MN’s fifteen years of operation with more than 6,000 healthy deliveries and over 95,000 family planning consultations, MN has empowered entire communities of women across the region it serves. The generosity of members of our Cathedral Parish is deeply appreciated, especially by the staff and moms at MN who receive these gifts.
