* Collect of the Day

Presider The Lord be with you.
People  And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted by Satan: Come quickly to help us who are assaulted by many temptations; and, as you know the weaknesses of each of us, let each one find you mighty to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lessons

First Lesson: Deuteronomy 26:1-11
Lector When you have come into the land that the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the Lord your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the Lord your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, “Today I declare to the Lord your God that I have come into the land that the Lord swore to our ancestors to give us.” When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the Lord your God, you shall make this response before the Lord your God: “A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labor on us, we cried to the Lord, the God of our ancestors; the Lord heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O Lord, have given me. You shall set it down before the Lord your God and bow down before the Lord your God. Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the Lord your God has given to you and to your house.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 91:1-2, 9-16

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High,*
abides under the shadow of the Almighty.

He shall say to the Lord, “You are my refuge and my stronghold,*
my God in whom I put my trust.”

Because you have made the Lord your refuge,*
and the Most High your habitation,

There shall no evil happen to you,*
neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.

For he shall give his angels charge over you,*
to keep you in all your ways.

They shall bear you in their hands,*
lest you dash your foot against a stone.

You shall tread upon the lion and adder;*
you shall trample the young lion and the serpent under your feet.

Because he is bound to me in love, therefore will I deliver him;*
I will protect him, because he knows my Name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him;*
I am with him in trouble; I will rescue him and bring him to honor.

With long life will I satisfy him,*
and show him my salvation.

Second Lesson: Romans 10:8b-13

“The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart” (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, “No one who believes in him will be put to shame.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.
* Gradual Verse

"Man shall not live by bread alone,* but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God."

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller After his baptism, Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread." Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'"

Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, "To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours." Jesus answered him, "It is written, ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.’"

Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written, ‘He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,’ and ‘On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.’"

Jesus answered him, "It is said, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’" When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

March 6, 2022 – Lent 1 (C)
Week 1: Life Transformed – The Way of Love in Lent

The journey through Lent into Easter is a journey with Jesus. We are baptized into his life, self-giving, and death; then, we rise in hope to life transformed. This Lent, communities are invited to walk with Jesus in his Way of Love and into the experience of transformed life. Together, we will reflect anew on the loving actions of God as recounted in the Easter Vigil readings. Together, we will walk through the depths of salvation history into the fullness of redemption. Throughout Lent, come along with us as we explore Life Transformed: The Way of Love in Lent, produced by Hillary Raining and Jenifer Gamber. Sundays • 9:15 a.m.

JOURNEY THROUGH THE NEW TESTAMENT
Founders’ Hall Multipurpose Room

Join Canon Ryan on a journey through the Scriptures of the Early Church, from Matthew to Revelation. Using videos (from bibleproject.com), brief lessons and interactive discussion, we will tackle one section of the New Testament for each of the six Sundays of Lent. With a special focus on the Jewishness of the early Christian Scriptures, we will endeavor to gain a clearer picture of who Jesus was and is, and by extension, what it means to “be the Church.”

Sabbath Keeping
(Common Room)—Dean Andy will lead the discussion based on James Clear’s book Atomic Habits: An Easy and Proven Way to Build Good Habits and Break Bad Ones. Lent is a perfect time to think about our habits, both individually and corporately. How do we express our faith together as a community? How do we foster relationships of trust and care? How do we team up to reach the world around us? We have lots of ambitions, and even some specific goals when it comes to these things. But to quote author James Clear, “We don’t rise to the level of our goals, we sink to the level of our systems.” So perhaps we should spend less time defining goals, and more time building and refining the systems that help us reach them. The objective is to take a closer look at our individual and corporate habits. In the power of the Spirit, we can come out the other side of Lent with better systems and stronger habits, to be the kind of disciples Jesus always wanted.

Formation for children and youth will be offered from 6:30–7:40 p.m. each Wednesday. The evening will end with everyone coming together for Compline. Our format will be hybrid, available both in person and online. (For Zoom info: kccathedral.org/lent)

The Children's and Youth Departments will be doing a combined Lenten practice on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m. starting March 9 and ending April 6. During our time together we will explore the last words of Jesus through Taizé music, scripture reading and meditative art. This Lenten series will introduce our young people to contemplative practices that will orient us toward the cross and prepare us for the celebration of Easter.

If you would like more information, please reach out to Brittany at childrensformation@kccathedral.org or Clare at cstern@kccathedral.org.
