Opening Acclamation

Presider  Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People    And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Presider  There is one Body and one Spirit;
People    There is one hope in God’s call to us;

People    One God and Father of all.

Collect of the Day

Presider  The Lord be with you.
People    And also with you.
Presider  Let us pray.

Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lessons

First Lesson: Genesis 11:1–9

Lector  Now the whole earth had one language and the same words. And as they migrated from the east, they came upon a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. And they said to one another, “Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly.” And they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar. Then they said, “Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves; otherwise we shall be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.” The Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which mortals had built. And the Lord said, “Look, they are one people, and they have all one language; and this is only the beginning of what they will do; nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them. Come, let us go down, and confuse their language there, so that they will not understand one another’s speech.” So the Lord scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city. Therefore it was called Babel, because there the Lord confused the language of all the earth; and from there the Lord scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

The Word of the Lord.

People    Thanks be to God.

Psalm 104:25–35, 37 sung by the choir; chant by Kellow J. Pye

O Lord, how manifold are your works! *
in wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.
Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, *
creatures both small and great.
There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan, *
which you have made for the sport of it.
All of them look to you *
to give them their food in due season.
You give it to them; they gather it; *
you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.
You hide your face, and they are terrified; *
you take away their breath, and they die and return to their dust.
You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; *
and so you renew the face of the earth.
May the glory of the Lord endure for ever; *
may the Lord rejoice in all his works.
He looks at the earth and it trembles; *
he touches the mountains and they smoke.
I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; *
I will praise my God while I have my being.
May these words of mine please him; *
I will rejoice in the Lord.
Bless the Lord, O my soul. *
Hallelujah!

Second Lesson: Acts 2:1–21

Lector When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

‘In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.
Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.
And I will show portents in the heaven above
and signs on the earth below,
blood, and fire, and smoky mist.
The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,
before the coming of the Lord’s great and glorious day.
Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’ "

People Thanks be to God.
The Holy Gospel: John 14:8–17, 25–27

Gospeller  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller  Philip said to Jesus, “Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.” Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father?’ Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.
“If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.”

“I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.”

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Presider Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People I will, with God’s help.

Presider Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

People I will, with God’s help.
Prayers for the Candidate

Presider
Let us now pray for this person who is to receive the Sacrament of new birth.

Leader
Deliver him, O Lord, from the way of sin and death.

People
Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader
Open his heart to your grace and truth.

People
Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader
Fill him with your holy and life-giving Spirit.

People
Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader
Keep him in the faith and communion of your holy Church.

People
Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader
Teach him to love others in the power of the Spirit.

People
Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader
Send him into the world in witness to your love.

People
Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader
Bring him to the fullness of your peace and glory.

People
Lord, hear our prayer.

Presider
Grant, O Lord, that all who are baptized into the death of Jesus Christ your Son may live in the power of his resurrection and look for him to come again in glory; who lives and reigns now and for ever. Amen.

Thanksgiving over the Water

Presider
The Lord be with you.

People
And also with you.

Presider
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider
We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that we may be affirmed and strengthened in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever.

People
Amen.

The Baptism

Presider
Let us pray. Heavenly Father, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon this your servant the forgiveness of sin, and have raised him to the new life of grace. Sustain him, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit. Give him an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works. Amen.
The Priest places a hand on the person’s head, marking on the forehead the sign of the cross using Chrism oil.

Let us welcome the newly baptized.

People: We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in his eternal priesthood.

* Prayers of the People, Form III

Leader: Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
People: That we all may be one.

Leader: Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
People: That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Leader: We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
People: That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.
Leader: We pray especially for Michael, our Presiding Bishop; Diane, our Bishop Provisional; Andy, our Dean; Ryan, our canon; and Jerry, our Deacon Emeritus.

Leader: We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
People: That there may be justice and peace on the earth.
Leader: We pray especially for Joe, our President; Mike, our Governor; Quinton, our Mayor; and all mayors and city councils.

Leader: Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People: That our works may find favor in your sight.

Leader: Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People: That they may be delivered from their distress.

Leader: Give to the departed eternal rest.
People: Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Leader: We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People: May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Leader: Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

Silence

* The Peace

Presider: The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People: And also with you.

Parents with children in Cathedral Kids are invited to meet their child at the Tower door.

Announcements
Celebration Prayer

All O God, our times are in your hand: Look with favor, we pray, on your servant(s) as they begin another year. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Sentence

Presider Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Ephesians 5:2

Offertory Anthem: “Listen, sweet Dove”

Listen sweet Dove unto my song
And spread thy golden wings in me;
Hatching my tender heart so long
Till it get wing, and fly away with thee.

Such glorious gifts thou didst bestow
That the earth did like a heaven appear,
The starres were coming down to know
If they might mend their wages, and serve here.

The sunne which once did shine alone,
Hung down his head and wisht for night,
When he beheld twelve sunnes for one
Going about the world, and giving light.

Lord, though we change, thou art the same;
The same sweet God of love and light:
Restore this day, for thy great name,
Unto his ancient and miraculous right.

* The Great Thanksgiving, Eucharistic Prayer A

S120: The Holy Eucharist II, Lift up your hearts: Surtsum corda

Presider It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Presider

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Presider

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.
Presider
And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All
Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

Presider
The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Communion

All are welcome to receive communion or a blessing.
Intinction of wafers is offered, if desired. For gluten-free bread, cross your hands palms down.
For a blessing, cross your hands over your chest.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving. I remember your death, Lord Christ; I proclaim your resurrection; I await your coming in glory. Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

* POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Presider Let us pray.

People Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.

Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

* BLESSING

Presider May the Spirit of truth lead you into all truth, giving you grace to confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, and to proclaim the wonderful works of God; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

June 5, 2022 – Day of Pentecost (C)

Pentecost

Today we mark Pentecost, the coming of the Holy Spirit among the apostles and followers of Jesus. Celebrated 50 days after Easter (including the day of Easter itself), the name of the holiday comes from the Greek Pentēkostē, which literally means “the 50th day.”

The events of the day are foretold by Jesus in the first chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, just before his Ascension. While his followers were with the risen Christ, he tells them, “John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now” (Acts 1:5, NRSV). He goes on to say to them, “You will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth” (Acts 1:8).

The followers would not wait long for the promised Spirit. The author of Acts, traditionally believed to be Luke, recounts:

“When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each” (Acts 2:1-6).

We celebrate Pentecost as the inauguration of the Church’s mission in the world. Empowered by the gift of the Holy Spirit, we are to go out into our neighborhoods and the wider world—to Jerusalem, to Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth—witnessing to the risen Christ.

The Day of Pentecost is identified by the Book of Common Prayer as one of the feast days “especially appropriate” for baptism (Book of Common Prayer, p. 312). Because of this, Pentecost is also known as “Whitsun” or “Whitsunday” (“White Sunday”), a term used to describe the white baptismal garments worn by those who were baptized at the Vigil of Pentecost and then worn to church on the Day of Pentecost.

Collect for Pentecost

Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen (Book of Common Prayer, p. 227).
Downtown Neighborhood Association Meeting

Tuesday, June 7 • 6:30 p.m.

Come meet your Fourth District Councilpersons Eric Bunch and Katheryn Shields (Tentative) as they discuss the issues facing downtown KCMO. The discussion will begin at 6:30 p.m. followed by time for questions and answers. You are also welcome to attend DNA’s brief monthly board meeting at 6 p.m. Get more details at dnakcmo.org.

KC PrideFest

Saturday, June 11

The Cathedral will be joining with other KC-area Episcopal churches to have a booth at KC PrideFest this year. The parade and fair will take place on Saturday, June 11. We would like some volunteers to help work the booth and others to join in walking in the parade. If you are interested, please contact Dean Andy at akeyse@kccathedral.org. More information can be found at stpaulskcmo.org, or on the next page of this bulletin.

Open Call for Directory Photos

We are looking for photo submissions for our new directory cover, as well as some photos of the campus and various events. Help us make our new photo directory vibrant and colorful! Submit photos to communications@kccathedral.org by June 10.

Diaper Drive

The second diaper drive of 2022 will be scheduled during the month of June. These diapers are donated to HappyBottoms, the local diaper bank of Kansas City that gives out diapers to 60 area social service agency cites. If you are able to donate diapers during this drive, the agency is in need of larger sizes of diapers, specifically size 4, 5 and 6.

Photo Directory

We’re getting ready to publish a new photo directory. Having a photo directory will help us all put faces and names together! We want every person to be included!

PHOTO DATES:
Sunday, June 12, 9-10:20 a.m.; 11:45 a.m.-2 p.m.

Sign up to get your photo taken at signupgenius.com/go/20FoC4A4A82EA0F85-photo.
You may also log in to Realm and upload your own photo. Contact Janet Sweeting, jsweeting@kccathedral.org, if you have questions about accessing your Realm account.

Coffee with the Canon

Let’s get to know each other! Canon Ryan would like to buy you a beverage at the establishment of your choice, to chat about serious stuff, trivial stuff, religious stuff or personal stuff. Book a time at kccathedral.org/canon.
Who
Episcopal Churches from across the KC Metro, Missouri & Kansas. Festival Booth Volunteer Sign-up is at signupgenius.com/go/4090F4FA4A729A6F85-pridefest.

When/ Where
Parade starts in Westport Saturday, June 11, lining-up at 10 a.m. Exact location tbd the Tuesday before and will be shared here. For now, just look for the Episcopal flags! Ends at the Pride Festival in Theis park. Bring $5 entry fee if you plan on attending the festival. Information about the full weekend celebration can be found at kcpridealliance.org/pride-2022.

Parking: You may park at St. Paul’s and walk the 5 blocks to Westport for the line-up, or you may park anywhere you can find along the beginning of the route.

The rest of this is just common sense but might be helpful reminders and/or for newbies.

Bring: Banners: Can be your parish banner, Episcopal banners, something special and loving made just for the parade (see Pride Parade Prep meeting below) etc. Even a thurible if you’re feeling it.
Water: For your marchers. Pulling a wagon with a cooler is a good idea (marchers need hands to wave and carry banners.)
Swag: Parade organizers say that if you wish to toss/hand-out items along the route that’s fine. Use common sense about throwing things towards people. Budget for about 600 pieces. Anything that doesn’t get thrown can be left in the booth at the festival for the booth volunteers to figure out when/how/whether to distribute from there. If you are planning to bring lots of items, please consider also bringing a wagon to pull for transport. A small car will be in our entry, and it might be able to help carry a little of your overage, but not a lot.
Strollers/Wheelchairs: For those who might be able to walk some, but not all, of the route.
Patience: It’s our first time, and there will be unforeseen road bumps, and miscommunications.
Pets: You may bring animals. All must be leashed, and cleaned-up after.
Music: It would be grand of someone has a portable and very loud boom box or speaker or something we could march along with.

Parade Prep Get-Together: Wednesday, June 8 at 6 p.m., St. Paul’s Garden Room. We need to affix labels to 1100 bits of swag, paint signs and get creative. Bring foam board, banners, paint, glitter, glue & beverages of your choice. We’ll order pizza around 6:30.

Wear: Suggestion not required: Solid brightly colored shirts! A great visual is when everyone is wearing solid-colors from the pride flag- t-shirts. A moving rainbow down the street. Of course, not everyone can do that, but those who can should consider it. Also worship leaders may consider collars and/or colorful stoles. Any fun rainbow accessories and colorful umbrellas (for decoration and sun protection) also encouraged.
Comfortable shoes: It’s almost 2 miles downhill to the park, which is fun and goes really fast. But keep in mind - unless you tandem with a buddy to park a car at the end of the route to drive you back, you’ll be walking around the festival for a bit, then 2 miles back uphill to your car in the heat of the day. Be prepared.
A Grace Filled Face: It can be fun, and it can be challenging. Too many people are living with trauma induced by organized religion, and some might let us know that as we pass by. Also, there will be organized... not religion... people yelling ugly things at them in the fringes. We will focus on love, not fear.

Adults

Learning to Pray • Sundays • 9:15 a.m. • Haden Hall Purple Room • In person

Deacon Emeritus Jerry will be leading a class using Learning to Pray: A Guide for Everyone by James Martin, SJ. From Amazon: Learning to Pray explains what prayer is, what to expect from praying, how to do it, and how it can transform us when we make it a regular practice in our lives. Please register with Jerry, j.grabher3@gmail.com, if interested.

What to Expect at General Convention • Sundays, June 5–19 • 9:15 a.m. • Common Room • Hybrid

Please join Dean Andy and our Lay Deputy and second alternate Lay Deputy, Curtis Hamilton and Christine Morrison, as we discuss what will come before the General Convention this July in Baltimore.

GHTC’s Digital Cafe • Tuesdays • 7:30 a.m.

Please join us for our weekly conversation in GHTC’s Digital Cafe! Tuesday mornings from 7:30–9 a.m. For details, visit kccathedral.org/other-activities.

Women’s Bible Study • Tuesdays • 12:30 p.m.

WBS is currently exploring Adam Hamilton’s The Call: The Life and Message of the Apostle Paul. In The Call we’ll “follow the journeys of Paul, beginning with his dramatic conversion, as he spread the Gospel through modern-day Greece and Turkey. Travel to the early church sites and explore Paul’s conversations with the Romans, Corinthians, Galatians, Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians and Thessalonians. In this six-week study, you are invited to experience faith through Christ’s greatest teacher and missionary.” Visit the WBS page, kccathedral.org/adultformation/wbs for more information.

Lectionary Bible Study • Tuesday, June 7 • 6:45 p.m.

Readings: First Sunday after Pentecost: Trinity Sunday, Year C

Join the Lectionary Bible Study group in Realm or visit the LBS page, kccathedral.org/adultformation/lbs for more details.

Pledging for 2022

Thank you to all who have made a pledge for 2022. We appreciate your support of Grace & Holy Trinity Cathedral!

If you haven't made a pledge for 2022, we encourage you to consider the gifts you have been given as you prayerfully consider making a pledge of financial support to the Cathedral for 2022. You can make your financial commitment by returning a pledge card to the Cathedral or by making your pledge online through the Cathedral’s website.

With grateful hearts, let us:

- Return: ourselves, our minds, our bodies to the love of Christ as we do good work through the ministries of the Cathedral.
- Rekindle: our hearts, our minds and our commitment to love and serve our neighbors in this community and beyond and, who, as the Cathedral family, will continue to respect the dignity of every human being.
- Rejoice: in the gifts that we have been given — our lives, our families and friends, and most importantly in the salvation that has been lovingly given to us by our Redeemer.
Children

Children’s Formation
Sundays • 9:15 a.m.
Cathedral Kids • 10:30 a.m.

Children are invited into a time of dynamic storytelling that communicates the story of the people of God and the liturgy of the church. Children’s Choir is on hiatus for the summer.

Following Formation, the kids will transition into Cathedral Kids. Cathedral Kids is during the first half of the 10:30 a.m. worship service. Children attending Cathedral Kids will meet their parents or guardians inside the Tower doors during the passing of the peace. Questions? Contact Brittany, childrensformation@kccathedral.org.

Youth

Youth Formation
Sundays • 9:15 a.m.

Sundays, 9:15 a.m.—Join us for formation in the Youth Room Sunday mornings.

Wednesday Youth Group gatherings are on hiatus until fall.
