Bless the LORD, O my soul, *
and all that is within me, bless his holy Name.
Bless the LORD, O my soul, *
and forget not all his benefits.
He forgives all your sins *
and heals all your infirmities;
He redeems your life from the grave *
and crowns you with mercy and loving-kindness;
He satisfies you with good things, *
and your youth is renewed like an eagle's.
The LORD executes righteousness *
and judgment for all who are oppressed.
He made his ways known to Moses * and his works to the children of Israel.
The LORD is full of compassion and mercy, *
slow to anger and of great kindness.
He will not always accuse us, *
nor will he keep his anger for ever.
He has not dealt with us according to our sins, *
nor rewarded us according to our wickedness.
For as the heavens are high above the earth, *
so is his mercy great upon those who fear him.
As far as the east is from the west, *
so far has he removed our sins from us.
As a father cares for his children, *
so does the LORD care for those who fear him.
For he himself knows whereof we are made; *
he remembers that we are but dust.
Our days are like the grass; *
we flourish like a flower of the field;
When the wind goes over it, it is gone, *
and its place shall know it no more.
But the merciful goodness of the LORD endures for ever on those who fear him, *
and his righteousness on children's children;
On those who keep his covenant *
and remember his commandments and do them.
The LORD has set his throne in heaven, *
and his kingship has dominion over all.
Bless the LORD, you angels of his, you mighty ones who do his bidding, *
and hearken to the voice of his word.
Bless the LORD, all you his hosts, *
you ministers of his who do his will.
Bless the LORD, all you works of his, in all places of his dominion; *
bless the LORD, O my soul.

LESSON: Galatians 2:1-10 (KJV)

Lector Then fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.
And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.
But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:
And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:
To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.
But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me:
But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter; (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)
And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.
Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do.
The Word of the Lord.

* MAGNIFICAT

Magnificat in F

Harold Friedell

My soul doth magnify the Lord,
and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me,
and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him
throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things,
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel, as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

LESSON: Mark 7:31–37 (KJV)

Lector And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue;

 And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

 And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

 The Word of the Lord.

* NUNC DIMITTIS Nunc Dimittis in F Harold Friedell

 Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace,
 according to thy word;

 For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,
 which thou hast prepared before the face of all people,
 To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

 Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; *
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

* APOSTLES' CREED chanted on a monotone

All I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
 who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried.
 He descended into hell.
 The third day he rose again from the dead.
 He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty.
 From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and the life everlasting. Amen.

VESTRY NOMINEES

Four (4) candidates will be elected to the Vestry Class of 2027. Those elected will serve three-year terms, through the Annual Meeting in 2027. Candidates for Vestry must be regular at worship and giving members of record.

Requirements to vote are that you must be a confirmed member of the Episcopal Church age 16 or older, be known to the Treasurer as having given money of some sort in the last six months, known to the Rector to have been in attendance in the past six months, and have received Communion at least three times over the course of the previous year.

Patricia Decker

Greeter, Vestry, Holy Hands, Church School, Youth Group, Bell Choir

Member of the Cathedral for 42 years

My areas of interest and giftedness: Buildings and Grounds interest me because it is essential to keep our campus up to date. Having an appealing setting attracts attention to the church. The church property is a valuable asset.

My experience in leadership: Working with Holy Hands I found how important it is to participate every time you are scheduled. Cleaning and clearing the tables is also important.

My vision for GHTC: Growth. Participating in the community is essential. If we cannot start a new community project joining another group is a step forward.

Favorite liturgical season: Easter. It starts spring and shows us that there is a new life in Christ.

Nigel Jones

Over the past year and a half I have been consistent in my attendance at GHTC with my primary contribution being to serve as an Usher usually serving on Sundays at 10:30 AM, at the monthly 5:00 PM Evensong services, and at special services such as on Christmas Eve.

Member of the Cathedral since August 2022

My areas of interest and giftedness: As a retired architect it would be appropriate for me to serve on the Buildings and Grounds Committee. When I was a Professor of Architecture and the University Architect at Oklahoma State University, I oversaw over $1.5 Billion in construction — new build, renovation and remodel - across several campuses. I was also worked very closely with the Grounds department especially for new projects and renovations. I have recently advised Bishop Diane regarding roof leaks at the Diocesan Offices and St. Philips Episcopal Church, Joplin.

My work also meant I needed to be very conversant with budgets and financing of projects and I could maybe assist in those areas.

My experience in leadership: As University Architect I led an office of some thirty people and on the various projects I was essentially the lead person at all stages working with project architects, consultants and contractors. I worked very closely with the OSU Board of Regents, The President, Deans, Faculty, Staff and Students. When teaching I taught several History of Architecture courses, including English and French Gothic, and Architectural Design. My other responsibility at the School of Architecture was Advisor – I graduated nearly 500 students and keep in touch with many of them. It was required that I contribute time to the university and sat on several committees and advisory boards.

I am currently serving on the Advisory Board for the Doel Reed Art Center in Taos, New Mexico; the Board of Directors for the Wornall-Majors House Museums in Kansas City; and the HOA Board of Directors for One Park Place/BMA Tower also in Kansas City.

My vision for GHTC: Grace & Holy Trinity Cathedral is a beautiful church and the whole campus is a wonderful asset not only for the Diocese but for Kansas City; it needs to be promoted to make it a destination and venue. Bringing more people to the Cathedral could grow and rejuvenate the congregation, something that is vitally important for future viability.

Also needed for future viability is fund raising to build endowments to support the many aspects of Cathedral governance, maintenance and outreach. A vigorous campaign to increase giving and investigate planned estate bequests and charitable remainder trusts is a possible path for endowment growth.

The music we so enjoy at the Cathedral is one of our strengths, that could be built on to reach out to the community making the Cathedral, the Nave and Founders' Hall known throughout the region.

Favorite liturgical season: As the phases of the moon, the seasons of Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter or the calendar of weeks and months mark the passage of the year, so the Liturgical Seasons mark the passing of the Christian year. Beginning with Advent, passing through the splendid and joyous celebration of Christmas to the contemplation of Easter the year waxes and wanes from birth to death – and to Resurrection. It is Easter that is the most meaningful and my favorite.

Steve Moore

I am currently the Chancellor for the Cathedral. In that role, I serve as the legal advisor to the Dean, the Vestry and all committees. Prior to that, I served as Junior Warden under Dr. David Rice, Sr. Warden. I have also chaired the Stewardship Committee for a number of years and served on the Vestry.

Going back further, shortly after Kristy and I joined the Cathedral, we worked with other young couples to staff the Cathedral nursery. Later on, I began teaching Sunday School and leading the Youth Group. I have also served as an usher for many years.

Member of the Cathedral for 30 years

My areas of interest and giftedness: I have a passion for Stewardship and would like to mentor others to become leaders of that committee. I am also interested in the Finance committee.

My experience in leadership: In addition to my leadership roles at the Cathedral, I have served as the General Counsel, CFO and managing partner of my law firm. In those roles, I have developed extensive experience in dealing with HR issues, developing and implementing business plans and identifying ways of reducing expenses and increasing revenues.

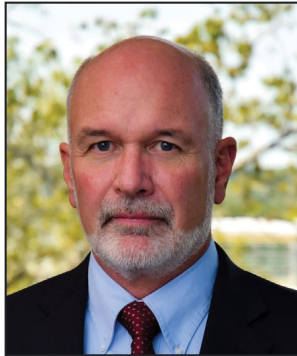

My vision for GHTC: (1) increasing new membership and nurturing our current membership; (2) Successful implementation of our Strategic Plan, and (3) As the Cathedral church of the Diocese of West Missouri, GHTC should serve as an example to all other churches in our diocese regarding ministries, operations and growth.

Favorite liturgical season: My favorite liturgical season is Lent. We use this special time for self-examination, penitence and giving, following Jesus' 40 days in the wilderness.

Lent is my favorite liturgical season because it allows me time to reflect on my life, my actions and my faith. Lent reminds me of all the ways I am imperfect and how much we need God's redemptive love.

Lent concludes with Holy Week, where we begin by walking with Jesus in his triumphant entry into Jerusalem, only to witness his crucifixion a few days later and then rejoice in his resurrection on Easter.

Ultimately, the Lenten season reminds us that no matter how much we may fail at life, we still have a God who loves us unconditionally and gives us eternal life.

Charles Shipley

Choir Member, Acolyte, Eucharistic Minister, Thurifer

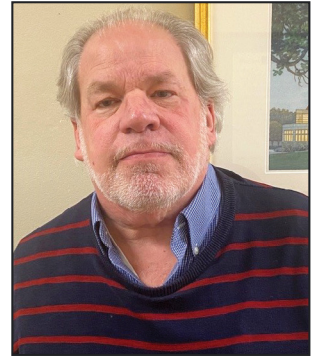

Member of the Cathedral for 2 years now and from 1974-1984

My areas of interest and giftedness: I'm most interested in Buildings & Grounds, due to long experience with church operations and love for the Cathedral buildings. Also, anything with staff, music, liturgy and volunteers.

My experience in leadership: I have served as a paid staff member for two cathedrals and one parish church. I have supervised Altar Guild and liturgical ministries, flower guilds, gardeners, congregational clean up days — all while maintaining an active prayer life and participation in a congregation.

My vision for GHTC: Sharing our treasure. First, the treasure of our tradition and facilities, but much more the treasure of our faith as the means to be part of the change we so need in the world.

Favorite liturgical season: Epiphany. The word means "manifestation," and this season shows Christ, in human form, coming to us, living with us and beginning his ministry among us.

A service of Choral Evensong is offered by the Trinity Choir. This contemplative service includes hymns, scripture readings, prayers, chanted Psalms, canticles and a choir anthem. - Be ready to celebrate some of our amazing ministries, as well as honoring outgoing and electing new Vestry members.

Diaper Drive during January

Because of your support, HappyBottoms, the KC metro area's diaper bank, is able to provide thousands of children each month with clean diapers. Since diapers are not covered by safety-net programs, your donations of diaper packages (including already opened packs) help cover the gap and enable families to have at least a few clean diapers on hand every day. During the month of January, please bring your diapers to the blue bin in the Cathedral entryway.
