* PENITENTIAL ORDER

page 351

Presider Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins;
People His mercy endures for ever.

The Celebrant will add one of the sentences from page 351-352.

CONFESSION OF SIN please kneel, as able

page 352

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

People Amen.

Presider Kyrie eleison. (Lord, have mercy.)

People Christe eleison. (Christ, have mercy.)

Presider Kyrie eleison. (Lord, have mercy.)

The Word of God

* COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

THE LESSONS

First Lesson: Isaiah 43:16-21

Lector Thus says the Lord, who makes a way in the sea,
 a path in the mighty waters,
who brings out chariot and horse,
 army and warrior;
they lie down, they cannot rise,
 they are extinguished, quenched like a wick:
Do not remember the former things,
 or consider the things of old.
I am about to do a new thing;
 now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?
I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.
The wild animals will honor me,
 the jackals and the ostriches;
for I give water in the wilderness,
 rivers in the desert,
to give drink to my chosen people,
 the people whom I formed for myself
so that they might declare my praise.
The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, *
then were we like those who dream.
 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, *
and our tongue with shouts of joy.
 Then they said among the nations, *
“The Lord has done great things for them.”
 The Lord has done great things for us, *
and we are glad indeed.
 Restore our fortunes, O Lord, *
like the watercourses of the Negev.
 Those who sowed with tears *
will reap with songs of joy.
 Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed, *
will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

Second Lesson: Philippians 3:4b-14

Lector If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.

Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

* THE HOLY GOSPEL: John 12:1-8

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?" (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

* THE NICENE CREED

page 358

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Presider Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Presider

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Here a Proper Preface is sung or said on all Sundays, and on other occasions as appointed.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

All

Presider

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Presider

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.

Presider

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
 and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Serving Today

Presider & Preacher	The Very Rev. Dr. Andrew C. Keyse
Lector & Eucharistic Minister	Janel Mosley
Healing Minister	Patti Ryder
Organist	Dr. Lucas Fletcher

Palm Sunday, April 13

8 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 5 p.m.

We recall Jesus' entry into Jerusalem with the blessing of palms and a procession, followed by the story of Christ's Passion and death. The 10:30 service begins with a procession through the courtyard.

Monday & Wednesday in Holy Week, April 14 & 16

Holy Eucharist • 12:05 p.m.

Tuesday in Holy Week, April 15

Blessing of Oils & Renewal of Vows • 11 a.m.

We will celebrate Holy Eucharist and the service will feature the renewal of baptismal and ordination vows, and the blessing of Holy Oils.

Maundy Thursday, April 17

7 p.m.

We remember Jesus' last meal with his disciples, which was the first Eucharist. We remember Christ's eternal promise to sustain his followers in a sacred meal, and we wash each other's feet as a sign of service and love. We witness the stripping of the altar.

Good Friday, April 18

9 a.m.

We remember Jesus' death with the Good Friday Liturgy and communion from the Reserved Sacrament on the Altar of Repose.

12:05 p.m.

This service includes the chanting of the Passion, choral and instrumental music, customary prayers and veneration of the cross of Christ.

5:30 p.m.

Interactive Intergenerational Stations of the Cross: The stations will immerse you in the biblical account of the last days and hours of Jesus' life, in a way that is appropriate for all ages.

Holy Saturday, April 19

9 a.m.

A brief and simple liturgy recalls the mournful desolation of the lifeless Christ in the tomb.

Easter Vigil, April 19

7 p.m.

Together, we reflect anew on the loving actions of God as recounted in the Easter Vigil readings. Together, we will walk through the depths of salvation history into the fullness of redemption. The service begins by lighting the new fire. We will witness the confirmation, reception and reaffirmation of persons in the Cathedral congregation. We then proclaim with joy "Alleluia. Christ is risen" and celebrate the first Eucharist of Easter. We will continue the celebration at a reception following the service.

Easter Day, April 20

8 & 10:30 a.m.

We celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus at each of our identical Easter morning celebrations. Both services include hymns, choral music, brass and a Cathedral resplendent with flowers. We will continue the celebration at a reception following each service.

Following the 10:30 a.m. service, all children are invited for our annual Easter Day egg hunt.

Outreach Volunteer Opportunities

The Emergency Food Assistance Program

In partnership with St. Paul's on Main, we have been invited to help organize and distribute food as part of TEFAP (The Emergency Food Assistance Program). We meet from about 9:30 a.m. to noon.

St. Paul's receives delivery of several pallets of shelf-stable and frozen food from Harvesters each month. Friendly volunteers are needed to break down the pallets and repackage the food into family-sized boxes and bags. Then we open the doors to those in need and start handing out the food.

Upcoming TEFAP dates:

March 15

April 19

To volunteer or for more information, contact Deacon Barbara 816.739.8032 or bwegener@kccathedral.org.

Pete's Garden

In the lower level of Founders' Hall, Pete's Garden is a food rescue committed to less food waste and more family meals. They collect unserved prepared food from caterers, restaurants and food service operations each day.

Pete's Garden meals are distributed through social service agencies that serve children and their families. Most of the families who receive Pete's Garden meals are headed by single women in low paying jobs, living below federal poverty guidelines.

Volunteers work together to portion and package donated food so it can be redirected to social service agencies who get meals to families.

Volunteers are the heart and soul of NourishKC. Every meal served, every pantry stocked, and every food item redistributed is made possible because of the time, energy, and dedication of our volunteers. Your support ensures that we can continue providing nutritious meals, offering essential pantry staples, and building a hunger-free community.

By volunteering with us, you become part of a compassionate movement that transforms lives—one meal at a time. Whether it's lending a hand in our Community Kitchen, assisting with pantry distribution, or helping with events, your contribution makes a lasting impact.

Today's Focal St. John's Bible Illumination

Fifth Sunday in Lent – Divine Extravagance

John 12:1-8 text (Utilizing the Luke, “Dinner at the Pharisee’s House” Illumination)

God’s abundant love and forgiveness tends to disrupt the orderly and predictable lifestyles that dominant social orders commonly prefer. Today’s illumination provides a powerful portrayal of this reality. It depicts the extravagance of a woman who anoints Jesus with a perfume worth a year’s wages, an event included in each of the four gospels with some variation. John locates the event prior to Jesus’ Triumphal Entry. Mark places it on Wednesday of Holy Week. Matthew and Mark identify her simply as “a woman” and Luke labels her as “a sinful woman.” John records her as Mary, sister of Martha and Lazarus. Whatever the details might be, this narrative of extravagance may seem disruptive to traditional views on Lenten self-denial (which is perhaps more in line with Jesus’ disciples line of thinking about almsgiving on this occasion).

Jesus often was criticized by the religious establishment of his day for fraternizing too freely with sinners. Today’s illumination again highlights how this practice tended to introduce chaos into culturally familiar settings. Illuminator Donald Jackson depicts this by the messy, haphazard array placed within the meticulously neat household. A heavy black line dividing the scene suggests the chasm that exists between the world of this “sinful woman” and that of the Pharisees. Jesus’ words in the middle of the illumination mediate between the chaos brought about by the woman and the task she has come to accomplish – express extravagant love in response to the extravagant forgiveness and acceptance she has experienced. Her actions remind us that extravagance is reciprocal – it moves both ways.

Near the top of the black dividing line is a circle inscribed with a cross. Poised over this scene, that feature invites the questions: “What is holiness?” and “How does holiness relate to love?” The woman in this panel is unconventional, with green and pink hair and dressed eccentrically. The world she is disrupting is represented by the white scarf displaying Hebrew words indicative of temple worship and sacrifice. Thus, another border is revealed – that between conventional religious practice and faith that is infused with abundant love. Through this event Jesus seizes the opportunity to convey the message that divine love is chaotic. Such love disrupts the world of empty orderliness.

Today’s focal illumination reminds us that when God breaks into history the world in its usual state is disrupted. What do you think distinguishes the left side of this panel from the right? What unites them? Do you prefer the tidy household or the disruptive intensity of extravagant love? Can you recall moments when your life was disrupted by this type of love? How does the message of God’s extravagance fit into the larger framework of Lenten observance?

Prayer for the Transition of Our Next Bishop

Gracious and Loving God, we give thanks for the election of our next Bishop, Amy. Watch over Amy, her husband Jared, and their children Elise, Jacob, and Woodrow as they prepare to leave friends, colleagues, and neighbors to join us here in the Diocese of West Missouri. Open our hearts to receive your inspiration and wisdom so that we may joyfully welcome them into our life and ministry in You. This we ask in grateful thanksgiving. AMEN.

Formation for All Ages

Children: Sundays

Cathedral Kids • 10:30 a.m.

Cathedral Kids meets during the first half of the 10:30 a.m. worship service and during this time we weave together our sacred stories and our Episcopal identity with the Weaving God's Promises curriculum. Children attending Cathedral Kids will meet their parents or guardians inside the tower doors during the passing of the peace.

Once a month, we observe Family Worship Sundays. These Sundays provide an opportunity for families to worship together. Worship Boxes with resources for children are in the back cross aisle. Upcoming Family Worship Sundays: April 27, May 11.

Youth: Sundays

April 6: Chapter 21

April 13: Chapter 22

In our Adult Formation this year we are taking a journey using Forward Movement's The Path, an excerpted version of the Bible that covers most of the major stories chronologically. Through The Path, we will become familiar with the grand overarching narrative of the entire Bible.

Adults: Tuesdays

GHTC's Virtual Cafe • 7:30 a.m. • Zoom

Please join us for our weekly conversation in GHTC's Virtual Cafe! Tuesday mornings from 7:30-9 a.m. For details, visit kccathedral.org/other-activities.

Women's Bible Study • 12:30 p.m. • Zoom

Conversation is lively, thought-provoking, and often irreverent. All are welcome. Visit the WBS page, kccathedral.org/adultformation/wbs for more information.

Lectionary Bible Study • 6:45 p.m. • Zoom

We study the lessons for the upcoming Sunday. Join the Lectionary Bible Study group in Realm or visit the LBS page, kccathedral.org/adultformation/lbs for more details.

Join us June 1-7, 2025 for Episcopal Summer Mega Camp!

Mega Camp is a 1-week overnight summer camp experience for young people who have finished grades 3-12. There's boating, horseback riding, archery, climbing tower, hiking, arts & crafts, plus Episcopal worship and formation. The camp community is like nothing else: campers will feel accepted and loved for who they are and be able to build their faith with others their age.

Camp is not restricted to Episcopalians or regular churchgoers. All are welcome, so feel free to invite friends and family.

Contact Clare (cstern@kccathedral.org) for details about registration, cost and scholarship availability.

Announcements & Upcoming Events

Palm Cross Making

TODAY • 9 & 11:45 a.m. • Founders' Hall

Enjoy a cup of coffee and make crosses out of palm leaves for distribution on Palm Sunday. Please bring your scissors. Someone will help if you've never made palm crosses before!

Egg Hunt Candy Donations

Bring your donations of candy (individually wrapped, in small packages) to the basket in the Tower by April 13.

Easter Basket Packing

Palm Sunday, April 13 • 9 a.m.

Come help us pack Easter baskets for Crittenton Children's Center, Camber Children's Center and Sheffield Place.

Easter Vigil & Easter Day Receptions

Continue the Easter celebrations after services with receptions in Founders' Hall. We invite you to help by bringing food and/or helping with setup or cleanup.

How you can help:

- Prepare and bring food: drop off your appetizer or dessert at least 15 minutes before the service.
- Setup Team: Be present 30 minutes prior to the service to receive food, label and put food and drink on tables, etc.
- Clean up after the reception

It is a fun way to get to know people, and volunteers sometimes get to sample goodies before the event!

Consecration of Bishop-elect

Saturday, May 3 • 10 a.m.

God-willing, Bishop-elect Amy Dafler Meaux will be consecrated as the IX Bishop of The Diocese of West Missouri at GHTC. If you want to attend in-person, you must register by TODAY at 11:59 p.m.

Easter Flowers

Your generous gifts, in memory of or in thanksgiving for a loved one, help provide flowers. The Easter flower envelopes are available at the back of the Nave. Return the envelope to the office by Sunday, April 13, for your name to be included in the Easter bulletins. Envelopes may be placed in the offering — or given online by texting “GIVETOUGHTC flowers” to 73256 to give using your mobile device or use the “Give” button on our website.

April: Toiletry Drive for JFSKC Pantry

We are collecting food for Jewish Family Services Pantry in Brookside. Suggested items to bring: full sized body wash, hand/body lotion, shampoo & conditioner, deodorant. Your donation goes directly to the shelves in the JFS Food Pantries, helping 400 families monthly, right in our community. You may leave items in the basket in the Tower.

New Church Texting Service

Text us at (816) 310-1888

- Text LOOP to stay in the loop about Cathedral updates (weather closures, reminders).
- Text GUEST if you are new with us & want to know more.
- Text PRAYER to submit prayer requests.

You'll then receive a return text with a link to a form requesting your name and email. Once you've completed the form for the first time, the system will recognize you when you text again. Note: this number is for texts only, not voice calls.

Volunteers for Children & Youth Ministry

We are currently looking for persons who can offer commitment to help us support our children and youth ministry program. Benefits for you include a way to serve your church community and enrich young people's faith formation experience! We need help with:

- Youth Formation (9:15-10:15 a.m. Sundays) assisting Clare. No teaching required, unless you would like to.
- Children's Formation (10:20-11:05 a.m. Sundays)
- Sunday Evening Youth Group
No teaching required, unless you would like to. Dinner is provided.
- General Youth Event Activities (supervision/ transportation) This is as needed.

Additional Parking

You can use the garage with entry on 13th Street for free. The barcode should be scanned upon entry and exit from the garage. Get the barcode at kccathedral.org/easter.
