The Word of God

* COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LESSONS

First Lesson: Acts 9:36-43

Lector Now in Joppa there was a disciple whose name was Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas. She was devoted to good works and acts of charity. At that time she became ill and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in a room upstairs. Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, who heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, "Please come to us without delay." So Peter got up and went with them; and when he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was with them. Peter put all of them outside, and then he knelt down and prayed. He turned to the body and said, "Tabitha, get up." Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he showed her to be alive. This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. Meanwhile he stayed in Joppa for some time with a certain Simon, a tanner.

Second Lesson: Revelation 7:9-17

Lector I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

“Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!”

And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,

“Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever!
Amen.”

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?” I said to him, “Sir, you are the one that knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

For this reason they are before the throne of God,
and worship him day and night within his temple,
and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.

They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat;

for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

* THE HOLY GOSPEL: John 10:22-30

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller At that time the festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly." Jesus answered, "I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name testify to me; but you do not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep. My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand. What my Father has given me is greater than all else, and no one can snatch it out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

All We believe in one God,
 the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
 the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
 Through him all things were made.
 For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
 by the power of the Holy Spirit
 he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
 and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
 With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
 He has spoken through the Prophets.
 We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

* PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

adapted from Hear Our Prayer: Prayers of the People for the Revised Common Lectionary

- Intercessor When our valleys are full of shadows Lord, send us the light of your son Jesus, that we might find our way. Shepherd of our heart, comfort us with your overflowing love, hear our prayers offered with thanksgiving and sincerity as we say, Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.
- When our cups seem empty Lord, fill them with your love so that our acts of service to the world overflow and benefit others.
- Lord in your mercy,
- People Hear our prayer.
- Intercessor When our nation and other countries walk in darkness Lord, fill our leaders with hearts that beat for peace, justice and provision for all people.
- Lord in your mercy,
- People Hear our prayer.
- Intercessor When our bodies are ill and our minds are full of turmoil Lord, send us the peace of your presence and give us the gift of your healing. We pray especially for those on the Cathedral's Prayer List, and for those whom we now name silently or aloud.
- Lord in your mercy,
- People Hear our prayer.
- Intercessor When the hungry go unfilled and the hurting are left along Lord, melt our hearts that we might be your hands at work serving those in need.
- Lord in your mercy,
- People Hear our prayer.
- Intercessor When our time on earth is ended Lord, guide us into the green pastures of your kingdom that we might live in your kingdom this day and always. We pray especially for those we now name, either silently or aloud.
- Lord in your mercy,
- People Hear our prayer.
- Presider Accept the prayers of your sheep O Lord, and grant us peace in our day that we might live out our lives to the glory of your son Jesus Christ who reigns with you and your Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

Presider Almighty Father, whose dear Son, on the night before he suffered, instituted the Sacrament of his Body and Blood: Mercifully grant that we may receive it thankfully in remembrance of Jesus Christ our Lord, who in these holy mysteries gives us a pledge of eternal life; and who lives and reigns for ever and ever.
Amen.

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Pride Fest

A Word from our Bishop

I look forward to my first celebrations of Pride with West Missouri this year! Last year, the tradition of celebrating the Eucharist before the Pride Parade began; and I am honored to continue that tradition both here in Kansas City on June 7 and in Springfield on June 14. I invite you to join these celebrations: these are the most public moments and opportunities to support our diverse communities.

Every person is a beloved child of God, no matter gender or sexual orientation. The reality is that our transgender and non-binary siblings, and their families, face enormous challenges. In response to rising harassment and discrimination, our vocation is to be a voice of Christ's love, especially as our culture seeks to erase their presence in our midst. My presence at the Pride events is just one way I seek to affirm and support all people. I hope you'll join me!

The Episcopal Church believes that God loves us all, no exceptions. We know that the primary ministers of the Gospel are all those baptized into the community. Every member has a vocation and ministry for the sake of the Gospel: proclaiming that the kingdom of God is near to us. For this reason, for the sake of Christ, we welcome all people in our churches with Christ's compassion, grace, and love. Our churches are places where we "seek Christ in all persons" and "respect the dignity of every human being" (BCP, p. 303-304). Every time we open our doors with radical hospitality and grace, we proclaim the Gospel of Christ in our communities.

If you have questions about either of the Pride events or how we can support our LGBTQ+ siblings, do not hesitate to contact me. Most of all, I pray that you know and experience the love of Christ in your own life and share that love with everyone you meet.

Peace be with you,

+Amy Dafler Meaux

Outreach Volunteer Opportunities

The Emergency Food Assistance Program

In partnership with St. Paul's on Main, we have been invited to help organize and distribute food as part of TEFAP (The Emergency Food Assistance Program). We meet from about 9:30 a.m. to noon.

St. Paul's receives delivery of several pallets of shelf-stable and frozen food from Harvesters each month. Friendly volunteers are needed to break down the pallets and repackage the food into family-sized boxes and bags. Then we open the doors to those in need and start handing out the food.

Upcoming TEFAP dates:

March 15

April 19

To volunteer or for more information, contact Deacon Barbara 816.739.8032 or bwegener@kccathedral.org.

Pete's Garden

In the lower level of Founders' Hall, Pete's Garden is a food rescue committed to less food waste and more family meals. They collect unserved prepared food from caterers, restaurants and food service operations each day.

Pete's Garden meals are distributed through social service agencies that serve children and their families. Most of the families who receive Pete's Garden meals are headed by single women in low paying jobs, living below federal poverty guidelines.

Volunteers work together to portion and package donated food so it can be redirected to social service agencies who get meals to families.

Nourish KC

Volunteers are the heart and soul of NourishKC. Every meal served, every pantry stocked, and every food item redistributed is made possible because of the time, energy, and dedication of our volunteers. Your support ensures that we can continue providing nutritious meals, offering essential pantry staples, and building a hunger-free community.

By volunteering with us, you become part of a compassionate movement that transforms lives—one meal at a time. Whether it's lending a hand in our Community Kitchen, assisting with pantry distribution, or helping with events, your contribution makes a lasting impact.

Happy Mother's Day!

Packets of zinnia seeds are given to all who worship with us today. In honor of Mother's Day, we suggest any of the following:

- Plant them in remembrance of the mother who gave you life.
- Give them to a child along with a small pot and a bit of soil, and give thanks for the women who nurtured you.
- Save them for a special occasion and give thanks for moms everywhere who graciously accept gifts of all kinds.

The seeds given today, Lilliput Zinnia, grows to be only 18-24" tall and is famous for an abundance of pom-pom blooms in bright, vivid colors. Blooming from mid summer until frost, this mixture can be cut all season long for spectacular summer bouquets and is extremely easy to grow. Like all Zinnia, this variety is deer resistant and attracts pollinators.

Today's Focal St. John's Bible Illumination

Fourth Sunday of Easter – Jesus the Good Shepherd

"The Psalms Frontispiece" Illumination (Psalm 23)

This week's lectionary theme centers on Jesus as the good shepherd who leads and protects his flock. So, it may seem incongruous for the Saint John's Bible illumination to focus on the book of Psalms. The connecting link emerges out of the way Psalms has been employed for worship. Being a liturgical book, Psalms has been used by both Jewish and Christian faith communities for millennia in structuring public worship, often employing text and song (especially chants) to do this. However, while Christianity and Judaism share many liturgical texts, they do so from different theological perspectives. Psalm 23 provides a good example of this. For centuries Christians have layered this Psalm (which utilizes a familiar pastoral image from ancient Jewish life as an analogy for divine providence) with John 10:11 where Jesus declares, "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep."

Virtually all theological language is rooted in analogy. Experiences and objects from daily life are used to communicate our spiritual relation with God.

Historically, the image of the shepherd held especially rich possibilities for this purpose. The full range of relationships, including leadership, authority, protection, nurture, and deliverance, was applicable to the divine shepherd and his flock. Thus, Jesus' image as the good shepherd weds this significant Old Testament analogy of our relationship with God to the New Testament analogy of Jesus' role as spiritual leader and protector of the Christian faith community.

The principal illumination in the Book of Psalms is the two-page frontispiece, located before Psalm 1. Here the five books that constitute Psalms are portrayed as five open scrolls arranged to form a menorah. Artistic director Donald Jackson's first illumination for the Saint John's Bible project was the menorah depicting Jesus' genealogy in Matthew's gospel. The menorah also was used in Genesis to depict the family tree of Abraham and Sarah. In the "Historical Books" volume of Saint John's Bible several menorahs were used to convey the developing faith heritage of Israel in contrast to those of Egypt, Canaan, and Babylon. In Psalms, the menorah illumination is used to emphasize the integrity and completeness of Israel's story.

Another important feature of today's focal illumination is the stamped gold archway of the Cathedral at Compostela, which recurs throughout the pages of Psalms. This image conveys the tradition of believers gathering throughout the ages to sing or chant these texts. Compostela is used to symbolize the role that song plays for ushering us into the presence of God and has done so for millennia.

Think of the words you would use to describe what Jesus as the good shepherd means in your own spiritual life. How does the imagery of Psalms (especially Psalm 23) enrich that analogy of God's care and leadership for you? In what ways does singing (or chanting) the Psalms enhance your experience of worshipping God?

Formation for All Ages

Children: Sundays

Cathedral Kids • 10:30 a.m.

Cathedral Kids meets during the first half of the 10:30 a.m. worship service and during this time we weave together our sacred stories and our Episcopal identity with the Weaving God's Promises curriculum. Children attending Cathedral Kids will meet their parents or guardians inside the tower doors during the passing of the peace.

Once a month, we observe Family Worship Sundays. These Sundays provide an opportunity for families to worship together. Worship Boxes with resources for children are in the back cross aisle.

Youth: Sundays

Youth Formation • 9:15 a.m.

Youth meet in the Haden Hall Youth Room for confirmation preparation with a light breakfast.

10:30 a.m. • Worship

6 p.m. • Youth Group

Join us for dinner and fellowship in the Youth Room.

Adults: Sundays

The Path • 9:15 a.m. • Common Room

In our Adult Formation this year we are taking a journey using Forward Movement's The Path, an excerpted version of the Bible that covers most of the major stories chronologically. Through The Path, we will become familiar with the grand overarching narrative of the entire Bible.

Adults: Tuesdays

GHTC's Virtual Cafe • 7:30 a.m. • Zoom

Please join us for our weekly conversation in GHTC's Virtual Cafe! Tuesday mornings from 7:30-9 a.m. For details, visit kccathedral.org/other-activities.

Women's Bible Study • 12:30 p.m. • Zoom

Conversation is lively, thought-provoking, and often irreverent. All are welcome. Visit the WBS page, kccathedral.org/adultformation/wbs for more information.

Lectionary Bible Study • 6:45 p.m. • Zoom

We study the lessons for the upcoming Sunday. Join the Lectionary Bible Study group in Realm or visit the LBS page, kccathedral.org/adultformation/lbs for more details.

Join us June 1-7, 2025 for Episcopal Summer Mega Camp!

Mega Camp is a 1-week overnight summer camp experience for young people who have finished grades 3-12. There's boating, horseback riding, archery, climbing tower, hiking, arts & crafts, plus Episcopal worship and formation. The camp community is like nothing else: campers will feel accepted and loved for who they are and be able to build their faith with others their age.

Camp is not restricted to Episcopalians or regular churchgoers. All are welcome, so feel free to invite friends and family.

Contact Clare (cstern@kccathedral.org) for details about registration, cost and scholarship availability.

Game Night: Bunco

Friday, May 16, 6 p.m., Common Room

Gather your family, friends, and fellow game enthusiasts for an evening of thrilling games, fabulous fellowship, and unforgettable memories. Bring a snack and/or drink to share and join in the fun. Sign up on our website.

Miniature Painting Meetup

Saturday, May 17, 3 p.m., Common Room

Curious about tabletop gaming or miniatures? Join us for a fun, hands-on introduction to miniature painting! All supplies (miniatures, brushes, and paint) will be provided. Family friendly and no experience needed, just bring your creativity and enjoy some fun and fellowship.

Eucharistic Practices

Sunday, May 18, 9:15 a.m., Cathedral Nave

Walking through several elements of the Eucharist, in this session we will experiment with devotional practices for deeper engagement in the liturgy. Any who desire to feel more proficient and at ease in worship are invited to join us, both newcomers and long-term members alike.

Usher Meeting with AED Training

Sunday, May 18 • 9 a.m. & 11:45 a.m., Common Room

Ushers will be briefed on Usher protocols. Congregation members are invited to attend this meeting to learn about emergency procedures including AED information by GHTC member and medical professional Troy Sorbo. You only need to attend one session.

Graduate Recognition, May 18 at all services

We celebrate all graduates as part of our Youth Sunday celebration. If you or a family member is graduating this year, let us know by Monday, May 12. Graduates will be recognized during the 10:30 a.m. service. Submit names at kccathedral.org/upcoming-events.

Youth Sunday, May 18 at 10:30 a.m.

Our young people take key leadership roles in the service and the Cathedral's youth leadership will preach.

Documentary Screening: Metamorphosis

Sunday, May 18, 6 p.m., Common Room

Metamorphosis is a testament to the power of resistance. It captures the struggles and triumphs of women from diverse backgrounds—teachers, judges, filmmakers, dormitory directors—who, despite losing everything, continue to fight for justice. We will screen the documentary Metamorphosis: Women's Resilience to Opposition in Turkey and then have a facilitated discussion on the plight of women political prisoners in Turkey. We will be joined via Zoom by the producer of the film and several survivors of the on-going genocide.

Evensong

Sunday, May 18, 5 p.m., Cathedral Nave

A service of Choral Evensong is offered by the Trinity Choir. This contemplative service includes hymns, scripture readings, prayers, chanted Psalms, canticles and a choir anthem. With its origins in Archbishop Thomas Cranmer's Book of Common Prayer (1549), Evensong is one of the most uniquely Anglican liturgies and is sung in cathedrals and parishes throughout the world.

Practicing Christian Spirituality Presentation

Saturday, May 24, 10 a.m.-2 p.m., at St. Mary Magdalene

The Rev. Dr. Julia Gatta, professor of Pastoral Theology at the School of Theology of the University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee, will be giving a presentation on her book Life in Christ: Practicing Christian Spirituality at St. Mary Magdalene in Belton, followed by a Q&A session. Lunch will be provided. Free but RSVP requested.

Parish Picnic

Sunday, June 8, 11:45 a.m., Founders' Hall Courtyard

Join us for our annual Parish Picnic. The Cathedral serves up the main feast, and you're invited to dazzle us with your finest sides and sweetest desserts. We'll have fun activities for kids of all ages. Dress casually and enjoy this time of fun and fellowship! This is a great Sunday to invite a friend or neighbor to worship with you.
