

GRACE AND HOLY TRINITY EPISCOPAL CATHEDRAL

The Seventeenth Sunday after Pentecost

October 5, 2025 • 8 a.m.

Welcome! We are glad you are here.

- Thank you for joining us for worship today at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral. If you are new to the Cathedral, we invite you to fill out our welcome card. Welcome cards are available in the pews or text GUEST to 816-310-1888.
- If you need a hearing assistance device, please ask an usher. Instructions to connect via Bluetooth are on the back table.
- Gendered restrooms are available in Founders' Hall. A non-gendered, accessible restroom is available at west end (rear) of the Cathedral.

Service Notes

- Please rise, as able, for portions of the service marked with an asterisk (*).
- Donations may be placed in the offering, made through the Cathedral website: kccathedral.org, by scanning the QR code to the right or by texting "GIVEtoGHTC" to 73256. Tap to give using the display in the Tower entrance. Instructions for use are next to the machine.
- Thank you for your generosity.

HOLY EUCHARIST

VOLUNTARY: "Amazing Grace! How sweet the sound"

George Shearing (1919-2011)

The Word of God

* OPENING ACCLAMATION AND COLLECT FOR PURITY

page 355

Presider Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Presider Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

* GLORIA

All
Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

* COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LESSONS

First Lesson: Habakkuk 1:1-4, 2:1-4

Lector The oracle that the prophet Habakkuk saw.
O Lord, how long shall I cry for help,
and you will not listen?
Or cry to you "Violence!"
and you will not save?
Why do you make me see wrong-doing and look at trouble?
Destruction and violence are before me;
strife and contention arise.
So the law becomes slack
and justice never prevails.
The wicked surround the righteous—
therefore judgment comes forth perverted.
I will stand at my watchpost,
and station myself on the rampart;
I will keep watch to see what he will say to me,
and what he will answer concerning my complaint.
Then the Lord answered me and said:
Write the vision;
make it plain on tablets,
so that a runner may read it.
For there is still a vision for the appointed time;
it speaks of the end, and does not lie.
If it seems to tarry, wait for it;
it will surely come, it will not delay.
Look at the proud!
Their spirit is not right in them,
but the righteous live by their faith.
The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Do not fret yourself because of evildoers; *
do not be jealous of those who do wrong.

For they shall soon wither like the grass, *
and like the green grass fade away.

Put your trust in the Lord and do good; *
dwell in the land and feed on its riches.

Take delight in the Lord, *
and he shall give you your heart's desire.

Commit your way to the Lord and put your trust in him, *
and he will bring it to pass.

He will make your righteousness as clear as the light * and your just dealing as the noonday.

Be still before the Lord *
and wait patiently for him.

Do not fret yourself over the one who prospers, *
the one who succeeds in evil schemes.

Refrain from anger, leave rage alone; *
do not fret yourself; it leads only to evil.

For evildoers shall be cut off, *
but those who wait upon the Lord shall possess the land.

Second Lesson: 2 Timothy 1:1-14

Lector Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus,

To Timothy, my beloved child:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

I am grateful to God— whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did— when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands; for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him. Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

* THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 17:5-10

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!" The Lord replied, "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

"Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here at once and take your place at the table'? Would you not rather say to him, 'Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink'? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, 'We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!'"

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

page 358

All We believe in one God,
 the Father, the Almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

* PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

adapted from Hear Our Prayer: Prayers of the People for the Revised Common Lectionary

Intercessor Almighty God, increase our faith and hear our prayers as we say, Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.
Help your church to perceive and answer your call to serve and to build the kingdom of God.
Lord in your mercy,

People hear our prayer.

Intercessor Guild the people and leaders of this nation towards unity of purpose and mutual regard, that we might be a civil society that offers hope and opportunity to all its members.
Lord in your mercy,

People hear our prayer.

Intercessor Embolden us to be committed stewards of the creation you have entrusted to our care that all future generations might know its abundance.

Lord in your mercy,

People hear our prayer.

Intercessor Inspire our parish to go forth and share the good news with our neighbors so that through our actions that might see a glimpse of your glorious Good News.

Lord in your mercy,

People hear our prayer.

Intercessor Make your healing presence known in the lives of all who suffer and let us be instruments of your healing love. We pray especially for those on the Cathedral's Prayer List, and for those whom we now name silently or aloud.

Lord in your mercy,

People hear our prayer.

Intercessor May the dead know the brightness of your love, and may we also come to join them in your presence.
We pray especially for those we now name, either silently or aloud.

Lord in your mercy,

People hear our prayer.

Presider God of power and might, in the life of your Son you have shown us the model of potential of our lives.
Grant us the faith to continue His mission and ministry and answer our prayers as may be best for us and to your glory, through the same Son, our Lord, Christ Jesus who with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, One God, now and forever. Amen.

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All Most merciful God,
 we confess that we have sinned against you
 in thought, word, and deed,
 by what we have done,
 and by what we have left undone.
 We have not loved you with our whole heart;
 we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
 We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
 For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
 that we may delight in your will,
 and walk in your ways,
 to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

* THE PEACE

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

* THE GREAT THANKSGIVING, Eucharistic Prayer A

page 361

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Presider It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Here a Proper Preface is sung or said on all Sundays, and on other occasions as appointed.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Presider Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Presider We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

* BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Love in Action: Growing in Faith and Community

The Season of Pentecost is a season of growth. During this time, we have readings that are meant to teach us about being better people as we grow in faith and in doing all that Christ calls us to do. We hear from prophets and apostles about loving God and our neighbor, and we hear from Jesus about how to be better stewards of all that God has given us.

Growth is vital to us as individuals and as a family of faith. Learning and growing is something we all do together as we hear the words and teachings of Jesus and are supported by the great cloud of witnesses who have come before to show us the way.

In the coming weeks, we are offering ways to come together as a community, as a family, to learn more about actively loving and growing together. We will have a stewardship lunch on October 19, following the 10:30 service. While there, you will have the opportunity to sign up to come to someone's home in your part of Kansas City to continue in fellowship and conversation, to continue in love and growth.

You may make your financial commitment and support our continued growth by returning the enclosed pledge card to the Cathedral, by turning your card in at the lunch, home visits, or in the offering plate. You may also make your commitment online through the Cathedral's website: kccathedral.org/stewardship. Thank you for your continued care and support of Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral.

Today's Focal St. John's Bible Illumination

Trusting God During Uncertain Times

"Fulfillment of Creation" Illumination (Romans 8)

The illuminations and visual treatments of Saint John's Bible seek to facilitate faith development through nonverbal instruments as a complement to the faith enrichment nurtured by means of the verbal media of the written word and liturgy. This week that effort was made difficult because none of the lectionary texts had accompanying artwork or treatments. Fortunately, the key themes from today's lectionary selections find some expression in the "Fulfillment of Creation" illumination from Romans chapter 8. For this reason, we are using this illumination as the visio divina focus for our reflections on today's lectionary themes.

Collectively, today's texts emphasize the power of faith, even when its magnitude may seem small or weak. The Bible encourages steadfast faith, humble service, and trust in God even when circumstances don't seem to support it. The prophet Habakkuk advises the reader to wait patiently on God's action regardless of apparent contradictions encountered during hard times. The Psalmist urges believers not to be discouraged by those who do evil but to trust in God's plan and promises. The Apostle Paul counsels Timothy to stand firm in the Gospel, relying on the "spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline" given by God. The Luke text enjoins the believer to practice the power of humble and faithful service. Embracing these themes, the Romans chapter 8 text speaks of waiting for the full revelation of God's activity in creation which is made certain through Christ's passion, death, and resurrection. While we wait, we are able to receive a foretaste of this new life that anticipates the fullness of life that we will experience beyond death.

Romans chapter 8, understands time differently from the way we generally think of it in daily life. It is a sense of time that quantum mathematicians and scientists have postulated in their calculations and models of reality. Illuminator Thomas Ingmire references these perceptions in this depiction. He was especially intrigued by the way quantum physics reduced everything to pure energy. Starting with an image from the Hubble telescope that shows a star in the shape of a cross, Ingmire adds graphics, equations, and points of intersection that relate to the way cosmologists address vast cosmic entities and distances. At the bottom of the illumination are images referencing the "Creation" illumination from the book of Genesis. The creation narrative tells us that God's good creation is incomplete and has become tainted by sin. However, through the work of Christ, new life and a new creation have become the norm. While the creation currently waits for fulfillment by this divine cosmic action, its completion has been assured.

How does the life, passion, death, and resurrection of Christ reinforce your commitment to wait patiently and trust God's redemptive purpose? What features of the "Fulfillment of Creation" illumination together with today's lectionary texts inspire you to serve humbly and faithfully as you await God's ultimate fulfillment of creation?

Episcopal Beliefs & Practices: A Study of the Prayer Book

Through a weekly study of the 1979 Book of Common Prayer we will explore the beliefs and practices of the Episcopal Church. If you are curious about the Anglican way of Christianity, want to better understand familiar prayers and liturgies, or are seeking to engage more deeply in Christian practice and theology then this course is for you! No preparation needed, prayer books will be provided in class.

No class next Sunday, October 12.

Children: Sundays

10:30 a.m. • Haden Hall

Cathedral Kids

Cathedral Kids meets during the first half of the 10:30 a.m. worship service and during this time we weave together our sacred stories and our Episcopal identity with the Weaving God's Promises curriculum. Children attending Cathedral Kids will meet their parents or guardians inside the tower doors during the passing of the peace.

Once a month, we observe Family Worship Sundays. These Sundays provide an opportunity for families to worship together. Worship Boxes with resources for children are in cabinet in the back cross aisle.

Conversation is lively, thought-provoking, and often irreverent. All are welcome.

We are currently reading David A. Desilva's The Apocrypha.

This book studies the Apocrypha "using a thematic approach." Dr. David deSilva gives a brief introduction and summary of these largely unknown and unappreciated books. In addition the book gives an overview to the social and cultural context of the world of the Apocrypha and early Christianity. After surveying the Apocrypha's relevance and impact on Christian practices and spiritual formation, the book highlights the Apocrypha's impact on Jesus, the New Testament, and the formation of the Early Church's doctrines and theology."

Today | 3:30 p.m.

Hymn Sing

Come for our annual Hymn Sing! Whether you're a pro vocalist or just love basking in the harmonious glory of hymns, everyone's welcome! We will sing our way through the submissions.

Sunday, October 19 | 8 & 10:30 a.m.

Rite of Healing

During both morning services, the laying-on-of-hands and anointing for healing will be offered for those desiring it. We observe this sacramental rite annually on the Sunday closest to the feast of St. Luke the Physician, October 18.

Sunday, October 19 | 11:45 a.m.

All Parish Lunch

All are invited to lunch as an opportunity to come together as a community, as a family, to learn more about actively loving and growing together. While at lunch, you will have the chance to sign up for home visits around Kansas City to continue in fellowship and conversation, to continue in love and growth.

Sunday, October 19 | 9:15 a.m. & 12:15 p.m.

Help at Pete's Garden

Volunteer with fellow parishioners at Pete's Garden to put labels on the containers that will be used to package meals for families in need. At 9:15 a.m., meet Deacon Barbara and Colin Chambers in Founders' Hall and head downstairs to Pete's Garden. After the 10:30 service, we will label containers while at the Stewardship Lunch. This is a great opportunity to help at Pete's Garden. All ages are welcome; younger children should have a parent present.

Sunday, October 19 | 5 p.m.

Choral Evensong

Sung by our own Trinity Choir, Choral Evensong is a centuries-old Anglican musical service of sung Evening Prayer that combines music, prayer, and scripture into a contemplative experience providing a peaceful and reflective pause as the day closes. Following the service, all are welcome to take communion in the Chapel.

Thursday, October 23 | 5:30 p.m.

Vestry Meeting

You are welcome to attend the meeting in the Common Room or via Zoom (kccathedral.org/vestry). Non-Vestry members wishing to address the meeting must arrange to be on the agenda by contacting Dean Keyse at akeyse@kccathedral.org by noon the Monday before the meeting.

Friday, October 24 | 6 p.m.

Halloween Bingo!

Bring your sweet and savory Halloween goodies, don your most epic costume to battle it out for fabulous prizes, including some take-home pumpkins! Let us know you're coming at kccathedral.org/events 🎃 🧛

Sunday, November 2

All Saints' Sunday

On All Saints' Sunday, we honor all those who have died in the past year. You may submit names of personal friends and family who have passed away in the last twelve months to be included in the bulletin. Submit names by Tuesday, October 28: kccathedral.org/events

Sunday, November 9 | 2 p.m.

Concert: Ho Anthony Ahn

Prepare your ears for a delightful duet! Ho Anthony Ahn, cello, and Jiwon Choi, piano, take the spotlight on Sunday, November 9 at 2 p.m. in the Cathedral Nave. No ticket needed, just bring your love for music. Donations welcomed.
