* COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Stir up your power, O Lord, and with great might come among us; and, because we are sorely hindered by our sins, let your bountiful grace and mercy speedily help and deliver us; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LESSONS

First Lesson: Isaiah 35:1-10

Lector The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad,
the desert shall rejoice and blossom;
like the crocus it shall blossom abundantly,
and rejoice with joy and singing.
The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it,
the majesty of Carmel and Sharon.
They shall see the glory of the Lord,
the majesty of our God.
Strengthen the weak hands,
and make firm the feeble knees.
Say to those who are of a fearful heart,
"Be strong, do not fear!
Here is your God.
He will come with vengeance,
with terrible recompense.
He will come and save you."
Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,
and the ears of the deaf unstopped;
then the lame shall leap like a deer,
and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy.
For waters shall break forth in the wilderness,
and streams in the desert;
the burning sand shall become a pool,
and the thirsty ground springs of water;
the haunt of jackals shall become a swamp,
the grass shall become reeds and rushes.
A highway shall be there,
and it shall be called the Holy Way;
the unclean shall not travel on it,
but it shall be for God's people; no traveler, not even fools, shall go astray.
No lion shall be there,
nor shall any ravenous beast come up on it;
they shall not be found there,
but the redeemed shall walk there.

And the ransomed of the Lord shall return,
and come to Zion with singing;
everlasting joy shall be upon their heads;
they shall obtain joy and gladness,
and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Canticle 15, The Song of Mary Magnificat sung by the choir; plainsong chant

page 91

Antiphon: The Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name.

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior; *
for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant.

From this day all generations will call me blessed: *
the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name.

He has mercy on those who fear him *
in every generation.

He has shown the strength of his arm, *
he has scattered the proud in their conceit.

He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, *
and has lifted up the lowly.

He has filled the hungry with good things, *
and the rich he has sent away empty.

He has come to the help of his servant Israel, *
for he has remembered his promise of mercy,

The promise he made to our fathers, *
to Abraham and his children for ever.

Antiphon: The Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name.

Second Lesson: James 5:7-10

Lector Be patient, therefore, beloved, until the coming of the Lord. The farmer waits for the precious crop from the earth, being patient with it until it receives the early and the late rains. You also must be patient. Strengthen your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is near. Beloved, do not grumble against one another, so that you may not be judged. See, the Judge is standing at the doors! As an example of suffering and patience, beloved, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

* THE HOLY GOSPEL: Matthew 11:2-11

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller When John heard in prison what the Messiah was doing, he sent word by his disciples and said to him, "Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?" Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them. And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me."

As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind? What then did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who wear soft robes are in royal palaces. What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is the one about whom it is written,

'See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you,
who will prepare your way before you.'

"Truly I tell you, among those born of women no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

All

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Who loved us all, and shed his blood that we might saved be.

For Christ is coming, is coming soon, for Christ is coming soon!

Presider And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with [_____ and] all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving. I remember your death, Lord Christ; I proclaim your resurrection; I await your coming in glory. Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Today's Focal St. John's Bible Illumination

Third Sunday of Advent: Rejoicing

"Two Cures" Illumination (Mark 5:25-45 relating to Matthew 11:1-11)

Today is called "Gaudete" or "Rejoice" Sunday. On this Sunday churches frequently put aside the penitential purple color of this season for a rose (or pink) color denoting joy. The reading from Isaiah 35 speaks of "the wilderness becoming glad" and "the desert rejoicing and blossoming." The "Magnificat" (a Canticle alternative) from Luke 1:46-55 records Mary as singing "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior." But, amid these familiar expressions of joy also comes the Gospel reading on John the Baptist's despair and doubt from the prison cell where he soon will be executed. Where is the joy in this?

Today's lectionary theme focuses on finding deep and abiding joy in God's love and presence. But this joy isn't simply a fair-weather emotion. It is also joy that exists alongside hardships and can be shared despite life's challenges. These readings can help us expand our understanding of what God's joy truly means. The Saint John's Bible does not have artwork directly interpreting this theme from today's lectionary texts. However, the "Two Cures" illumination from Mark 5 offers visio divina insight parallel to the "works of power" evidence that Jesus cites for John the Baptist in response to his haunting questions. Here the actions of Jesus carry us beyond explanation to a revelation of who he is.

In Christian tradition John the Baptist is the patron saint of spiritual joy. Yet, in today's Gospel reading, we find him wondering whether he might have dedicated his life to the wrong promise and the wrong person. In a faith crisis, he inquires of Jesus, "Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?" (v. 3). Jesus' response likely is not what John was expecting, but it was exceptionally revealing for those able to intuit its meaning: "the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them." The answer to John's question could not be a pronouncement, for who Jesus is too elusive and mysterious to be contained in a simple declaration capable of meeting John's need. The reality of who he is emerges through the everyday lives and events of ordinary people who are all around us. It comes to us quietly and mysteriously over time and through the very real experiences of life.

The "Two Cures" icon offers specific examples of the revelatory work to which Jesus refers in his response to John the Baptist. Note in the icon the healing of a woman with hemorrhages and of the daughter of a synagogue leader (Jairus). In the first panel, Jairus travels to Jesus to get him to go and lay hands on and heal his very sick daughter. On the way, in panel two, a woman who is ritually unclean touches Jesus' cloak and is healed (see the power gone from his now limp cloak). In the third panel Jesus grasps the wrist of the girl while making the sign of blessing. The girl is healed. What do these portrayals of Jesus' work tell us about who he is?

Can you imagine yourself in these panels or in the condition of John the Baptist? What do these stories and images reveal to you about God? In what ways do these actions promise fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecies? How do they reveal joy to you during this Advent?
