* COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Almighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life: Grant us so perfectly to know your Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life, that we may steadfastly follow his steps in the way that leads to eternal life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LESSONS

First Lesson: Acts 7:55-60

Lector Filled with the Holy Spirit, Stephen gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. "Look," he said, "I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!" But they covered their ears, and with a loud shout all rushed together against him. Then they dragged him out of the city and began to stone him; and the witnesses laid their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul. While they were stoning Stephen, he prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." Then he knelt down and cried out in a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." When he had said this, he died.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 31:1-5, 15-16 sung by the choir; chant by Thomas Attwood Walmisley

page 612

In you, O Lord, have I taken refuge; let me never be put to shame; *
 deliver me in your righteousness.

Incline your ear to me; *
 make haste to deliver me.

Be my strong rock, a castle to keep me safe, for you are my crag and my stronghold; *
 for the sake of your Name, lead me and guide me.

Take me out of the net that they have secretly set for me, *
 for you are my tower of strength.

Into your hands I commend my spirit, *
 for you have redeemed me, O Lord, O God of truth.

My times are in your hand; *
 rescue me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.

Make your face to shine upon your servant, *
 and in your loving-kindness save me.

Second Lesson: 1 Peter 2:2-10

Lector Like newborn infants, long for the pure, spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow into salvation— if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.

Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it stands in scripture:

“See, I am laying in Zion a stone,
a cornerstone chosen and precious;
and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame.”

To you then who believe, he is precious; but for those who do not believe,

“The stone that the builders rejected has become the very head of the corner”, and

“A stone that makes them stumble, and a rock that makes them fall.”

They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

Once you were not a people,
but now you are God's people;
once you had not received mercy,
but now you have received mercy.

The Word of the Lord.

People

Thanks be to God.

* THE HOLY GOSPEL: John 14:1-14

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller Jesus said, "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. And you know the way to the place where I am going." Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?" Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, you will know my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him."

Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

All

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

* PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

adapted from Hear Our Prayer: Prayers of the People for the Revised Common Lectionary

Intercessor Steadfast God, you have never abandoned your promise to be with your people, be present to us now and hear us as we say, Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.
Imbue your church with the courage of Stephen, that it may hold steadfast to Christ and uphold always your command to love one another.
Lord in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Grant wisdom to those in authority, that they may not be seduced by the expedient or the popular, but strive always to lead us towards the common good, seeking the welfare of all people.
Lord in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Embolden us to share our faith with confidence in word and deed, especially in our mercy to those in need.
Lord in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Strengthen and sustain us in the way of Jesus Christ, and help us to hold onto the power of your promises even and especially when we feel hopeless.
Lord in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Let your healing presence be known to all who suffer from any trouble; bring wholeness to all that is broken in our lives and in our world. We pray especially for those on the Cathedral's Prayer List, and for those whom we now name silently or aloud.
Lord in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Grant peace to the dead and dying, comfort to those who mourn or grieve; let the light of your love dispel the darkness in our hearts. We pray especially for those we now name, either silently or aloud.
Lord in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Presider Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, "Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you." Regard not our sins, but the faith of your Church, and give to us the peace and unity of that heavenly City, where with the Father and the Holy Spirit you live and reign, now and for ever. Amen.

* THE PEACE

OFFERTORY ANTHEM: "O how amiable"

Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)
text: Psalm 84 & 90

O how amiable are thy dwellings: thou Lord of hosts! My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.

Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be always praising thee.

The glorious majesty of the Lord our God be upon us; prosper thou the work of our hands upon us. O prosper thou our handiwork.

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.

PRESENTATION HYMN: 400 "All creatures of our God and King"

I All crea - tures of our God and King, lift up your voic - es, let us

I sing: Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia! Bright burn - ing

I sun with gold - en beams, pale sil - ver moon that gen - tly gleams,

O praise him, O praise him, Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

Words: St. Francis of Assisi (1882-1226); tr. William H. Draper (1855-1933), alt. Music: Lasst uns erfreuen, melody from Auserlesene Catholische Geistliche Kirchengeseng, 123; adapt. and harm. After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Presider We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

The musical score is written on four staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 4/4 time signature. It features a triplet of eighth notes marked with a '3' above the staff and a forte 'f' dynamic. The lyrics 'Al - le - lu - ia! Christ our Pass - o -' are written below the staff. The second staff continues the melody with lyrics '- ver has been sac - ri - ficed for us; There - fore let us'. The third staff has lyrics 'keep the feast, Al - - le - lu - ia,'. The fourth staff concludes with 'Al - - le - lu - ia, Al - le - lu - ia!' and includes a 'poco rit.' marking above the staff.

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All are welcome to receive communion or a blessing.
 For gluten-free bread, cross your hands palms down.
 For a blessing, cross your hands over your chest.

Prayer for healing is offered at the prayer desk until the close of worship.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving. I remember your death, Lord Christ; I proclaim your resurrection; I await your coming in glory. Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Volunteer Opportunities

The Emergency Food Assistance Program Saturday, May 16, June 20 | 8 a.m.-noon

We help St. Paul's on Main organize and distribute food as part of TEFAP (The Emergency Food Assistance Program). Friendly volunteers are needed to break down pallets of shelf-stable and frozen food from Harvesters and repack the food into family-sized boxes and bags. Then we start handing out the food. To volunteer or for more information, contact Deacon Barbara 816.739.8032 or bwegener@kccathedral.org.

Help Pete's Garden May 17, June 21 | 9:15 a.m. & 12:15 p.m.

Volunteer with fellow parishioners during coffee hour to put labels on the containers that will be used to package meals for families in need by Pete's Garden. We label upstairs in Founders' Hall at both morning coffee hours. This is a great opportunity to help at Pete's Garden. All ages are welcome; younger children should have a parent present.

From Colony to Concert Hall: 250 Years of American Music

Friday, May 15 | 7 p.m. | Free admission

A Celebration of American Music Across the Centuries with soprano, Eva Peng and pianist, Anthony Olson

Spanning two and a half centuries, this program traces the development of a uniquely American musical voice. Beginning in the colonial era with Francis Hopkinson—a signer of the Declaration of Independence and one of the first American composers—the concert highlights the roots of artistic expression in the early United States.

The program continues through the 19th century with music by Louis Moreau Gottschalk, the virtuosic pianist and composer whose works reflect the cultural diversity of the Civil War era. Moving into the 20th century, the program features selections by iconic American composers including George Gershwin, Scott Joplin, and Leonard Bernstein, alongside songs from films of the Golden Age of cinema, highlighting the intersection of classical, popular, and theatrical traditions in American music.

The program will conclude with the final aria from Scott Joplin's opera Treemonisha, bringing the evening to a powerful close with one of the most significant works in early American opera.

Through this carefully curated program, The Lyric Duo presents a vibrant musical narrative that reflects the richness, diversity, and innovation of American music across generations. The concert offers an engaging and accessible experience for a wide audience, blending historical context with compelling performance.

Missionpalooza 2026: July 21-26

This gathering is all about rolling up our sleeves, putting our faith into motion, and discovering just how much good we can do together. During the week we will spread out across the greater Kansas City area, offering our hands, hearts, and laughter to the places that need us most.

Adults: Tuesdays

GHTC's Virtual Cafe • 7:30 a.m. • Zoom

The Virtual Café is open every Tuesday morning for Cathedral members and friends to connect; discuss current topics and activities happening at the Cathedral and in our community; and share what's on your mind. For details, visit kccathedral.org/other-activities.

Women's Bible Study • 12:30 p.m. • Zoom

Conversation is lively, thought-provoking, and often irreverent. All are welcome. Visit our website, kccathedral.org/adultformation, for the Zoom link.

We are currently studying an Easter devotional, The Hymns of Easter by Alan Vermilye. The Hymns of Easter is a devotional inspired by some of history's most cherished Easter hymns.

Experience a fresh perspective on the hymns you've sung your whole life now set to personal reflections in this 40-day devotional journey. Each week, you begin by reading the history of the hymn, followed by daily readings that reflect on a verse from the hymn along with Scripture and a devotion.

Lectionary Bible Study • 6:45 p.m. • Zoom

Join us for a discussion of context which will, with God's grace, lead us to a discussion of how an understanding of scripture can restore us to fullness with God and each other in Christ. Join the Lectionary Bible Study group in Realm or on our website, kccathedral.org/adultformation, for more details.

Youth

Youth in grades 6-12 meet Sundays at 9:15 a.m. for Formation and for Youth Group at 6 p.m. May 10 & 24.

Today's Focal St. John's Bible Illumination

The Pathway to the Father

The Way Section of "I AM Sayings" Illumination (John 14:1-14)

Today's Gospel text declares that Jesus is not simply a profound teacher but IS the path (the Way), the ultimate revelation of God (the Truth), and the source of spiritual being (the Life).

Collectively, the day's lectionary readings emphasize that the essence of Christian faith is not a set of rules, nor a philosophy, not even the resolute doctrinal intractability of the tradition-bound disciple, but a lived relationship with the One Who is the Way. Christ's steadfast faithfulness is the foundation that makes our own faithfulness possible amid life's uncertain and ever-changing conditions.

The human tendency is to desire a god who makes faith easy, who provides black and white answers to our hardest questions, who removes all doubts, who provides clear directional signs at each of life's junctures. But the "way" of faith often demands giving up comfortable or familiar conceptions of God and becoming a vulnerable apprentice or a fledging disciple and then undergoing this experience repeatedly throughout life just when we feel we have mastered the "art of being Christian." By its very nature, traveling on a path implies change. It can be very painful and disorienting to let go of one way of relating to God and trusting him into another. The One Who is the Way acknowledges that things change ("I must go") but gives assurance that he is still with us ("Do not let your heart be troubled"). Living in Christian community is one of the places where we experience such challenges, sometimes to our surprise. The positions we hold and how we perform them and who is given responsibility for particular functions necessarily changes from time-to-time, but the Christ who is the Way accompanies us through such transitions. Our call is to walk faithfully with Christ regardless of how things might change, even in the most sacred of communities.

Rather than being the God who removes all of life's challenges, or who provides easy answers, or who smooths over every doubt, the God who is the Way accompanies us through life's difficulties, questions, and doubts. This is the message of The Way portion of the "I AM Sayings" illumination. Note in this depiction that the pathway is not free of obstacles which must be overcome. This pathway has patches of dark mystery, confusing turns, unmarked intersections, and potentially fear inducing dangers. But also observe how the spinning sun hangs close in this panel, accompanying the traveler and illuminating the way through all things. Furthermore, Christ's presence doesn't end with this mortal life. It extends into the mysterious expanses beyond the confines of life as we know it ("I go and prepare a place for you"). The One Who is the Way assures us that we have a place — a home — with God.

As the One Who is the Way, Jesus assures each of us that our story will not end in death. We at times are likely to feel overwhelmed, frightened, or alone. But, because of the divine work of Christ, the Way is open before us. If we accept Jesus' invitation to join him on the Way, this One Who is the Way will safely bear us home. So, "don't let your heart be troubled."

Mental Health Awareness Month

Our Youth are gathering donations this month for the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI).

DONATE ON OUR WEBSITE

The Cathedral youth are recognizing Mental Health Awareness Month by raising funds for National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI). Giveaways are available for donations at coffee hour.

NAMI is an alliance of more than 650 local Affiliates and 49 State Organizations who work in communities to raise awareness and provide support and education that was not previously available to those in need. They are dedicated to building better lives for the millions of Americans affected by mental illness. Through their programs and services, they challenge stigma, champion supportive policies, and support and empower individuals and families. They are building stronger communities and a better future for everyone affected by mental illness.
